Madrid, Aug. 21.

THe 12th Instant the Moscovite Ambassadors made their publick Entry, and two days after were conducted to their Audience of the King, to whom they presented several Hurts, &c. in the name of the Czar. Orders have been given for the strengthening our Garrisons in Africa, for that there is Advice from good hands, that the Moors have a design upon them. The Minister that is here from Genoua, has acquainted the King with the apprehensions that Republick has of the French.

Milan, Aug. 27. The preparations of the French in Dauphine do very much allarm us, and our Governour the Count de Melegar has written to the Governours of the Frontier places, to give them notice of the Advices he has received of the march of the French Troops, that so they may be upon their Guard. We are informed that the French Cavalry that was in Burgundy, is marching to joyne the other Troops that are now in Dauphine.

Genoua, Sept. 3. Here is arrived a Barque, which came from Tunis the 20th of the last Month, we have by her an Account, that the seven Algerine men of War, that fought some time since with the Kings Fisher off of Naples, were at Porto Farino relating, having been very much torn and shattered in that Fight.

Cologne, Sept. 9. The Deputies of the City of Liege have had several Conferences with the Bishop of Strasburg, the Popes Nuncio, and the Sieur Fodocus the Imperial Minister, and it's hoped their Endeavours for the composing Affairs will have a good issue. The States of Fuliers and Berg, are assembled at Dusseldorp, and when they have put an end to their meeting, it's said the Duke and Dutchess of Fuliers will go to Fierza.

Brussels, Sept. 12. The Letters from Liege differ by every Post; one while they give us great hopes of an Accommodation; and then again they speak quite contrary, and say, there is not any tendency to it, and that the Spirits on both sides being every day more and more exasperated, it is to be feared these sparks will finally break out into a Flame. The Prince of Parma's still at Antwerp, much displeas'd, as is said, with the Commons of this City, for refusing to comply with his Demands. The Conferences at Courway are as we told you in our last, again suspended, so that it seems we must not expect much from them.

Hague, Sept. 16. The States-General have appointed a general Collection to be made, in order to the redemption of all such as have been taken on board the Vessels belonging to the Inhabitants of these Provinces, and made Slaves at Argiers. We are told that Prince Casimir of Nassau is to have a place in the Council of State, as Stadtholder of Friesland and Groningen. The design of cleansing the Rhine and the Isse, and making those Rivers deeper than they now are, does not go on.

Paris, Sept. 17. The Cardinal Grimaldi, Archbishop of Aix, continuing to refuse to Assemble the Clergy of his Province, in order to the choosing of Deputies to be sent to the general Meeting of the Clergy appointed by the King; his Majesty has sent Orders to the Bishop of Frejus, in case the Cardinal persists in his refusal, to summon a Meeting of the Clergy of that Province, and to choose Deputies to assist at the said general Assembly of the Clergy. The Treaty betwixt the King and the Elector Palatine is not yet concluded, as was said, but is well advanced, the King of Denmark and the Elector of Brandenburg employing their Offices in favour of his Electoral Highness. Monsieur de Guilleragues the French Ambassador at Constantinople has sent his Lady and Children for Venice; and is preparing for his own departure.

Paris, Sept. 20. The King has declared his intention of removing the 30th instant from Fountainbleau to Chambor, and accordingly the necessary Orders are given. Mademoiselle de Tours dyed some days since at Bourbon, where Madam Momiffan, her Mother is likewise fallen ill. The last week arrived a Courier from Rome, with an Account, that the Pope had made a Promotion of 16 Cardinals. They are Antonio Pignatelli, Master of the Chamber to the Pope; Estienne Brancaccio, Bishop of Viterbia, both Neapolitans; Jean Baptiste Spinola, a Genuese, and Governor of Rome; Estienne Agostini de Forli, of Romagne; Datory to the Pope; Francois Bonvisi of Lucena, Nuncio at Vienne; Adelini, a Roman, Nuncio in Spain; Frederico Visconti, Archbishop of Milan; Dignior de Lucaa Neapolitan, Auditor to the Pope; Marco Gallia de Como, Bishop of Rimini; Flaminia Trai of Sienna, Auditor of the Rotas; Eather Ramond Capizucchi, a Roman Dominican; Urbanus Sacchetti, Florentin, Auditor-General of the Apostolique-Chamber; Jean Francois Ginetti, a Roman, Treasurer-General to the Pope; Father Laurent Brancati de Lauria; Michel Angli Ricci, a Roman, Secretary to the Congregation of Indulgences; and Dom Benedetto Pamphilio, a Roman Son of a Nephew to Pope Innocent the X.

Whitehal, Sept. 20. The following Address has been presented to His Majesty

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most Dutifull, Loyal, and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermens and capital Burgeses of the Burrough of Wotton-Basfort, in the County of Wilts, being highly sensible of the great happiness which this Kingdom hath enjoyed ever since Your Majesties happy Restauration, under Your Majesties most Gracious Government and Protection; and of your Princely care for the preservation of our Lives, Liberties, and Religion, as now by Law established, do with all possible Gratitude, humbly beg your Majesties Gracious Acceptance of our most hearty, and unfeigned Thanks, for Your Majesties most Gracious Declaration
