Downing-Street, February 26, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been this Morning received at the Earl of Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Viscount Wellington, dated Cartaxo, 9th of February.

THE Enemy have continued in the Neighbourhood of Badajoz, and have broke Ground before the Place on the Left of the Guadiana, and have thrown some Shells into the Town. The bad Weather, however, has obliged them to draw in the greatest Part of their Cavalry from the Ground between Badajoz and Elvas; and the Communication has been re-established.

General Mendizabel sent Orders to General Venies to advance, which Measure I had before recommended to him; and General Mendizabel himself met the Troops at Elvas on the Morning of the 6th Instant; they marched on and passed the Caya; and the Infantry entered Badajoz and the Fort of Christoval, on the Right of the Guadiana, on the Afternoon of the 6th. The French Cavalry retired, and passed the Evora, and were pursued some Distance by the Spanish Cavalry, and a Brigade of Portuguese Cavalry, under Brig. Gen. Madden, who took some Cattle, Baggage, &c.: but the Attack, if any was intended to be made, upon the French Troops on the Left of the Guadiana was deferred till the following Day.

I have received from General Ballasteros a Letter dated the 27th January, from which it appears that his Action of the 25th was very well contested; that the Loss of the Enemy, who were much superior in Numbers, was Two Thousand Men killed and wounded; and that the Retreat of the Spanish Detachment was made in good Order.

By the last Accounts from the Frontiers of Beira, it appears that a Part of Claparede's Division of the 9th Corps was still upon Guarda on the 4th Instant, with an Advanced Guard upon Belmonte. This was the Position he was ordered to take on the 5th of January by General Drouet, referred to in my Dispatch of the 12th Ultimo.

General Foix arrived at Salamanca from Paris, with Letters for Massena, on the 13th January, and I imagine that he Yesterday reached the Head-Quarters of the Army. He had with him an Escort of between Two or Three Thousand Men.

Colonel Grant, who commands the Ordenanza in Lower Beira, had followed to the Neighbourhood of Sobugal the Detachment which escorted the Couriers which marched from the Zeyra on the 22d of January, and had taken much Baggage from them and several Prisoners. On his Return, he attacked General Foix's Escort, with a fresh Detachment of Ordenanza, at Enxabarda, at the Entrance of the Estrada Nova; and I enclose his Report of the 2d Instant on this Affair, and an Extract of his Report of the 4th Instant to Marshal Sir William Beresford, and the Marshal's Letter to me.

I hear from the Enemy's Head-Quarters that they state they lost Five Hundred Men in this Affair.

There has been no Movement of any Importance in the Enemy's Army since I addressed your Lordship.

MY LORD, Chamusca, February 7, 1811.

I HAVE the Honour to transmit to your Lordship the Report of Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, whom some time since I sent to superintend and command the Ordenanza on the Frontier of Lower Beira, and towards Guarda. The Force of the Enemy, differently stated, appears to have been between Two and Three Thousand, and was under the Orders of General Foix, and apparently to serve as his Escort to enable him to join Marshal Massena. Lieutenant-Colonel Grant took Post at Enxabarda, near the Commencement of Estrada Nova, coming from towards Fundaõ, and under which the Enemy was obliged to pass. The Success of Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, and the Loss of the Enemy, have been much greater than either the Number of Men that the Lieutenant-Colonel had with him, or than Circumstances would have given reason to look for, and will give great Animation and Encouragement to this Nature of Warfare in all that Part of the Country. The People engaged have got very considerable Booty, as there is no French Soldier that has not much of what he has pillaged about him; and he is always a good Prize for his Captor.

I have, &c.

(Signed) W. C. BERESFORD, Marshal.

Enxabarda, Entrance of the Estrada Nova, February 2, 1811.

SIR,
BE pleased to state to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that Yesterday the 1st, a Column of the Enemy, under the Command of General Le Foix, consisting of Three Thousand Cavalry and Infantry from Ciudad Roderigo, passed for the Estrada Nova to join Massena. They slept on the 31st at Alcaria near Fundão

On the 1st, with Eighty of the Ordinanza from Alpedrinha, I took possession of a Height near this Village, by which they must pass; a well-directed Fire was kept up for Two Hours, and only terminated by the Night; the Result was Eighteen killed on the Road, a very considerable Number wounded, and Ten Prisoners; several of the wounded were found dead this Morning, from the extreme Inclemency of the Weather; several Cars with Grain, and a considerable Number of Ballocks were also taken; and, having sent Parties to annoy their Front and Rear, I have reason to think they must suffer considerably ere they quit the Estrada Nova; we lost only One Man, with a few Horses wounded, amongst them my own.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) J. GRANT, Lieut. Col.
Colonel D'Urban, &c. &c. &c.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Grant to Colonel D'Urban, dated Fundão, February 4, 1811.

HAVE the Goodness to state to His Excellency the Marshal, that the Result of the Affair of the 1st Instant near Enxabarda, has been more complete than I at first stated, Two Hundred and Seven of the Enemy having been found dead on the 2d, in the Space of Four Leagues, a Number of whom died in consequence of their Wounds, and the Inclemency of the Weather. Eighteen Prisoners are also in my Power, and Four Englishmen who had entered the French Service, in the Irish Legion, to effect their Escape, having been Five Years Prisoners; one of them is of the 30th Regiment, the others had been Sailors. I have also to state that the Colonel of the 70th Regiment (French), also the Quarter-Master, were found among the Dead. The Enemy lost the greatest Part of their Baggage and Cattle. I transmit some of their Papers and Letters.

I BEG Leave to inform you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, of my having on the 21st Instant, at Eight A. M. in Latitude 49° 49' North, Longitude 7° 6' West, fallen in with the Confidence French Schooner Privateer, of Sixteen Guns, (Fourteen of which she threw overboard in the Chase), and Sixty-two Men, and after a Chase of Eight Hours, blowing hard, discovered Two Ships a-head, which the Chase observing altered her Course, and we immediately succeeded in capturing her. She appears to be a very fine Copper-bottomed Vessel, sails remarkably fast, and is well calculated for His Majesty's Service. I have, &c.

Whitehall, February 19, 1811.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the Night of the 6th Instant, or very early on the Morning of the 7th Instant, a Private Soldier of the 73d Regiment, while on Duty at the Outskirts of the Barrack-Yard at Braebourne Lees, was suddenly knocked down by a Blow from a Brick-Bat, when Two Men rushed upon him as he lay on the Ground, and he received a violent Blow from one of them with a Bill Hook, which nearly severed his left Hand from his Arm;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons who committed the Assault above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall discover and apprehend the said Offenders, to be paid on Conviction by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

R. RYDER.

Whitehall, February 23, 1811.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening of the 18th Instant, a Boat of the Rattlesnake Lugger, in the Service of His Majesty's Customs, commanded by Henry Pulley, Mate of the said Lugger, and the Boats of the Lively Cutter, in the Service of the Excise, chased on Shore, at the North End of Deal, a smuggling Lugger, laden with Ninety-six Half Ankers of Spirits, which were seized by the Officers of Excise; and, shortly after the Seizure, a Firing was commenced on the Revenue Boats and Officers by the Smugglers assembled on the Shore, whereby the said Henry Pulley was dangerously wounded, and Thomas Sutton, one of the Mariners of the Excise Cutter, was likewise dangerously (and it is supposed mortally) wounded; and that after the said Lugger and her Cargo were gotten off the Beach, a Party of the Military and of the Crews of the Revenue Boats, who were left to guard the said Boats, were again attacked and fired upon by the Smugglers, but fortunately without any Mischief ensuing;

His Royal Highness, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, for promoting the Discovery of the Persons guilty of the aforesaid Felonies, is graciously pleased hereby to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Persons concerned therein (except those that actually fired) who will discover any one or more of his Accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, adverting to the recent Frequency of such Outrages in the Vicinity of Deal, in Defiance of Law, and endangering the Lives of the Officers of this Revenue, and of the Military aiding them in the Discharge of their Duty, in order to evince their Determination to bring the Offenders to condign Punishment, and further to promote Discovery for the Attainment of that Object, are induced hereby to offer a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who will discover any one or more of the Persons guilty of either of the said Felonies, such Reward to be paid on his or their Conviction by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.
