Crown-Office, December 11, 1810.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Milborne Port.

THE Honourable General Edward Paget, in the Room of Lord Viscount Lewisham, now Earl of Dartmouth, called up to the House of Peers.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for permitting certain Goods, imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouses, without Payment of Duty," it is amongst other things enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees, of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed, marked (E); and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure in a Warehouse or Warehouses to be provided for that Purpose any such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, under the joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant, without Payment, at the Time of the first Entry, of the Duties of Customs due on the Importation thereof: Provided always, and it is thereby further enacted, that no Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so enumerated or described in the said Table marked (E), shall be permitted to be so lodged or secured, unless and until it shall have been made appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, that the said Warehouse or Warehouses are complete, fit, and proper, in every respect, for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize; and wherein the same may be safely and securely deposited; and such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize so lodged and secured in such Warehouses, shall, in all other respects, be subject and liable to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions in that Act contained:

Provided always, and it is thereby enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the Provisions of the said Act shall be extended to any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize not enumerated or described in either of the Tables thereto annexed, and shall cause a List of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Act shall extend and be construed to extend to such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize in every respect, in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Tables respectively at the Time of passing this Act.

We the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in Execution of the Powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare that it appears to us to be expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to Gum Copal, legally imported or brought into the Port of London, (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies), and that such Gum Copal should be added to the List of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize enumerated and described in the said Table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such Gum Copal should be lodged and secured under the joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant in such Warehouse or Warehouses as aforesaid, under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act: And we do further declare, that from and after the Publication of this our Certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the Directions of the said Act, all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Act, shall extend, and be construed to extend to, all such Gum Copal in every respect, in as full and ample Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in Table (E), annexed to the said Act, at the Time of the passing the same Act.

Given under our Hands this Sixth Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten.
