JOHN JOLLY respectfully informs his Friends and the Public, that his Fly and Slow Waggons continue to go daily from his Warehouse in Bromsgrove-Street, Birmingham, to the George Inn, West Smithfield, London, through Henley-in-Aiden, Stratford-on-Avon, Shipston, Long Com-ton, Chappel House, Enstone, Woodstock, Oxford, Whately, Tetfworth, High Wycomb, Uxbridge, &c. And likewise forwards Goods to the under-mentioned Places:

Abingdon,	Reading,
Burford,	Southampton,
Charlbury,	Slough,
Chipping-Norton,	Thame,
Eynsham,	Windfor,
Henley-on-Thames,	Whitney,
Maidenhead,	Winchester, &c.
Newbury,

And all intermediate and adjacent Places, on the Conditions expressed as follows, always exposed to public View at his Warehouses in Birmingham and London:

I hereby give public Notice, that I will not hold myself answerable or accountable for any Goods taken up on the Road, unless a proper Note be delivered with the same, addressed to me, or otherwise entered in the Road Bill; nor will I be accountable for any Money, Plate, Watches, Jewels, Writings, Prints, Paintings, Wearing Apparel, or any other Valuables, unless entered as such, and an Insurance paid above the common Rate of Carriage, according to the Value, upon the Delivery to me or my Agents' Care. All Packages of Glass, China, Marble, Household Furniture, or any such hazardous brittle Articles, are entirely at the Risk of the Owners, as to Damage, Breakage, &c. unless an Insurance of Fifteen Pounds per Cent. be paid on every One Hundred Pound Value, and so in proportion, at the Time of the Delivery into my Care, over and above the common Rate of Carriage. The Owners of all Goods not paying, or agreeing to pay, the extra respective Prices, will be considered as taking the Risk upon themselves. All Goods which shall be delivered for the Purpose of being carried, will be considered as general Liens, and subject not only to the Money due for the Carriage of such particular Goods, but also to the general Balance due from the respective Owners to me for the said Conveyances. Any Goods addressed to order, or until called for, if not taken away within the Space of Forty-eight Hours from the Time of their Arrival, every Accident or Damage they may sustain, (for the Remainder of their Continuance,) will be at the Risk of the Owners. Any Claim for Loss or Damages that is not made within the Space of Three Days after the Delivery of the Goods will not be allowed. Packages containing Acquafortis, Spirits of Vitriol, or any other ardent Spirits, are at the Owner's Risk; and, should the Contents damage any other Goods, shall look to the Owner to make good the Injury the Goods may have sustained thereby. Nor will I be accountable for any Damages unless the Goods are well and sufficiently packed.—May 17, 1811.

JOHN JOLLY.

PIERCE O'BRIEN BUTLER, Esq; of Dunboyne Castle, in the County of Meath, as Assignee of all the Estate and Interest of the Earl of Ormond and Ossery, in the Lands of Noddtown, situate in the Barony of Middlethrid and County of Tipperary, do hereby give Notice to all Persons deriving as Tenants of the said Lands, under a certain Lease thereof made and executed by the late Duke of Ormond to John Wals, bearing Date the 16th July 1697, and to all Assignees thereof, to pay me forthwith the renewal Fines and septennial Payments now due out of said Lands, and also to nominate to me the Lives of Three Persons to be substituted for the Lives of the Three Persons named in the said Lease, and long since deceased; and also to prepare and tender to me a new Lease of the said Lands, to be executed pursuant to the Covenant for Renewal contained in the said Lease, or in Default thereof I shall consider all Right of Renewal under the said Lease as for ever barred and foreclosed.—Dated this 20th Day of March 1811.

PIERCE O'BRIEN BUTLER.
