

Maritime Rights and Interests of the United Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

WE are directed to acquaint you, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has given His Commands that the Estimates for the Expenditure of the current Year should be laid before you; and His Royal Highness has great Satisfaction in acquainting you, that although the Difficulties under which the Commerce of this Kingdom has laboured, have in some Degree affected a Part of His Majesty's Revenue, particularly in Ireland, yet that the Revenue of Great Britain in the last Year, though unaided by any new Taxation, is greater than was ever known in any preceding Year. And His Royal Highness trusts to your Zeal and Liberality to afford His Majesty adequate Supplies for the Support of the great Contest in which He is necessarily engaged.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by His Royal Highness to declare to you, that it is the most anxious Wish of His Heart, that He may be enabled to restore unimpaired into the Hands of His Majesty the Government of His Kingdom; and that His Royal Highness earnestly prays, that the Almighty may be pleased in His Mercy to accelerate the Termination of a Calamity so deeply lamented by the whole Nation, and so peculiarly afflicting to His Royal Highness Himself.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 16, 1811.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Levee intended to be held by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent at Carlton-House, at One o'Clock, on Tuesday the 19th Instant, is postponed to Tuesday the 26th.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 14th of February 1811,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

HIS Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, was this Day pleased to appoint Thomas Wright, of Norwood Park, Esq; to be Sheriff of the County of Nottingham for the present Year.

And His Royal Highness was also pleased to make the following Amendments upon the Roll; viz.

Derbyshire,	Godfrey Meynell, of Langley, Esq; made Godfrey Meynell, of Meynell Langley, Esq.
Kent,	Sir John Courtney Honeywood, of Evington, Bart. made Sir John Courtenay Honeywood, of Evington, Bart.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 8th Day of February 1811,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twentieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and ten, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, has expired: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months from the Date of this Order, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet-Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's
