A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was Yesterday received at the Office of the Earl of Liverpool, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Viscount Wellington, dated Cartaxo, December 22, 1810.

My Lord,

THE Enemy still continue in their Position at Santarem, in which no Alteration of consequence has been made since I addressed your Lordship on the 15th Instant.

They continue to collect Boats on the Zezere, over which River they have now Two or Three Bridges.

The Enemy have shewn themselves on the Lower Coa, according to the last Accounts from General Silveira, but not, in his Opinion, in such Force as to pass that River. The Reports which I had received of the March of the Troops of the 9th Corps towards Madrid have not been confirmed.

The last Accounts which I have received from Cadiz are of the 8th Instant.

I have, &c.

(Signed)

WELLINGTON.

THE following Extract of a Dispatch from Lord Viscount Wellington, dated Cartaxo, December 29, 1810, has been received at the Office of the Earl of Liverpool.

SINCE I addressed you on the 22d Instant, I have received Reports that the Enemy's Troops which had retired from Lower Beira, in the End of last and the Beginning of this Month, had crossed the Coa at Almeida, on the 15th and 16th Instant, and had moved into Upper Beira, by the Roads of Pinhel and Trancofo, and of Alverca and Celerico.

I have not been able to ascertain exactly the Strength of the Body of Troops which have entered by this Frontier, but it is stated to be 16,000 or 17,000 Men, and consists, I should imagine, not only of Gardanne's Division, but of some, if not the whole of the Troops of the 9th Corps.

By the last Accounts I have of these Troops; the Advanced Guard had arrived at Maceira, in the Valley of the Mondego, on the 22d, and their Progress has not been rapid. But if they have continued their March, they ought by this Time to be in Communication with the Enemy's Post in the Neighbourhood of Thomar.

General Silveira had retired with his Division of Troops to Moimento de Beira; but he and General Miller and Colonel Wilson were prepared to act across the Mondego upon the Flanks and Rear of the Enemy's Troops, the whole of which it appears were marching on the Left of that River.

No Alteration has been made in the Position of the Enemy's Troops in Front of this Army, excepting that a Detachment of between Two or Three Thousand Cavalry and Infantry had moved into Lower Beira, across the Zezere towards Castello Branco, probably with a View to gain Intelligence.

By Accounts from Estremadura, it appears that Generals Mendizabal and Ballasteros have had some Success in their Operations against a French Division belonging to Mortier's Corps, which had been stationed in Llerena: They have obliged this Division to retire from Guadalcanal, with some Loss.
