From Tuesday August 20, to Saturday August 24, 1811.

AT the Court at Whitehall, the 19th of August 1811,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-second of this instant August, be further prorogued to Friday the Fourth Day of October next.

Downing-Street, August 23, 1811.

DISPATCHES have been received at the Office of the Earl of Liverpool, addressed to His Lordship from General Viscount Wellington, of which the following are Extracts:

Extract of a Dispatch from General Lord Viscount Wellington, dated Portalegre, 25th July 1811.

THE Enemy's Cavalry left Merida on the Morning of the 17th. The Enemy have since continued their March upon Almaraz; and on the 20th, One Division of Infantry had arrived at Placentia. On the same Day Marshal Marmont was at Almaraz, and other Divisions had marched from Truxillo in the same Direction. One Division of Infantry and some Cavalry still remained at Truxillo according to the last Accounts.

There is nothing new in the North. Joseph Bonaparte was at Valladolid on the 10th, and proceeded on the 12th on his Journey towards Madrid.

Extract of a Dispatch from General Lord Viscount Wellington, dated Castello Branco, 1st August 1811.

I HAVE moved the whole Army to their Left. I propose that they shall take up their Cantonments in Lower Beira instead of Alemejo.

The Army of Portugal remain in the Position which I informed Your Lordship that they occupied in my Dispatch of the 25th July, excepting that the Division at Placentia has extended through the Mountains to Bejar and Baños.

By a Letter from General Silveira of the 21st of July, which I received on the 26th, I learnt that General Santocildes had retired with the Army of Galicia from the Neighbourhood of Astorga to Manganal on the 17th, in consequence of Marshal Bessieres having collected at Beavente a Force consisting of Eleven Thousand Infantry and Fifteen Hundred Cavalry.

Admiralty Office, August 22, 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Murchier, of His Majesty's Sloop the Hawk, to Admiral Sir Roger Curtis Bart. dated at Sea, August 19, 1811, and transmitted by him to J. W. Croker Esq.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to state to you, that in obedience to your Directions I proceeded in His Majesty's Brig under my Command to the Eastward of St. Marcou, in order to intercept any of the Enemy's Trade bound to the Westward; at Two P. M. St. Marcou bearing W. by N. Six Leagues, we observed from the Mast-Head a Convoy of French Vessels steering for Barfeur; all Sail was immediately made in Chace, and on our near Approach, we perceived them to be protected by Three Armed National Brigs and Two large Luggers, the former carrying from Twelve to Sixteen Guns, the latter from Eight to Ten each, apparently well manned. Convinced from their hauling out from their Convoy in close Order, it was their Intention to attack us, I immediately hove to to receive them, and at Half-Past Three P. M., Point Piercu bearing N.W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. Four Miles, the Action commenced within Half Pistol-Shot, and continued with great Spirit on both Sides until we succeeded in driving on shore Two of the Brigs and the Two Luggers, with Fifteen Sail of their Convoy; but in the Act of wearing to prevent the third Brig raking us, we unfortunately grounded, which enabled her and a few of her Convoy to escape, although having previously struck to us. My whole Attention at this Time was getting His Majesty's Brig off by lightening her of her Booms, Spars, Anchors, and a few of her Guns, &c. which was effected in an Hour and a Half, under incessant Discharges of Artillery and Musketry, which completely lined the Shore. I thought

It then most prudent to anchor in order to replace the running Rigging, during which Time I dispatched the Boats under the Command of Lieutenant David Price, my Second Lieutenant, (my First being in a Prize,) to bring out or destroy as many of the Enemy's Vessels as practicable; he succeeded in bringing out the Heron National Brig, pierced for Sixteen Guns, mounting only Ten, and Three large Transports, laden with Timber for Ship Building; the rest were on their Broadides and completely bilged, and was only prevented from burning them by the Strength of the Tide being against him; which Service was conducted in a most masterly and gallant Manner under a galling Fire of Musketry, from the Beach lined with Troops. Lieutenant Price speaks in very high Terms of the Gallantry displayed by Mr. Smith, Master, and Mr. Wheeler, Gunner, who handsomely volunteered their Services on the Occasion.

The grateful Task is now left to me, Sir, to express my Sense of Admiration of the very steady, uniform, brave, and determined Conduct of the whole of my Officers and Ship's Company, which will ever entitle them to my sincerest and warmest Thanks; and I feel I am only barely doing Justice to the Merits of Lieutenant Price in recommending him most strongly to their Lordships' Notice for his spirited Conduct in the Action, as also in the Boats, and, in short, on all Occasions; he is a most deserving and meritorious young Officer, to whom I feel myself much indebted: nor can I pass unnoticed the Zeal and Attention of Mr. Henry Campling, Purser, who volunteered to command the Marines and small Arm Men, and from whose continued and well-conducted Fire I attribute the Loss of so few Men, which has been trifling when the Superiority of Force opposed to us is considered, being only One Man killed and Four wounded.

It is with much Satisfaction I add that His Majesty's Brig has suffered in nothing but the running Rigging and Sails, except what Damage she may have received from grounding; at present she makes nearly Two Feet Water an Hour, which, with the Prizes not being in a Condition to proceed by themselves, I judged it right to make the best of my way to Spithead with them, which I trust will meet with your Approbation. Enclosed is a Return of Killed and Wounded, as also a List of Vessels captured, driven on shore, and escaped.

I have, &c.

(Signed) H. BOURCHIER.
