

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 22, to Tuesday June 25, 1811.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of His Majesty's Catholic Subjects whose Names are hereunto subscribed, as well for themselves as others His Majesty's Subjects professing the Catholic Faith in Ireland.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Roman Catholics of Ireland, compelled once more to approach Your Royal Highness, by an Administration which has impaired the Vigour and diminished the Lustre of the Crown in the Person of Your Royal Highness, beg Leave to express our unlimited Attachment and entire Devotion to Your Person and Government, our almost insuperable Reluctance thus again to entreat your Attention and Interposition, and our full and considerate Sense of the Delicacy and Difficulties of Your Royal Highness's Situation.

With Alarm and Dismay we have learned that a Bill now pending in Parliament, for the respective Transfer of the Militia Service of the Two Countries, contains no Provision whatever for the free Exercise of his Religion, on the Part of the Catholic Soldier, who, in the Event of such Bill passing into a Law, may be placed on the English Establishment; and we cannot sufficiently express our Fears at an Omission so portentous, and at the Consequences with which it seems to us so pregnant.

We beg Leave most respectfully to represent to Your Royal Highness, that this deliberate and publicly avowed Omission appears to us to aim an insidious, but perhaps not less mortal, Blow at the Freedom of religious Opinions, and of correspondent Worship, and that the Issue of a General Order as a Substitute can neither be received nor acknowledged as a fair Exchange or Equivalent for the Protection of Law, the Solemnity of an Act of Parliament, and the best Guards and Assurances of the British Constitution.

Your Royal Highness requires not to be informed that the religious Security of the Catholic Soldier in his Native Land stands on the Basis of an Act of Parliament; that the Constitution of his Country is his Charter for the Independence of his Religion; that this Bill calls upon him to barter away that Charter for a general Order, revocable in its Nature, uncertain in its Duration, precarious in its Effect, and open to much discretionary Latitude of Interpretation; and that being placed by this Bill under the Controul of an Individual or Individuals, his Religion is exposed to the Whims of Caprice, the Influence of Prejudice, and the Intolerance of Bigotry. We cannot so far deceive ourselves as to consider this doubtful, this gratuitous Order as a Security; as the Law now stands it is illegal, and the Guarantee it offers is a Violation of the Constitution.

We most humbly entreat Your Royal Highness to consider, that did this Bill contain a distinct and specific Provision for the Freedom of religious Worship, still without a Clause for the Supply of Catholic Chaplains to the respective Militia Regiments, its Operation would be illusory and fallacious, and, under Colour of a Reality, present nothing but a Phantom.

We beg Leave further to submit, that the Interests of the State and those of the Service are intimately connected and identified with the Morality of the Soldier, and that to deprive him of his Religion, is to strike at its Existence.

Your Royal Highness is most humbly requested to observe, that the Adhesion of the Irish Catholic to the Faith and religious Forms of his Forefathers is, perhaps, the most prominent Feature in his marked and manly Character; that to play with his warmest Feelings, and strike at his dearest Sensibilities, is at all Times an Experiment of most ill-judged Policy; that when England's Contest is for National Existence, it is an Infatuation incomprehensible; and that the future Heroes of Talavera, Maida, and Barrofa are richly entitled, if not to British Gratitude, at least to British Consideration.

Under these our Feelings we most respectfully apply to the Wisdom, the Liberality, the Justice, the constitutional Principles, the Largeness of Your Royal Highness's Mind, for the Rights of our Consciences and the Independence of our Religion; we crave your Interposition and Protection, and we pray that the Irish Catholic may fight the Battle of his Country unrestrained and unshackled under the Banners of one common God and one common Christianity.

[Presented by Lord Fingall and Edward Hay Esq; and signed by 2609 Persons.]

Downing-Street, June 25, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Morning received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to His Lordship by Lieutenant-General Lord Viscount Wellington, dated Quinta de Granicha, 6th June 1811.

MY LORD,

WE have continued the Operations of the Siege of Badajoz with the utmost Activity since I addressed Your Lordship on the 30th Ultimo, and our Fire commenced on the Morning of the 2d Instant from Four Batteries on the Right of the Guadiana, directed against the Outwork of St. Christoval, and on the Enemy's Batteries in the Castle constructed to support that Outwork; and from Two Batteries on the Left of the Guadiana, directed against the Eastern Face of the Castle.

The Fire from these Batteries has continued ever since, and a Breach has been made in the Outworks of St. Christoval, which, however, is not yet practicable for Assault; and considerable Progress has been made in effecting a Breach on the Eastern Front of the Castle.

Notwithstanding that these Works have been carried on with great Rapidity, I am happy to say that they are themselves so complete, and the Communication from one to the other so well assured, that our Loss hitherto throughout the Siege has been very small. I am sorry to say that Lieutenant Hawker of the Royal Artillery, an Officer who has distinguished himself in these Operations, was killed this Morning.

The Enemy have hitherto made no Movement to disturb our Operations; but I understand that Three Battalions were moved from the Blockade of Cadiz in the last Days of May; and I have received a Report, that the Battalions of the 9th Corps, destined to reinforce the Army of the South, were to arrive at Cordova on the 5th or 6th of this Month.

The Army of Portugal likewise broke up from the Tormes on the 3d Instant, and their first March was in the Direction of the Passage of the Tagus.

I have received a Letter from Mr. Wellesley of the 1st Instant, from which I learn that General Suchet had invested Tarragona.

I have, &c.

(Signed) WELLINGTON.
