Extracts of Two Letters from Vice-Admiral Drury, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the East Indies, addressed to the Honourable W. IV. Pole, and dated on board His Majesty's Ship Ruffel, Madras Roads, the 16th of February 1810.

I HAVE received a Letter from Captain Briggs, of His Majesty's Ship Clorinde, stating his having captured on the 28th of January last, off the Baffes, the French Ship Privateer L'Henri, mounting Eight Twelve-Pounders, pierced for Fourteen Guns, and with a Complement of Fifty-seven Men.

Lieutenant William Kempthorne, commanding His Majesty's Brig Diana, has captured the Tephin, a Dutch National Brig of War, on the 11th of September last, having Fourteen Guns.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral D'Auvergne, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Guernsey, to John Wilson Croker, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Ulysses, Gronville Bay, Jersey, the 30th of August 1810,

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to transmit inclosed, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Master of the Hired Cutter Queen Charlotte's Report of the very gallant Action he sustained Yesterday Afternoon with one of the Enemy's large Cutters near Alderney; when the great Disproportion of Force opposed to our small Vessel is considered, the Conduct of Mr. Thomas, the Commander of the Queen Charlotte, and his gallant little Crew, appears highly creditable to them.

The Queen Charlotte is armed only with Eight Four-Pounders and Twenty-five Men, whereas the Enemy's Vessel appears to have been formerly the Swan, one of our Revenue Cutters, captured about Two Years ago off Portland, and is known to be armed with Sixteen Twelve-Pounders, from Eighty to One Hundred Men, and still, with that immense Superiority, found it meet to give way to the distinguished Gallantry of our little Vessel, who besides being shattered in her Rigging and Sails I have to lament that most of her wounded are grievously so, one has died and another is given over, but the rest are doing well at Alderney, where they were landed after the Action, the Cutter having no surgical Assistance on board.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. D'AUGVERNE & BOUILLON,
Vice-Admiral.

His Majesty's Hired Cutter Queen Charlotte, St. Aubin's Bay, Aug. 30, 1810.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint you, that proceeding off Cherbourg, agreeably to your Orders, with Mr. P. A. Mulgrave, on the 29th Instant, at Three P. M. Alderney bearing S. S. W. Three or Four Leagues, observed a large Cutter in the S. E. standing for us, with an English White Ensign and Pendant flying; not liking her Appearance I made the necessary Preparation for giving her as warm a Reception as possible. At Half-past Three he came close to us, luffed up, and hauled down the English Ensign, and hoisted French, and at the same Time we gave him our broadside of Round and Grape, which was quickly returned by the Enemy; we continued the Action within Pistol-Shot till Five P. M. when the Enemy hauled his Wind to the N. E. leaving us in no Condition to follow him, having the Boatswain killed, and Fourteen wounded, some of them badly; Among the latter is Mr. P. A. Mulgrave. At Six P. M. Two Shore-Boats came off from Alderney, and I sent the wounded Men by them on Shore.

From the great Superiority of the Enemy, being a large Cutter of Sixteen Guns, and full of Men, and our Crew only Twenty-five Men in all, I trust that the Conduct of His Majesty's Hired Cutter Queen Charlotte will meet your Approbation on this Occasion.

I cannot say too much in praise of my Chief-Mate and Pilot, and all my little Crew, for their undaunted Bravery and good Conduct. I inclose a List of the Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

JOSEPH THOMAS, Master.

To Vice-Admiral D'Auvergne, &c. &c. &c.

John Loria, Boatswain, killed.
John Adams, Mate, badly wounded.
James Flinders, Seaman, ditto.
Edward Baker, Seaman, ditto.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Byron, of His Majesty's Ship Belvidera, to John Wilson Croker, Esq; dated North Tarmouth, 6th Instant.

YOU will be pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that being near in Shore off Studtland, Coast of Norway, on the 22d of July, His Majesty's Ship Nemesis in Company. I observed a deep Bay in the Evening, and sent Mr. McPherson, the Master of the Belvidera, to sound round it, who perceiving Three Vessels at Anchor, rowed near to reconnoitre them; in the Night they fired at him, the Strangers being Danish Gun-Vessels. On the following Morning the Launch, with a Twelve-Pounder Carronade in Bow, Barge, and Two Cutters of the Belvidera, were well manned and armed as soon as possible, under the Command of Lieutenants Nibbett and Bruce, and Lieutenant Campbell of the Royal Marines; and the Launch, Pinnace, and Yawl of the Nemesis, under Lieutenants Hodgkins and Smith; the Seven Boats rapidly advanced to attack the Enemy, which soon began to cannonade them; the Boats firing their Bow-Guns with great Effect, the Danish Colours were soon struck, and the Two Gun-Schooners Balder and Thor, each carrying Two Long Twenty-four-Pounders and Six Six-Pounders Howitzers, and each manned with Forty-five Men, in our Possession; the Gun-Boat No. 5, carrying One Twenty-four-Pounder and Twenty-five Men, had repeatedly fired, was chased up a Fiora and abandoned by the Crew, was blown up by our Boats, whose excellent Fire and Resolution to close threw the Enemy in Confusion, and, notwithstanding the Firmness of Lieutenants Dahlreup and Rasmussen, their Commanders, caused their Fire to be ineffective; we fortunately had no Loss; the Enemy had Four Men killed. I cannot sufficiently praise the Conduct of all the Officers, Masters' Mates, Midshipmen, and every Seaman and Marine of the Belvidera. Captain Ferris has expressed to me his perfect Approbation of all belonging to the Nemesis.

August 1, 1810.

Navy-Office, June 25, 1810.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give Notice, that a Plan of Education has been established, at the Royal Naval College at His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, for a Superior Class of Apprentices to Shipwrights.

That the Number of Students in the Superior Class of Shipwrights' Apprentices shall, in the first Instance, be limited to Twelve, but will gradually be increased to Twenty-five. The period of Apprenticeship shall be Seven Years, but for a Student who may have previously served in the Inferior Class of Apprentices in His Majesty's Yards for the Space of Two Years, it shall be only Six Years, and only Five Years for a Student who may have previously served in the said Class for the Space of Three Years.

An Instructor in the Theory of Naval Architecture will be added to the present Establishment of the Royal Naval College, to assist particularly in the Instruction of this Class of Apprentices.

The Candidates for Admission must produce Certificates from two respectable Physicians or Surgeons that they are of sound Health and Constitution, and likewise Proof from the Register of the Parish in which they were born, of their being at least Fifteen, and not more than Seventeen Years of Age, excepting Candidates from among the Shipwrights' Apprentices of the Yard, who may be admitted if they shall not have served more than Three Years of their Time. Candidates shall be examined on the first Wednesday in November in each Year, by the Professor of the Royal Naval College, assisted by the Instructor in the Theory of Naval Architecture, in the Presence of the Commissioner of the Yard, the Lieutenant Governor of the College, and Master Shipwright, who shall jointly report the Result of the Examination to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, carefully inserting the Names of the Candidates in Succession according to their respective Merits.

The following shall be the Subjects of Examination, with which every successful Candidate must be perfectly acquainted.

- 1st. Reading English, and writing it with Facility from Dictation.
- 2d. The first Four Rules of Arithmetic, and the Rule of Three in whole Numbers, and also in Vulgar and Decimal Fractions.
- 3d. The first Three Books of Euclid's Elements by R. Simson, with the Exception of Propositions 42, 44, 45, Book I. and of Propositions 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, Book II. In this Part of the Examinations, besides giving the most precise Demonstrations, the Candidates will be expected to make the Constructions in a practical Manner with Compasses and a Ruler.
- 4th. The French Language, a Knowledge of which, although not absolutely required in the Candidates who may present themselves at the first Examination which is to be held, will nevertheless give a Preference to those, who are in all other Respects equally qualified; at all subsequent Examinations, however, the Candidates will be required to read and translate French with Facility.

After Admission into the Superior Class, the Apprentices shall attend at the Royal Naval College Three or Four Hours on the Mornings of every Day in the Week, except Sunday and the esta-lished Holidays; where they shall be instructed in such Parts of the following Subjects as shall appear to the Professor of the College to be best adapted to the Object of the Establishment, viz. the Formation of able and useful Ship Builders:

Geometry	Fluxions
Algebra	Theory of Naval
Plane Trigonometry	Architecture
Mechanics	Drawing
Hydrostatics	The French Language.

On Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays, the Apprentices shall be employed at the College during the Hours above-mentioned, in the Study of Mathematics, under the Professor or the Instructor; on Thursday and Friday Mornings in Drawing, under the Drawing Master, the Art of Perspective being most particularly applied in drawing the different Parts of a Ship; and the Morning of Saturday shall be appropriated to the Study of such Books and Exercises in the French Language, under the French Master, as may perfect them therein, and at the same Time advance their professional Knowledge. This Division of Time allotted for their Studies, is, however, to be subject to such Alterations as shall appear to the Professor best calculated for promoting the Object of the Institution.

In the remaining Part of the Day, when not attending at the College, they shall be employed under the Master Shipwright or Instructor of Naval Architecture, in the Mould Loft, in the various Kinds of manual Labour connected with Ship-building; in the Acquirement of a complete Knowledge of the different Parts of a Ship, and of the Method of constructing and fastening the same, as well as in discriminating her different Properties deducible from theoretical Calculations; also in the Management and Conversion of Timber, and generally, in such other Manner as the Master Shipwright may consider as best adapted to make them fully acquainted with all the Detail of the Duties of a practical Shipwright.

To ensure the Punishment of Offences committed by them during their Attendance at the College, a Book shall be kept by the Instructor, in which such Offences shall be entered; and at the End of each Week, or oftener if there be Occasion, this Book shall be sent to the Office of the Commissioner, who will order such Punishment to be inflicted, as may be conformable to the usual Treatment of Apprentices in the Dock-Yard.

And at the End of each Year, a Public Examination shall take place, in the Presence of the Officers mentioned in the 3d Article, and a general Statement of the Improvement of the respective Apprentices in the theoretical Part of their Profession, shall be transmitted by the Professor of the College, and of their Progress in the practical Part by the Master Shipwright, through the Commissioner of the Dock-Yard, to the Admiralty-Office; to the End that, if it shall appear that an Apprentice has particularly distinguished himself in any of the Departments of his Profession, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty may confer on him such Mark of their Approbation, as their Lordships may deem expedient.

The last Year of their Apprenticeship, or such Part thereof as the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty may think proper, shall be served at Sea, in such of His Majesty's Ships as their Lordships shall direct, with a view of obtaining some practical Knowledge in the steering, sailing, trimming, and ballasting of a Ship, in making Remarks on the Motion and working of a Ship, in all her Parts, in bad Weather, and on a high Sea, the standing and straining of the Masts and Yards under such Circumstances, the placing of the fixed Blocks, with a view to the proper leading of Ropes, &c. and, generally, in obtaining such Information, as the Captain, Carpenter, and other Officers of the Ship may, by their Experience, communicate, and such as their own Observations may suggest.

During the Time that such an Apprentice shall be on board a Ship, he will be required to keep a Journal of his Remarks and Observations, arranged under distinct Heads, noting such Improvements in any Part of the Ship, or any Thing connected therewith, as may suggest themselves to him; from a minute Attention to the Circumstances by which a Ship is affected at Sea; a Copy of which Journal is to be transmitted to the Admiralty.

A Cabin or Berth will be allotted to him in the Gun-Room, or in some other suitable Part of the Ship; he shall mess with some of the Officers, and be treated in all respects as a Gentleman.

Salaries to be allowed Apprentices of the Superior Class.

If the Apprentice shall not have served Two Years in the Inferior Class.	If the Apprentice shall have served Two Years in that Class.	If the Apprentice shall have served Three Years in that Class.	Sum.

6th Year	5th Year	4th Year	110
7th Year	6th Year	5th Year	130

Upon their Return from Sea, until they can be appointed Officers in consequence of Vacancies having occurred, they shall be employed as Overseers of Ships building, in assisting the Master Shipwright in the different Yards, and their Assistants or Foremen; in the Mould Loft, under the Timber Master, or in any other Situation in which the Master Shipwright may have Occasion to employ them, with the Approbation of the Commissioner; during that Interval they shall have 15*l.* per Annum, and if such Vacancies should not happen for Three Years after their Return, they shall then have 18*l.* per Annum until they be provided for.

In order that the Services of young Men, whose Education has been obtained at a considerable Expence to Government, may not be lost on the Expiration of their Apprenticeship, they shall each of them, previously to their Entry in the Yard, be required to find two Sureties, to enter into Bond to the Amount of 50*l.* and in the Event of an Apprentice being discharged for Misconduct, the Amount of the Bond, or so much of it as may indemnify Government for the Expence incurred in his Education, shall be forfeited.

The Object of this Institution is to improve the Qualifications of the Shipwrights in the Dock-Yards, and thereby to ensure a Succession of Artificers, from among whom Officers of the Description of Master Mariners, Foremen, &c. will be selected, and from those the Appointments of the Superior Officers in His Majesty's Dock-Yards, and Surveyors of the Navy, will ultimately be made.

The Day of Examination is fixed for the First Wednesday in November next (7th November 1810). A certain Number of Apprentices now in the Dock-Yards are to be excused from manual Labour, to prepare themselves for the Examination; and this public Notice of the Qualifications expected from those who intend to become Candidates, and of the Day on which such Candidates will be examined, is given, in order that the Number to be entered in the Superior Class of Apprentices (which in the First Year is to be limited to Twelve) may be selected from those best qualified, whether belonging to the Dock Yard or not.

Such Persons of the Description before mentioned, who may be desirous of becoming Candidates for Admission to the Superior Class of Apprentices to belong to His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, are therefore hereby informed, that they will be required to send Notice of their Intention to the Navy Board, or the Commissioner of His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, on the 24th of October 1810, and they must be prepared with every Document and Qualification mentioned in this Advertisement, and be at Portsmouth Dock Yard at Eight o'Clock on the Morning of the Day of Examination, viz. 7th November 1810, and wait for further Directions from the Commissioner for their Proceedings.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.
