"or Order in Council:" But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles for the Purposes of Trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, (except as hereinafter excepted,) to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: But it is His Royal Highness's Pleasure, nevertheless, that the following Articles, viz. Downing-Street, August 19, 1811.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Lieutenant-General Sir John Cope Sherbrooke, K.B. to be Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Nova Scotia.

York-House, August 19, 1811.

This Day His Excellency Hadje Hassan, Ambassador from the Dey of Algiers, had an Audience of Leave of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent :

To which he was introduced by the Earl of Liverpool, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ;

And conducted by Robert Chester, Esq; Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent ; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously :

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sligo, convened by due Notice.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Sligo, humbly presume to offer to Your Royal Highness the Assurance of our dutiful and affectionate Attachment to His Majesty and His Illustrious House, and to express our high Sense of the noble and dignified Discharge of the Administration entrusted to Your Royal Highness during the much lamented Indisposition of our beloved King.

And we particularly acknowledge your Wisdom and Prudence, and correct Sense of the public Opinion, in the Re-appointment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York to be Commander in Chief, to whose former Services, and admirable Regulations, we very much attribute the Success of His Majesty's Arms that has of late so greatly redounded to the Honour and Safety of these Dominions.

A. B. Cooper, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant.]

To His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Galway, convened by the High Sheriff pursuant to a public Requisition for that Purpose, beg Leave to approach Your Royal Highness with Sentiments of the most unfeigned Attachment to His Majesty's Person and Family, and to offer to Your Royal Highness the humble Tribute of our Admiration and Gratitude for the Line of Conduct which, under Circumstances of unexampled Difficulty and Embarrassment, Your Royal Highness has thought proper to adopt in the arduous Situation to which you have been called, in consequence of the Calamity with which it has pleased the Almighty to afflict our beloved Sovereign. Regardless of any Occurrence which might be supposed to wound private Feelings, Your Royal Highness has sacrificed every personal Consideration to the Safety of the People you were born to govern, and to a delicate Sense of filial Duty towards a revered Parent in the Hour of his Misfortune ; the Empire has seen, and appreciated as it ought, a Conduct in which the native Dignity of the Mind and the affectionate Emotions of the Heart were equally conspicuous.

But amidst the various Acts which have irresistibly commanded the public Applause, we cannot refrain from particularizing the Re-appointment of His Royal Highness the Duke of York to the high Station which he lately filled, as one of the most advantageous Measures of Your Royal Highness's Government. We have beheld with Indignation the Conspiracy which was formed to traduce the Character of that illustrious Personage as Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces ; and we rejoice that, if any well-meaning Men have been the Dupes of that Conspiracy, a Developement has since taken place which must have opened their Eyes, and made them look with Horror at the base Combination by which they have been imposed on ; the Conspirators have fallen out among themselves and proved the Infamy of each other, and the Nation has consigned both to Oblivion and Contempt. We look to our Army, and there we find a complete Refutation of all Calumny against the public Conduct of its Commander ; at no Period of the British History has the Nation had such an Army, and this decisive Fact alone is the best Test of the Merits of the Man under whose directing Hand it has risen to a State of such unrivalled Perfection. We therefore most humbly return to Your Royal Highness our grateful Acknowledgements for having, by his Restoration to the Command of that Army, done an act which at once unites in it Justice to the Individual and vital Advantage to the Empire ; and we trust that the happy Union which subsists among all the Branches of the Royal Family will soon finally extinguish that Jacobin Spirit which still lurks in some profligate Minds, and seems to take Delight in Attempts to debase Royalty, and pull down that Keystone of the Arch which supports the Fabric of human Society.

John D'Arcy, Sheriff.

[Presented by John D'Arcy, Esq; Sheriff, and Richard Martin, Esq; M. P. for the County of Galway.]
