Carlton-House, June 1, 1811.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Ladies and Gentlemen invited by the Command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent to the Ball at Carlton-House, in Celebration of His Majesty's Birth-Day, that it is unavoidably postponed from Wednesday the 5th to Wednesday the 12th Instant.

Whitehall, May 28, 1811.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by Francis Lord Napier, His Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Richard Ryder, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE have received, with the most profound Respect and Gratitude, the gracious Letter with which it has pleased Your Royal Highness to honour this Meeting of the Assembly of our National Church.

The Approbation which Your Royal Highness has condescended to bestow upon the former General Assemblies of this Church we feel as a powerful Motive, animating us so to persevere in the Discharge of our Duty, that the Satisfaction which you have hitherto derived from the happy Result of our annual Labours may, on the present Occasion, remain undiminished.

The renewed Appointment of the Right Honourable Francis Lord Napier to represent the Royal Person in this Assembly, we consider as a signal Proof of Your Royal Highness's Favour. The Zeal and Fidelity with which he has uniformly discharged the Trust reposed in him, the Principles of Piety and true Patriotism which distinguish his Character, and his Affection for the Church of Scotland, render him peculiarly acceptable to this Assembly.

With Gratitude and Confidence we rely on the Assurance which Your Royal Highness has vouchsafed to give us, of the Interest which you take in us and our Deliberations, of your Attachment to the Church of Scotland, and of your inflexible Resolution to maintain inviolate her Rights and Privileges as by Law established.

We have received; with due Thankfulness, Your Royal Highness's Warrant, not only for the usual Gift of One Thousand Pounds, but also for the additional Sum of One Thousand Pounds, to be in like Manner employed for the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, and the Principles of reformed Religion, in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. This farther Proof which Your Royal Highness has afforded, of your tender Regard for the most valuable Interests of your Subjects in the remoter Districts of this Country, will lead us, on our Part, to new and vigorous Exertions in the Discharge of our sacred Duties, as well as enable us more extensively and more effectually to promote the Improvement and Happiness of all those committed to our special Care. We will teach them to believe that their Loyalty and Attachment to the Principles of the admirable Constitution under which they live, if duly cherished, cannot fail to lead to the mutual Welfare of the Sovereign and of the People.

With the most profound Respect we observe the Solicitude with which Your Royal Highness reminds us of our Duty. We listen with Cheerfulness to your paternal Admonitions, and will earnestly apply ourselves to the Functions of our Ministry. We will instruct our People in the Knowledge of those Principles, and lead them to the Practice of all those Duties and Virtues, by which they may be rendered good Men and good Citizens; nor shall we fail to inculcate upon them Submission to the lawful Authority of the Sovereign, and Zeal for the Maintainance of his Royal Prerogative, which we regard as an essential Part of our happy Constitution; so that by the Blessing of God on our Endeavours, we may see Righteousness and Order, Union and Energy, Comfort and Peace prevail universally in this Part of the Kingdom. With unremitting Attention to those Matters which more immediately fall within the Province of our Ecclesiastical Deliberations, we will study, as far as in us lies, to accomplish, with Unanimity and Harmony, those great and important Ends for which we have assembled.

That Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may direct and prosper the Adminis-
