Westminster, July 9, 1811.

THIS Day, the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to extend an Act made in the Eighteenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, to explain and amend the Laws touching the Elections of Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament for England, respecting the Expences of Hustings and Poll Clerks, so far as regards the City of Westminster.

An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England.

And One Private Act.

Admiralty Office, July 9, 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Sir Charles Cotton Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to John Wilson Croker Esq; dated on board the San Joseph, off Toulon, 16th May 1811.

SIR,

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty will receive with much Satisfaction the accompanying Report from Captain Barrie, of a gallant and successful Enterprise, performed by His Majesty's Ship Pomone under his Command, and the Unité and Scout, in the Bay of Sagone, in the Island of Corsica; on the 1st of this Month. We have particularly to congratulate ourselves upon the Result of this judicious and well-planned Affair, as the Enemy, in all Probability, will sustain much Impediment to the Completion of his Ships building at Toulon, by being deprived of the Three last Ship-Load of Timber the Season will enable him to procure from the above Source.

The Loss in His Majesty's Ships, on this Occasion, has been comparatively small, when the Nature and Extent of the Service performed, and the Force opposed to them, are considered; and I have the additional Satisfaction to state to Their Lordships, that the wounded Men appear to be doing well.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) C. COTTON.

P. S. I inclose also a Copy of Captain Barrie's Account of the Destruction of L'Etourdie, French National Brig, on the 14th March.

His Majesty's Ship Pomone, off Sagone,
 SIR, May 2, 1811.

MY Letter of the 23d Ultimo would acquaint you with the Intelligence I had received of the Enemy's Force in Sagone, and that it was my Intention, under particular Circumstances, to attack them.

I have now the Honour to inform you that on the Evening of the 30th I arrived off the Bay, the Unité and Scout in Company; the Scout joined in the Morning, and Captain Sharpe having very handsomely volunteered his Services to take charge of the Landing Party in the projected Attack, I consented to take the Scout under my Orders. At Sunset the Unité made the Signal for an Enemy's Frigate at Anchor. By Daybreak on the 1st, the Pomone was close off Liamone, and I had the Satisfaction to observe the Enemy's Three Ships at Anchor in Sagone Bay. It was nearly calm, and the variable Winds which prevail at this Season having thrown the Unité a long Way astern, I abandoned my Design of attempting to take the Tower and Battery by Surprise; and it was fortunate I did so, for as the Day opened we could clearly observe the Enemy in full Possession of the Heights, and ready to receive us. He appeared to have about Two Hundred Regular Troops, with their Field Pieces, &c. and a Number of the Armed Inhabi-vants; the Battery, consisting of Four Guns and One Mortar, presented a more formidable Appearance than I expected, and a Gun was mounted on the Martello Tower, above the Battery; the Three Ships were moored within a Stone's-Throw of the Battery, and had each Two Cables on Shore; their Broadides were presented to us. The smallest Ship (La Giraffe) hoisted a broad Pendant; she appeared to be a Sister-Vessel to the Var, and shewed Thirteen Guns on each Side the Main-Deck. The other Ship (La Nourrice) was much larger, and shewed Fourteen Guns; her Lower Deck Ports were open, but she had no Guns in them. The Armed Ship was partly hid by the Nourrice, so that we could not make out her Force.

The Bay is so small, that it was impossible to approach without being exposed to the raking Fire of the whole. Notwithstanding their strong Position, the Crews of each Ship came forward in the most noble Manner, and volunteered their Services to land, or, as it was quite calm, even to attack the Enemy's Ships with the Boats. Captains Chamberlayne and Sharpe both agreed with me, that we could do nothing by landing, and it would have been Madness to send the Boats; however, I signified (by Telegraph) that it was my Intention to attack as soon as a Breeze sprung up. As the Calm continued, at half-past five P. M. I gave up all the Hopes of the Sea Breeze, and fearing any longer Delay would enable the Enemy to increase his Force, I determined on towing the Ships in. My Pen is too feeble to express my Admiration of the zealous and spirited Conduct of the Boats' Crews employed on this Service; the same Zeal animated each Ship's Company, and by Six o'Clock having towed into a Position within Range of Grape, we commenced the Action, which lasted without any Intermission till about Half past Seven, when Smoke was observed to issue from the Giraffe; soon after La Nourrice was in a Blaze, and the Merchantman was set on Fire by the Brands from La Nourrice; at this Time the Battery and Tower were silenced, and in Ten Minutes the Three Ships were completely on Fire. I lost no Time in towing our Ships out of Harm's Way, where we waited the Explosions, which took place in Succession. The Giraffe blew up about Ten Minutes before Nine, soon after La Nourrice exploded, and some of her Timbers falling on the Tower, entirely demolished it, and the Sparks set Fire to the Battery which also blew up: the Object of our Attack being thus completely executed, I stood out to Sea, to get clear of the Wrecks, and to repair our Damages. No Language of mine can do Justice to the Gallantry of those I had the Honour to command.

I am particularly indebted to Captains Chamberlayne and Sharpe, for their spirited Exertions and cordial Co-operation throughout the whole of the Affair. I am sensible my Narrative is already too prolix, but I cannot conclude without assuring you that the Officers and Crews of the Ships behaved with the greatest Courage and Coolness. The Pomone, from being enabled to choose her Station, was, of course, exposed to the Brunt of the Action, and has consequently suffered most; though considering the Enemy's Fire and Position, our Ships have escaped much better than could have been expected. When all conspicuously distinguished themselves, it is impossible to select out Individuals; but I should be most shamefully wanting in my Duty to my Country, and to the Merits of a most deserving Set of Officers, if I were to neglect acquainting you, that I received from them every Assistance it was possible to expect. Lieutenant J. W. Gabriel, First of the Pomone, conducted himself with the same Spirit and Zeal which has uniformly distinguished his Conduct. I enclose the Report of the killed, wounded, &c. It is but Justice to declare that the Enemy kept up a very smart Fire, and behaved with great Bravery. I can form no Opinion of their Loss.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ROBERT BARRIE;

Admiral Sir Charles Cotton Bart., Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.

P. S. From one of the Crew belonging to the Nourrice, who was picked up by the Unité's Boat, I am informed that the Ships were all deeply laden with Ship Timber, and that, having observed us the preceding Day, every Preparation was made to give us a warm Reception; and that, in addition to the Four Gun Battery, La Nourrice had landed her Quarter-Deck Guns. The Regular Troops posted on the Heights were above Two Hundred, exclusive of the Marines from the Ships and the armed Peasantry. La Nourrice he states to be about Eleven Hundred Tons, La Giraffe Nine Hundred Tons, the Merchantman Five Hundred Tons; La Giraffe had about One Hundred and Forty Men, La Nourrice One Hundred and Sixty Men.

SIR,

*Pomone, off Magdalena,
March 15, 1811.*

I AM to acquaint you, that at Daybreak on the 13th Instant, Magdalena Islands then bearing West by South, distant about eight Leagues, a strange Brig was discovered on our Weather-beam, bearing East, steering to the Southward; on discovering us she tacked, we did the same, and made all Sail in Chace; at Sunset we had gained on her so as to distinguish her Courses from the Deck: but during the Night it was nearly calm, and at Daylight on the 14th she had swepted and towed considerably from us.

At Eight A. M. it was quite calm, and our Boats were sent to tow. Great Praise is due to the Exertions of the Boats' Crews, as in spite of his Sweeps we evidently gained on the Chace. About Noon a light Breeze sprung up, and soon after the Chace was observed to enter a small Cove on the North-West Side of Monto Christo: as he practised this Manoeuvre when (with the Breeze we then had) he was nearly Four Hours' Sail from us, I thought we had been led so far out of our Way by an English Privateer, but about Four P. M., being close up to the Island, she was set on Fire by the Crew, and at Five she blew up and was entirely destroyed. The Vessel thus consumed was a very fine French Man of War Brig of Eighteen Guns, Sixteen Carronades, and Two long Guns forward. She was called L'Etourdie, commanded by Monsieur de Champagne. L'Etourdie was launched at La Ciotat about Three Years since. I did not learn her Destination; but from the Course she was steering when first discovered, I suppose she was bound to Tunis or Corfu, and I imagine she sailed from Toulon, as I know she was lately in that Port.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ROBERT BARRIE.

To Rear-Admiral Charles Boyles, Esq;

&c &c. &c. Palermo.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, convened by public Notice of the High Sheriff, and Governor of the County, request Your Royal Highness will accept the Assurance of our dutiful and affectionate Attachment to our beloved Sovereign, and His illustrious Family.

We have observed with Admiration the constitutional Principles, as well as the filial-Regard to the Situation and Feelings of His Majesty, which have marked and distinguished Your Royal Highness's Administration of your high Office, and we are impressed with the liveliest Gratitude for every Part of that Administration, and particularly we beg to express our dutiful Acknowledgements to Your Royal Highness for the Re-appointment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to be Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces—an Appointment which we are convinced will be as gratifying to the Feelings of a brave and victorious Army, and of an affectionate and loyal People, as it will be acceptable to our august Monarch.

Visited as this Kingdom has been by the severe Illness of a Sovereign who reigns in the Hearts of his Subjects, it is no small Consolation to us to look to those Virtues which have shed a Lustre over the Character of Your Royal Highness, while they have cheered and animated His Majesty's faithful People, inspiring them with confident Hope and humble Gratitude to a kind and protecting Providence.

May that Providence grant to the Prayers of Your Royal Highness, of Your Illustrious Family, and of Your revered Father's Subjects, the speedy Restoration of our Sovereign to the full Enjoyment of His Health; but as long as it may please the Most High to withhold this Blessing from us, we shall look with perfect Confidence to the Administration of Your Royal Highness, marked as it has been by the Prudence of your Councils and the Glory of His Majesty's Arms.

June 13, 1811.

John Adams, Sheriff.

[ Presented by the Earl of Cavan ]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Lisburn and its Neighbourhood, convened this Day in the Town Hall pursuant to public Notice, most humbly beg Leave to express our deep Sense of Obligation for Your Royal Highness's paternal Attention at all Times to the true Interests of the British Empire.

Our most profound and grateful Acknowledgements are particularly due at this Time, for the wise and seasonable Exertion of it in the Re-appointment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York to the high Office of Commander in Chief of the Army.

The eminent Services of His Royal Highness in that important Station, have fully evinced his superior Talents, and his Disposition to discharge the Duties of it, in a Manner the most gratifying to the Army, and advantageous to the Empire at large.

Every judicious Arrangement that could conduce to the Public Service, the Comfort of the Soldier, and the ultimate Advantage of the Country, have been devised and matured by the consummate Knowledge and Perseverance of His Royal Highness; and the happy and glorious Result of the high State of Discipline thus introduced into the Army, is to be found in its victorious Achievements, and the Laurels with which it is so deservedly covered.

Signed on the Behalf and by the unanimous Order of the Meeting, this 24th Day of June 1811. Will. Smith, Senechal.
