Downing-Street, April 30, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, was this Morning received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to His Lordship by Lieutenant-General Viscount Wellington, dated Nissa, 18th April 1811.

HAVING made Arrangements for the Blockade of Almeida, and having Reason to believe that the Enemy's Army will not be in a Situation for some Time to attempt to relieve that Place, even if they should be so inclined, I have taken Advantage of the momentary Discontinuance of active Operations in that Quarter to go into Estremadura to the Corps under Marshal Sir William Beresford, and I have got thus far on my Way.

Lieutenant-General Sir B. Spaencer remains in Command of the Corps on the Frontiers of Castille. Nothing of Importance has occurred in that Quarter since I addressed your Lordship on the 9th Instant. The Enemy retired entirely from the Agueda; and, it is reported, that some of their Troops had gone back as far as Zamora and Toro, upon the Douro.

Marshal Sir Wm. Beresford was not able to effect his Passage across the Guadiana as soon as he expected; and the Enemy have introduced some Provisions into Badajoz and Olivença. Sir William Beresford's Advanced Guard crossed the Guadiana on the 4th Instant; and I am concerned to report that a Squadron of the 13th Light Dragoons, which were on Picket under Major Morres, were surprised, on the Night of the 6th, by a Detachment of the Enemy's Cavalry from Olivença. I have not received the Return of the Loss upon this Occasion, but I am informed that the whole Squadron, with the Exception of Twenty Men, were taken Prisoners. The Enemy have since retired, as I am informed, entirely from Estremadura, leaving small Garrisons in Badajoz and Olivença.

Marshal Sir William Beresford has taken a Position to invest both Badajoz and Olivença.

A Detachment from the 5th Army, which is now commanded by General Castanos, is, I understand, at Merida.

Since I last addressed your Lordship, General Zayas had again landed the Troops under his Command, and had again embarked them, and returned to Cadiz. General Ballasteros's Division alone therefore continues in the Condado di Niebla; but, from a Letter from Mr. Wellesley of the 11th, I learn that General Blake was himself about to come into the Condado di Niebla to take the Command of General Ballasteros's Division, and the Troops which had been under the Command of General Zayas, and which were to return to that Quarter. General Blake had expressed an anxious Desire to co-operate with Marshal Sir William Beresford.

General Castanos has been appointed to command the Army in Galicia, as well as the 5th Army, lately the Army of the Left, commanded by the late Marquis of Romana.

Foreign-Office, Downing-Street, April 30, 1811.

DISPATCHES were this Morning received by the Marquis Wellesley from Charles Stuart Esq; His Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, under Date the 20th Instant, stating that the Garrison of Olivença, consisting of Three Hundred and Ten Men, surrendered at Discretion to the Allied Army on the 14th Instant, and was marched to Elvas.

Marshal Mortier, with Four Thousand Men, was in the Neighbourhood of Llerena, having detached a moveable Column, under General Martinibre, by the Way of Almaraz, towards Toledo. General Beresford, with that Part of the Allied Army which does not form the Siege of Badajoz, was in the Neighbourhood of Santa Martha.

The Corps of General Ballasteros had its Headquarters in Segura di Leone on the 12th; his Cavalry was at Zafra on the 13th, on which Day Lord Wellington left Villa Fermosa on the Coa to join the Army in Estremadura.

Foreign-Office, April 30, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, was this Morning received by the Marquis Wellesley from Charles Stuart Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Lisbon, under Date the 20th Instant.

THE brilliant Successes of the Allied Army have been celebrated by every Demonstration of Joy which can mark the Gratitude of the Portuguese for the Exertions of the British in their Behalf, and the Satisfaction inspired by the Salvation of their Country.

Te Deum has been sung in the Churches; the City has been illuminated; and shortly after the Publication of the Proclamation, enclosed in a former Dispatch, the Letters, of which I have the Honour to enclose Copies, were addressed to Lord Wellington and Marshal Beresford, by the Government and the Minister.

Most Illustrious and Most Excellent Lord Viscount Wellington K. B., Marshal General, Commander in Chief.

YOUR Excellency's Dispatch dated the 9th Instant, having been laid before us, and Your Excellency's glorious and transcendent Services in the Course of the present Campaign having been duly considered, we have high Satisfaction in testifying our just Admiration of the exalted Achievements which have immortalized Your Excellency's Name, sustained the Honour of the Combined Armies, and delivered this Kingdom the Third Time from the Oppression of our Enemies.

The Conduct of the Army having justified the Confidence of their Chief, and fulfilled the Expectations of the Allied Nations, we are desirous that Your Excellency do make known to the whole Army that the Government and the Country are amply repaid for their Exertions and Sacrifices by the Wisdom, Valour, and Discipline displayed by the Generals, Officers, and Privates of which that Army is composed.

We will lay before His Royal Highness, in the distinctest Manner, the Events which have taken place; recommending to His Royal Notice the Services of an Army which has covered itself with Glory under Your Excellency's Command.

Your Excellency cannot fail of deriving high Gratification from the Result of your Plans and Labours, which, crowned with the most eminent Success and public Opinion, leave nothing wanting to satisfy the Heart of the illustrious Warrior by whom they were conceived and accomplished.

May God preserve Your Excellency.

Most Illustrious and Most Excellent Sir William Carr Beresford K. B., Marshal, Commander in Chief of the Portuguese Army.

THE Combined Armies having driven the Enemy beyond the Northern and Southern Frontier with as much Glory to the Forces allied as Advantage to the just Cause they defend, the Governors of the Kingdom have authorized me to acknowledge, in their Name, the high and distinguished Services for which the Portuguese Nation is indebted to Your Excellency in Quality of Marshal, Commander in Chief of her Armies.

If the Success of our Arms be the Result of Valour and Discipline, to Your Excellency it is attributable that Troops, only the other Day mostly Recruits, have been enabled to conduct themselves like experienced Veterans, and to deserve so eminently of their Sovereign and their Country.

The Government will lay before His Royal Highness, with an especial Recommendation, the Merits and glorious Achievements of his Army, and desire that Your Excellency do make known to the whole of that Army, in the most impressive Manner, the high Estimation in which their Services are held.

The Army have amply fulfilled the Expectations of their Country; and so long as she shall preserve the Recollection of Events so glorious, the distinguished Chief who disciplined and commanded that Army will ever be present to her grateful Memory.

I have particular Satisfaction in communicating the Sentiments of the Governors of the Kingdom towards Your Excellency, being precisely those I have ever invariably entertained.

May God preserve Your Excellency.
