Vienna, July 24.

From Oedenburg we have an account, That the Palatine Secretary who was sent to Count Teckley, was returned, and had given the Dyet an account, that Count Teckley had declared, That they could not approve the Choice that had been made of a Palatin; That they only desired that the ancient Laws and Priviledges of the Kingdom should be restored, and that the Monys they had promised yearly to the Turks, should be paid. In the mean time, the two Armies, that of the Emperors, commanded by Count Caprara, and that of the Rebels, lie very near each other; and if the Cessation of Arms be not renewed, we may expect to hear very quickly of some Action between them. We are told that the Turks are drawing together a great Body of Men near Caprenits, in Croatia.

Francfort, July 30. The Sieur Straetman, one of the Emperors Commissioners for the Conferences that are to be held in this City, is expected here in few days. From Ratisbonne, we have an account, That the Elector Palatin, the Landgrave of Hessen Darmstadt, and the Counts of Wetteravia, have laid before the Dyet, a particular of what they have suffered by the French, since the conclusion of the Peace of Nimeguene.

Brussels, August 1. We have Letters from Luxemburg, of the 30th past, which give no account of the arrival of the Express, which carried the Prince of Parma's Orders for the yielding of Chinay, but tell us that the French Troops lay disperfed up and down that Country, and that they could see their Quarters from the Walls of the City of Luxemburg. Yesterday arrived here from Holland, Collonel d'Averne, and this Morning the Prince of Parma called an extraordinary Council, which makes it believed, the said Collonel came about some Business of importance. The Count de Montbron, with the Forces under his Command, making a Body of about 6000 Men, continues Encamped at Pont Epieres, and its supposed will do so till he has an account that the Prince of Parma's Orders concerning Chinay are Executed. In the mean time the Prince of Parma is doing what he can to put these Countries into a posture of Defence: He gives out Commissions daily for the raising of Men, and has made an Agreement with certain Persons, who are in two Months time to provide 3000 Horses. And besides what is to be raised here and in Germany, we expect 3000 Foot from Spain.

Hague, August 5. The States of Holland and West-Frizeland, are Adjourned till Wednesday come Sevensight. The Prince of Orange is gone to Soestdike, where her Highness will continue till the Prince is returned from England. There are Letters from the Elector of Brandenburg's Court, which inform us, That as well His Electoral Highness as his Ministers, had declared to the Count de Rabenac, the French Envoy, that if the King his Master continued to Treat the States of the Empire, and particularly the Elector Palatine, as he had of late done, he would find that there were Princes enough in the Empire that could not bear it, and would take such Measures as may be necessary for their common Peace and Security; and that the Count de Rabenac had promised that he would represent the same to the King his Master.

Windsor, July 27. An humble Address from the County Palatine of Lancaster, and from the Town of Harmich, have been presented to His Majesty, by his Grace the Duke of Albemarle. Several other Addresses have likewise been presented to His Majesty.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, and Grand Jury, within the County Palatine of Lancaster, unanimously agreed upon and Signed at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at the Castle of Lancaster, in, and for the said County, the 12th day of July, in the thirty third Year of Your Majesties Reign; being the first Sessions next after the receiving and reading of Your Majesties Gracious Declaration.

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Obedient and Loyal Subjects, being highly sensible of our great Felicity, as living both in the best Reformed Church, and under the most just, easie, and best Constituted Monarchy in the World, and having (according to the full desire of our Hearts) received an additional Joy and Happiness, by the repeated assurance of Your Majesties gracious Resolutions to Protect the true Protestant Religion, by the Law of England now Established, and to preserve the Liberties and Properties of Your good Subjects, and by frequent Parliaments, as occasion requires, to redress our Grievances; and that as You will not Rule by an Arbitrary Power your Self, so not to suffer it in others; but in all things to Govern according to these Excellent Laws of the Kingdom, which are even such as we our selves, and others, the Commons of the Land, have prayed Your Sacred Majesty, and your Royal Ancestors to consent unto. In testimony of our unfeigned Gratitude, we with all Humility, do take this first Opportunity to declare to Your Majesty and the whole World, our sincere Resolutions, with the hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, according to our bounden Duty, to defend Your Sacred Person, and Royal Prerogative, and to shew our selves Faithful to Your Majesty, Your Heirs, and Lawful Successors, and firm to the Protestant Religion by Law established, against all Popish Plots, and Phanatical Practices whatsoever.
