W Hereas Information has been given to the Commissioners for managing His Majesty's Stamp Duties, that many Bankers have been and continue in the Habit of re-issuing Notes after the Expiration of the Periods allowed by Law; to the end, therefore, that no Person may plead Ignorance of the Act of Parliament in that Behalf, Notice is hereby given to the Public,

That by the Act of the Forty-eighth of the King, Cap. 149, Bankers' Notes for 2l. 2s. or less, only stamped according to that Act, are now allowed to be re-issued after Payment, without any Limitation of Time; and that Notes for Sums amounting to 100l. and above 2l. 2s. only are allowed to be re-issued after Payment, for the Space of Three Years from the Date.

Bankers' Notes, bearing the Duties existing before the 10th of October 1808, if bona fide issued and in Circulation before that Day, and if then re-issuable under the Act of the Forty-fourth of the King, were allowed to be re-issued only as follows, viz. Notes for 2l. 2s. or less, until the Expiration of Three Years from the Date, if dated before or upon the 25th of June 1806, or if dated after that Day, then until the 24th of June 1809, but not afterwards; and Notes for more than 2l. 2s. and not exceeding 20l. until the Expiration of Three Years from the Date thereof, but not afterwards.

The Act declares, that all re-issuable Notes paid after the above Periods, shall upon Payment thereof be wholly discharged and vacated, and no longer negotiable or available in any Manner whatsoever, under the Penalty of 50l. for each Offence; and the Party offending is answerable for such further Duty as would have been chargeable thereon, to be recovered as a Debt to His Majesty: And all Persons receiving or taking any Note, Bill, Draft, or Order in Payment, knowing the same to be re-issued contrary to Law, forfeits for every Offence the Sum of 20l. and the Note is void, and the Amount thereof irrecoverable from the Drawer.
