tbe Benefits ibereof, uniter Yoar Majefties mof Gracious and gentle Reign.

And ibough we ove all Duty and Obedience to Your stered Mijijf $\mathrm{f}^{2}$, and are bound tbereto by the obligations of repeated oatbs, jet a primce is never fo Fiappy, do wober bis People ferve bim out of a Zeal of Love, which nu- unfeignediy oton; who bumbly befeedk Touf Aldajeftiey aeceptance of the texder of our Lives and For. tumes, being ready to Sacrifice ibe fathe for the Dreferultion of Your Maj-fles Sacred Perfon, Your Heirs and Lxuofal Succefors: For whofe long and bappy Reign over $x_{4}$, we beartify fray, and ubofe Goverxment is fo eqreesblé to us, th.t we cant iruly fay woithout Boajf. ing, we bave neitber in our Town nor Corporation, one Diffoter from the prefent Governmest of Church or State. Being all, Dread SiR,

Your Majeifties m at Duciful, and mont Loyal Subj:Ets and Servants.
Signed by above 4 co, and Prefented to his Ma-j- My by Sir George Cook, and Major Darcy.
Cologne, Aug 31. This City is fending Depaties to the Eniperor, to give His Imperial Majelly an account of their late proccedings againtt fonse of their Burgermalters, and to remove the ill Impre?fions fome perforis have endeavoured to give his Imperial Majefly concerning the fame. We cannot fee that the endeavours of the Imperial Minifter, $f r$ the compofing the affairs of Liege, have as yet 2.y faceelis.

Francfort, Aug. 31. The Baggage of the French Amballadors is arrived; and we expect now in few dayo to lee all the Minifters here that are to alift at the Conference sthat are to $b=$ held here.

Francfors, Sept. z. From Ratisbome we have an Accounc :that the Dyer has finithed the Inftructipods for their Depuries, that are to afift at the Conferences so be held here, and that baving refolved to write a Letter to His Majelly of Great Bfituin; the fame had b:en Read in the Dyet and Approved of. On the 25 th the Colledges of the Electors, and of the Princes, refumed the DeDate concerning the raifug the 40000 . Men, purfant to their former Refolutions, and agreed on the Reparticions to be made in the ten Cireles; by which they do eafe the Circles of the Abine, becaufe of what they fuffred in the date $W$ an ; apon cundition, that this prefent $A$. batement flathot te made a Precedent hereafter. This conclution they have font to the Emperor, and haye prayed him by his Cirtular Letters to the feveral Circles, to lailten thele Leavies. The EleEtor of Suxony is fending an Anbalfadar to the Emperor.

Humburgh, Sept. 2. On Saturday laft Count Barc ${ }^{4}$ the Emparor's Envoye parted from h.nce forcepenbaget, where hs isto propoic an Alliance berween his limpirial Majelty and phe King of Dinmark. Our Lette.s from Hurgary give great hopes of a happy canclufion of the Dyet; they relling us that the Emp ror was gone to Oedenburg, with a Refolution to give all inaginable fatisketrion to his Proreftant Subjects. Fram Cotitenburg they write, that fome thoufands of French Proteitants are arrived there fiom Fratce, with intention to fettle in that Kingdom. Tuc Quesn-Morher of Denmark is uith her itwo Daughters we Electorels Palatiae, and the Bloctuecivof Saxayy, at zell, whereahey are molt Sjulendjdily entertained.

Brufols, Srpt y. The endeavours that have been bitherto uied far the cernpofing the Absirs of siege, have put had any effect ; Bor does there apwar dity difiulition to an Accommertation; fince the bate Holtilities which have very much exarperated Mens Minds on both lides. We are expecting the Prince of Pirma back from Lntwerp; the Nations here have not conlented to the supply his Highnefs demanded.

Paris. Sepf.9: The march of the Kings Troopsitbwards ftaly, is now the cortimon fuhjef of Pioples Dicourfes, though they do not jer ateree in their conjectures, concerning the Deign of it, This is certain, that the Princes of fraly are very muth alarmed ; and particularty the Republickof Gevotai; who, bs we are informed, has tedred the affittande of the Kirg of Spain, in care they are attacked; The King has given the sicur da Raefne, who at prefent Commands $2 \leq$ quadron of his Men of War in the Mediterrinean? ' 200000 Lirres; and its thlought he may be made a Márefchal of Erante, if hẹ wilf become a Roman Catbolick.
White bal, Seft. 5. This Evinirg Don Fofeplode Ruria, Envoye Extraordinary from the Crowfi of Portugal, Was Conducted in His Majefties Coach to his A udience of their Maje\{Iies, by Sir Cbarles Cqttersh, Maft:s of the Ceremionies.
 pleafad to confer the Hanot of Krigbtbood on, George Rajnsford of Lincolas Lnn, Efys Sanyo the late Lord Chief Jullice Runsfierd.

vVHereas about the midulle of Jund laff Sir Robert Vyue did defire sbe Perfons concerned witb bim 2 to call at br late Sbop the Yine in Lombardeltreer for his Pronted Propofuls, dontersjikg atsetak ments bim made, for their latisfaction ; and finding abita a corfderable number of them, have not as yat cat-give zbem notice of $i t$, avd that tbe time prefixed for Signing is near expired.

Advertijembits.

LEft laft Thurfay about fix in the Evening in a Hackncy 1. Coach rhat came from $\mathcal{A}$ limgth- $-H_{\text {oufs }}$ to whitehid, a Jarge Muff of Sable Tipps for a Woman; Whoever gives notice thereof to the Lord Chamberlains Lodgings at Whisebul; thall have 20 s. reward.
A Dark Brown Gelding, abput is hands high, Phore Tail, A his back full of whire foots and the Hoot of his hinder near foor cleft? with a dull Eye, Trots very bard, was Itallen by a Man wirt dark Irown Hair, of midde flature, in a dark Grey Coat with Pewrer Burtons, and a gieafie pair of Leather Ereeches, a pair of Grey scockins titiched wirk Black Thred; bis right Leg being Sore. Whoever gives notice of the fuid Geiding to Mr. Dian, Strongwacr-man at the Dark Hoafi at 2iflim Jgae, thalt be well rewarded.
 fed in the Counry of Northampton!, a Brown Ray Gelding, live years old, above is hands high, his hind Feet whire, aStar in his Foreheart, al prig Tail, the Hair rubbed off his fide; the party fuffeeted, is a tall Man with long Brown curled Mair, * $t$ hin Face and fwarthy Complaxion, with a sruff Coas and B'ack Hat. Whatoever gives notice of the miorefaid Gelding to Mr. Fibm Sumerer at the Binct Eoj and St $u$ in WrA Sminhfe of the Horle and the party, chall have 1os, reyard. And they are likewile defired to fop the party above delcribed $W$ the County of Suriey, abour fix weeks fince, a dapple Grev Horie, about 14 hands high fix years old, Trots and Gallops, with a bnb Tail and thorn Mane; Whoerer gives Nocice of the Horle to the atorelaid MM. Foblo, or to Mr.
 he mav have him again, fhall have 20 s. reward.
亿 Hereas there was a Man of a middle ftanre, abonc 28 years of age, Eright Brown Hair, with a Camblet Coat on, hired a Buy Mare at Porifinnab, the 21 of Apgof laft, abour $$ 4$ hands high, a cut Tail, cerrying double; the has beea formerly much galled under the saddre, lump-backed under ahe Pillion-place, her near Knee bofore bigger shan the orther; Whoever gives notice either of the Min or Mare, fa shat themare mas be reconered to Mr. yovn adots of Pis fouknil, hall biv tery well rewarded.

