Downing-Street, March 11, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, was received Yesterday at the Earl of Liverpool's Office, addressed to His Lordship by Lieutenant-General Lord Viscount Wellington K. B., dated Cartago, 16th February 1811.

SINCE I addressed your Lordship on the 9th Instant, I have received further Details of the Affairs at and near Badajoz, from which it appears that the Portuguese Cavalry having been unsupported in their Passage of the Ebro on the 6th Instant, were obliged to retire across the Ebro, in which Operation they sustained some Loss. The whole of the Cavalry and Infantry were then drawn into the Fort of Badajoz; and, on the 7th Instant, they made a Sortie upon the Enemy, in which they succeeded in obtaining Possession of one of the Enemy's Batteries, but they were obliged to retire again, and unfortunately, the Guns in the Battery were not spiked or otherwise destroyed or injured.

Their Loss was not less than Eighty-five Officers, and Five Hundred Soldiers killed and wounded, as I am informed, including the Brigadier-General, Don Carlos D'Espagne among the latter. It appears that the Spanish Troops behaved remarkably well upon this Occasion.

While the Troops were in Badajoz, the French Cavalry again crossed the Ebro, and interrupted the Communication between that Place and Elvas and Campo Major. They came out of Badajoz, however, on the Morning of the 9th Instant, and the French Cavalry were obliged to retire across the Ebro. The Troops have since taken up a Position on the Heights between the Ebro, the Ebro, and the Guadiana, by which they will keep open the Communication between Badajoz and the Country on the Right of the latter River.

The Enemy have continued the Siege; and, on the Night of the 11th Instant, they attacked the Redoubt of Pardalleros, which they carried; but they had not, on the 13th, been able to establish themselves within the Redoubt, on account of the Fire from the Body of the Place. They have likewise constructed a Work on the Left Bank of the Guadiana below the Place, to fire upon the Bridge of Communication with the Right Bank, but the Site of this Work had had but little Effect.

A great Number of the Inhabitants have taken Advantage of the Communication being opened, to leave the Place; and I understand that it is not ill supplied with Provisions.

General Chaparedo's Division of the 9th Corps was still upon Guarda, on the 20th Instant, which I last heard from that Part of the Country.

Although I have observed and heard of various Movements by the Enemy in the Interior of the Position, I have not found upon the whole any material Alteration; and I imagine that these Movements have been made principally to endeavour to obtain Subsistence. The Difficulty in finding any increases daily; and the Inhabitants of Torres Novas and Thomar, who alone had generally remained in their Habitations upon the Enemy's Invasion, are now coming into the Part of the Country nearly starving.

I have the Pleasure to forward a Report which I have received of the Conduct of Cornet Stronach of the 11th Hussars, who surprised a Picquet of the Enemy on the Night of the 9th Instant, with a small Detachment of Hussars, and brought in more Prisoners than his Detachment consisted of, without the Loss of a Man.

SIR, St. Yzac de Rilliers, Feb. 16, 1811.

IT is with great Pleasure I have the Honour to report to you the gallant Conduct of Cornet Birenawitz, of the 11th Hussars. Having previously reconnoitred all Roads and Ways, and being Officer of the Malhaquijo Picquet, he went last Night at Twelve o'Clock, with Two Non-Commissioned Officers and Eighteen Men, to surprise the Enemy's Picquet in Front of Alcanbede; after a March of Three Hours he came unperceived to their dismounted double Centinel; they challenged him, when he answered, that he was an orderly (for he had gone round, and came in the Rear); they were now taken care of, and he had his Way open to the Picquet itself. Having detached several Side-posts and a small Support, he charged the Cavalry Picquet, that tried to mount their Horses, consisting of an Officer and Twenty Men, with only about Nine or Ten of his Men. The greater Part were cut down, and many Horses taken; but now he was informed, by one of the Prisoners, that an In-

Infantry Picquet was in their Rear to support; he collected what Men he could, advanced, and found them formed in Line; he charged while receiving a Volley, cut down about Eight or Ten, and made the Rest Prisoners.

The Third Picquet of the Enemy, consisting as they say of Fifty Infantry, took to their Heels, and Cornet Strenuwitz says the Drumming and Trumpet Sounding in Alcanhede exceeded all Belief; he then withdrew, and had the Satisfaction to find that he had lost no Man or Horse, nor even one Wounded. He has been able to bring off a French Officer, Three Dragoons and Eleven Horses of the 9th Regiment, and Eight Men of the 22d Infantry.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

Lieutenant-Colonel.

Downing-Street, March 11, 1811.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, have been this Day received at the Earl of Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by Lieutenant-General Lord Viscount Wellington.

Cartaxo, February 23, 1811.

I AM much concerned to have to inform you, that the French attacked General Mendizabel on the 19th Instant, in the Position which he had taken on the Heights of St. Christoval, near Badajoz, and totally defeated him.

The Enemy had to cross the Guadiana and the Evora, but surprized the Spanish Army in their Camp, which was standing, and is taken, with Baggage and Artillery.

The Enemy have not been able to establish themselves within the Redoubt of Pardalleiros, since they carried it on the 11th Instant; and have made no Progress in the Operations of the Siege. Their Position, however, on the Right of the Guadiana, gives them great Advantages, of which they will know how to avail themselves, and they actually commenced to entrench it on the Evening of the Day on which they obtained Possession of it.

I am informed that there are Nine Thousand good Troops in Badajoz, some having retired into that Fortrefs from the Field of Battle; and that the Garrison is well supplied with Provisions, which have been left there by the Inhabitants, who quitted the Place when the Communication with it was recently opened.

The Works are still untouched, and the Enemy's Fire has hitherto done but little Damage to the Town.

General Claparede's Division of the 9th Corps still continued upon Guarda, with their advanced Guard at Belmonte, when I last heard from that Part of the Country. They had made an Attempt to obtain Possession of Covilha, on the 12th, but were repulsed with some Loss by Colonel Grant, who had occupied the Town with a Party of Ordenanzas of Lower Beira.

I inclose a Letter from Marshal Sir William Beresford, and a Report from Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, of this Affair. From later Reports I am apprehensive, however, that he has since been obliged to withdraw from thence.

I likewise enclose Reports from Major-General Sir William Erskine, who commands the Out-Posts on the Left of the Army, of the Capture of General Clausel's Aid-de-Camp, and a Detachment of the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry, on the 19th Instant, by Cornet Strenuwitz, of the Hussars, to whose Conduct, in an Enterprize of a similar Nature, I drew your Lordship's Attention in my last Dispatch.

In this Instance he has acquitted himself with great Judgment and Boldness.

The Operations of the Guerillas continue throughout the Interior.

Don Julian Sanchez, whom I have frequently mentioned to your Lordship, has recently captured a large Convoy of Biscuit on its march from Ledesma to Ciudad Rodrigo, which had come from Palencia; and another Party has recently done the Enemy considerable Injury near the Bridge of Arzobispo. It is said that General La Houffaye has been killed in an Affair at that Place.

The Enemy have made no Movement of Importance in Front of this Army since I addressed your Lordship on the 16th Instant. A considerable Quantity of Baggage has been sent out of Santarem, but I am inclined to believe that it belongs to sick Officers and Soldiers who have been removed from thence to the Rear of the Army.

MY LORD, Chamusca, Feb. 18, 1811.

I HAVE the Honour to annex for your Lordship's Information, an Extract of a Letter from Lieut. Colonel Grant, dated the 14th, from Covilhaens, by which your Lordship will see he continues to be most advantageously employed, and is a considerable Check to the Objects of the Enemy in that Quarter.

I have, &c.
(Signed) W. C. BERESFORD.
*His Excellency Viscount Wellington,

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, dated Covilhaens, 14th February, 1811.

THE Division of the Enemy who arrived at Guarda detached Two Thousand Five Hundred Men to Belmonte, Three Leagues from the Village.

The small Places round have been sacked and plundered. They at the same Time sent to Covilhaens to inform the People that it was their Intention to establish Head-Quarters there, and that they would put to Death those who fled.

In order to attempt to counteract their Intentions, and save the principal Place in this Part of the Country, I marched from Fundao on the Night of the 8th, with Four Hundred Ordenanza, (chiefly of Alpedrinda and Castel Branco) with One Piece of Artillery (Calibre 6) and arrived here at Three the following Morning.

On the Morning of the 12th, at Eight o'Clock, One Thousand Five Hundred of the French from Belmonte, in Two Columns, attempted the Place. Having stationed the People to the best Advantage, I allowed the Enemy to approach to within Grape-shot; in Ten Minutes they were thrown into Confusion, and retreated in Disorder, facing and manœuvring Three Hours in our Front, Two Companies of the best Ordenanza annoying their Flank and Rear. At Two, P. M. they retired by Teixon to Belmonte. Seven of the Enemy were found killed; some others, with the Wounded, were carried off. We had only Four Men wounded. General Claparede commands in Guarda; a Brigadier in Belmonte; the former has Three Thousand Men and Five Pieces of Artillery, with but few Cavalry.

Extract of a Letter from Sir William Erskine to Colonel Murray, dated Marmeleira, February 21, 1811.

THE Enemy having, for this some Time past, been in the Custom of making a strong Patrole almost every Night up to Arruda, I sent Cornet Strenuwitz, of the Hussars, with Thirty Men of the 16th Light Dragoons and Hussars, to place himself in Ambuscade, in the Vicinity of Ferragoas, on the Morning of the 19th, in order to cut off this Patrole if it should appear, and likewise to watch the Movements of the Enemy, who are reported to be on the Eve of making some considerable Movements.

The Picquet of Malhaquijo was reinforced and kept in Readiness to support the Party. The Enemy's Patrole not appearing, as was expected, during the Night of the 19th or of the 20th, on the Evening of that Day Cornet Strenuwitz (not having Forage to enable him to remain longer) sent a small Party up to the Enemy's Picquet at Alcanhede to invite them out, which had the desired Effect, the Enemy following this Patrole with an Officer and Twenty Infantry, and an Officer and the same Number of Dragoons, who were led by the Patrole within Reach of the Ambuscade, when Cornet Strenuwitz fell upon them; the Officer, with the whole of the Infantry, were taken or cut down, Three Dragoons were likewise taken, and several cut down. The Remainder escaped by dispersing, and being near to their Post. The Officer of the Infantry who is taken is wounded; Seventeen Prisoners in all have been brought in; we had One Horse wounded.

Cornet Strenuwitz conducted himself on this Occasion with much Ability, and I have to request you will be so good as to mention him to the Commander in Chief.

Marmeleira, Feb. 21, 1811.

DEAR COLONEL,

THE Officer who is taken is General Clausel's Aid de Camp. He has been with different Parties in Ambuscade for this Week past, to catch some of our Patroles from Rio Major, but seeing the small Patrole on the Ferragoas Road, he thought to cut it off, and in consequence fell into our Ambuscade. He is so badly wounded that he cannot proceed from this Place To-day; one of the Dragoons taken is dead of his Wounds; most of the Prisoners are wounded but slightly.

Ever yours, &c.

(Signed) W. ERSKINE.

Lieutenant Colonel Murray, Quartr. Master General.

Cartaxo, March 2d, 1811.

NO Event of Importance has occurred since I addressed you on the 23d of February. The Enemy have continued their Operations against Badajoz, but without much Effect; and the Fire of the Place is well kept up, and the Garrison in good Spirits.

General Mendizabel is endeavouring to collect and re-organize his Corps at Villa Viciola, in Portugal.

The Enemy moved a large Force, with Cannon, upon Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, at Covilhaõ, on the 18th February, and he was obliged to withdraw the Ordenanza from thence, and to retire to Alpedrinha, where he was according to the last Accounts.

The Enemy have made no Movement of any Importance in the Front of this Army.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

AT a Time when the Calamity which we deplore, in common with all His Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, has deprived us of his paternal Guidance and Protection, we, with unfeigned Attachment and Respect, approach Your Royal Highness, to express our sincere Satisfaction that the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, has been committed to Your Care by the unanimous Voice of all his People.

We are fully confident that under the Regency which Your Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to accept for our Benefit, the same Ready Adherence to the Laws and Constitution of these Realms, which has marked His Majesty's long and auspicious Reign, will continue to be observed, and that the Attachment of a faithful People to his Person, Crown and Family will be promoted, at the same Time that the Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, which we have always cherished towards the Son of the Representative of our Sovereign, and the Inheritor of his Virtues, will be strengthened and confirmed.

In Testimony whereof the Common Seal of said City is hereto affixed this Sixteenth Day of February One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eleven, Nathaniel Hone, Lord-Mayor.

Matthew West and Brent Neville, Sheriffs.

[Transmitted, by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and unanimous Address of the Inhabitants of Brighthelmston.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WITH every Sentiment of Loyalty to His Majesty, and of sincere Attachment to Your Royal Highness, we, the Inhabitants of Brighthelmston, intreat Permission to approach Your Royal Presence.

The affecting Calamity with which an all-wise Providence has been pleased to visit your illustrious House, and the Condescension of Your Royal Highness in accepting the Reins of Government under Restrictions and Limitations hitherto unknown to the executive Authority, demand from the Nation at large, and from this Town in particular, the most public and unequivocal Expressions of Condolence and Gratitude.

The Royal Family are not the only Sufferers on this melancholy Occasion; a whole People mourn over the Affliction of a Monarch, who has for Fifty Years adorned a Throne with every Virtue of Humanity, and who is endeared to them by innumerable Acts of paternal Wisdom and Affection.

But it is no inconsiderable Alleviation of the general Sorrow that, in the Person of Your Royal Highness, the Rights of our Sovereign have found a powerful Guardian, and the Interests of the Nation a wife and efficient Protector.

We present our warmest Acknowledgments to Your Royal Highness for the Readiness with which you have accepted the Cares of Royalty, with so small a Portion of its Dignities and Resources.

We also beg Leave to assure Your Royal Highness, that the Reluctance with which His Majesty's Ministers proceeded to confer that Power which they could not in Justice withhold, and the illiberal Policy which induced them by every Means to attempt a Diminution of its Value, have excited our most unqualified Disapprobation; and we feel it to be the more imperiously incumbent upon us, to give the most zealous, dutiful and affectionate Support to Your Royal Highness in your new and difficult Situation.

Nor can we, on the present Occasion, refuse our Tribute of Admiration to that magnanimous and dignified Conduct which, through the delicate and distracted Discussions of the Question of Regency, Your Royal Highness so uniformly displayed. In the Rational Wisdom and in the constitutional Principles of Your Royal Highness we most entirely confide; and we cannot but indulge the pleasing Hope that Your Royal Highness will call to the great Offices of State, and to your Councils, those who will most cheerfully and ably co-operate in maintaining equally the Dignity of the Crown and the Rights of the People.

Signed by Resolution of the Meeting.

John Hargraves, Chairman, High Constable of the Town of Brighthelmston.
