Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 7, to Tuesday September 10, 1811.

AT the Court at York-House, the 6th of September 1811,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for making additional and further Provisions for the effectual Performance of Quarantine," it is amongst other Things enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, to prohibit all Persons, Ships, Boats, and Vessels whatsoever, from going, under any Pretence whatsoever, within the Limits of any Station which by His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by any such Order or Orders in Council, has been or may be assigned for the Performance of Quarantine by any Ships or Vessels without clean Bills of Health, and that if any Person whatsoever, after such Notification or Publication of any such Order or Orders in Council, shall presume, under any Pretence whatsoever, to go with any Ship, Boat, or Vessel within the Limits of any such Station, he or she shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds: And whereas by His Majesty's Order in Council, bearing Date the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five, it is directed that a separate and distinct Place shall be appointed and marked out with Yellow Buoys, for the Performance of Quarantine at the Motherbank by certain Vessels therein described, having clean Bills of Health, and by all Ships of War, Transports, and other Ships in the actual Service of Government, under the Command of commissioned Officers of His Majesty's Navy, coming from the Places therein in that Behalf mentioned, and not being furnished with clean Bills of Health, which Place was appointed and marked out with Yellow Buoys accordingly: And whereas

His Majesty, in pursuance of the Powers vested in him by the said Act, was pleased, by his Order in Council of the Twenty-first of July One thousand eight hundred and six, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that no Persons, Ships, Vessels, or Boats whatsoever, other than the Vessels or Boats belonging to the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other Boats regularly employed under the Authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in the Quarantine Service, should go, under any Pretence whatsoever, within the Limits of the Place so marked out, except in Cases of special Necessity and Emergency, and with Permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine at the Motherbank, or his Assistant; and it was thereby further ordered, that all Ships and Vessels, being furnished with clean Bills of Health, and Boats liable to Quarantine, which might be ordered to perform the same at the Motherbank, should come to Anchor within the Compass of the said Buoys, in such Place or Places as should be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, and should be kept separate and apart from His Majesty's Ships of War, Transports, and Vessels in the Service of Government, and not having clean Bills of Health, which might be performing Quarantine, as aforesaid within the Compass of the said Yellow Buoys: And whereas it hath been represented that the Space so marked out on the Motherbank, within which Ships under Quarantine are to be moored, was more extensive than was necessary for any Number of Ships which it was probable would have occasion to be there at one Time, and that the Extent of the Space so marked out rendered it extremely difficult, with the Wind at certain Points of the Compass, for Vessels which might not be subject to Quarantine to avoid passing through Parts of that Space, and thereby subjecting the Commander of such Vessels to the Penalties provided by the before-mentioned Act passed in the Forty-sixth Year of His Majesty's

Reign, and that it would therefore be expedient that a Reduction should take place in the Limits of the Quarantine Ground at the Motherbank, by the Removal of the West Buoys placed there to the Eastward of Wotton Creek, so that Boats and other Craft may pass without going through the said Grounds, and that the Two North or Outer Buoys should be shifted nearer to the Isle of Wight, and that, in addition to the Buoys already laid down, one should be put Midway between the East and West Inner Buoys, in order to form a more conspicuous and better Line for small Vessels to pass and repass; and that another Buoy (painted Red) should be placed as a Mark for a Burying Ground between the Two Outer Buoys; and whereas such Yellow Buoys have been fixed in the Places last abovementioned, for the Purpose of reducing the said Quarantine Station accordingly; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine Station so appointed and marked out as last aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be the Station for Performance of Quarantine at the Motherbank, within the true Intent and Meaning of the hereinbefore recited Order in Council of the Fifth of April One thousand eight hundred and five; and His Royal Highness is further pleased to order, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the Advice aforesaid, that no Persons, Ships, Vessels, or Boats whatsoever, other than the Vessels or Boats belonging to the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, or other Boats regularly employed under the Authority of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in the Quarantine Service, should go under any Pretence whatever within the Limits of the Place so marked out as last aforesaid, except in Cases of special Necessity and Emergency, and with Permission first had and obtained from the Superintendent of Quarantine, at the Motherbank, or his Assistant; and it is hereby further ordered, that all Ships and Vessels being furnished with clean Bills of Health and Boats liable to Quarantine, which may be ordered to perform the same at the Motherbank, shall come to Anchor within the Compass of the Buoys as herein described in such Place or Places as shall be directed by the Superintendent of Quarantine or his Assistant, and shall be kept separate and apart from His Majesty's Ships of War, Transports, and Vessels in the Service of Government, and not having clean Bills of Health which may be performing Quarantine as aforesaid, within the Compass of the said Buoys; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chitwynd.

AT the Court at York-House, the 6th of September 1811,

Admiralty-Office, September 10, 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Ferris, of His Majesty's Ship Diana, addressed to Rear-Admiral Sir Thomas Williams, and transmitted by Admiral Sir Charles Cotton to John Wilson Croker Esq.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to inform you, that while standing towards the Cordovan Light-House, in Company with His Majesty's Ship Semiramis, in the Afternoon of the 24th Instant, I discerned Four Sail inside of the Shoals at the Mouth of the River Gironde, under Escort of a National Brig of War. I meditated either their Capture or Destruction, which could only be accomplished by Artifice and Promptitude, without the Sacrifice of many Lives. Stratagem was used, which had the desired Effect, as they sent a Vessel with Pilots to our Assistance, and I anchored after Dark the Two Ships midway between the Cordovan and Royan, under whose Guns the Brig had taken Refuge, and close to the Brig stationed for the Protection of the several Convoys passing either way. I dispatched Three Boats under the Orders of Lieutenant Sparrow (Second), Lieutenant Roper (Third), and Mr. Holmes Master's Mate, from this Ship, seconded by Four Boats under the Orders of Lieutenants Gardner, Grace, and Nicholson, and Mr. Reneau Master's Mate, from the Semiramis, to capture or destroy the Convoy then anchored up the River, about Four Miles distant, but the Tide prevented their accomplishing it until late in the Night, and at Day-light, finding the captured Vessels with the Boats far up the River beyond the Two Brigs, I determined to attack them with the Ship, but not without using the same Artifice as the preceding Night to prevent Suspicion; and so convinced were they of our being Friends that the Captain of the Port, Monsieur Michel Auguste Dubourg, Capitaine de Frégate, and commanding the in-shore Brig, came on board to offer his Services, and was not undeceived until he had ascended the Quarter-Deck. The Diana laid the outer Brig on board, and Lieutenant Robert W. Parsons (First Lieutenant), Lieutenant Madden, First of the Royal Marines, and Mr. Mark G. Noble Boatswain, headed about Thirty Seamen and Marines (as many as could be spared by the Absence of the Boats), and succeeded in gaining Possession of His Majesty's late Gun-Brig Teazer, mounting Twelve Eighteen-Pound Carronades, and Two Long Eighteen-Pounder Guns, commanded by Monsieur Alex. Papineau, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, with a Complement of Eighty-five Men, and without Loss on either Side. It adds to the Lustre these Officers and Men achieved, the Humanity they displayed to the overpowered Captives in putting them below without the Force of Arms and an unnecessary Effusion of Blood. It was at this Time that Alarm was given and the Batteries opened their Fire upon the Ships, when Captain Richardson in the Semiramis, in a Manner which characterises the Officer and Seaman, pursued, drove on shore, and burnt, under the Guns of the Batteries, the French National Brig Le Pluvier, mounting Sixteen Guns and One Hundred and Thirty-six Men, whose Captain, I have before spoken of, was decoyed on board.

Having obtained to the utmost the Object in View, I anchored in the Gironde, out of Gun-Shot, to repair the Damages sustained by the different

Vessels, when I was rejoined by the Boats and the captured Convoy, a List of which I have the Honour to enclose. The Services I received from Captain Richardson, the Officers and Ship's Company of the Semiramis, merit my warmest Acknowledgements, and I should be committing a great Injustice to the Officers and Ship's Company I command, were I not to speak in Terms of the highest Admiration for their Steadiness and Zeal throughout the whole Affair. And could I add stronger Encomiums to one than another, it would be from the great Assistance I received from Lieutenant R. W. Parsons and Mr. David Bevans the Master, whose unremitting Attention in piloting the Ship in the most intricate Navigation greatly tended to insure the Object of Pursuit. I also enclose you a Letter I received from Captain Charles Richardson, narrating his Attack upon the Brig, and enclosing a List of wounded in the Affray; and I regret to add that I lost One Man overboard, after the Brig was in our full Possession.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) W. FERRIS, Captain.

To Rear-Admiral Sir Thomas Williams.

His Majesty's Ship Semiramis, Royan Roads, August 25, 1811.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honour to report to you, that as soon as the Diana ran on board the Enemy's outside Brig, her Comfort, at anchor in-shore of her, immediately cut her Cable and made sail for the Beach near the Battery of Royan, where she grounded. I followed in to Five Fathoms, anchoring with a Spring; the Broadside was brought to bear on the Enemy's Brig, and Bow Guns on the Battery, within Grape-Shot of both.

After engaging some Time, I found the Guns of the Enemy's Vessel almost silenced, and perceived the Boats haul up to quit her.

At this Time the Barge, Pinnace, and Cutter rejoined me: I ordered Lieutenant Gardner with these Boats immediately to board the Enemy, which was gallantly effected after receiving his Broadside. She proved to be the French National Brig Pluvier, of Sixteen Guns and One Hundred and Thirty-six Men, commanded, pro tempore, by Lieutenant Page de St. Waast.

The Prize being fast on shore, the Ebb Tide running most rapidly, and my own Ship in only Twenty Feet Water, I found it necessary to take the Remainder of her People out and burn her, which, when completely effected, I made all sail to join you.

I have but to add in this little Affair, my Officers and Ship's Company behaved entirely to my Satisfaction; and I feel much indebted to my First Lieutenant Gardner, Second Lieutenant Grace, and Mr. Reneau Master's Mate, commanding the Boats, for the handsome Manner in which they ran alongside the Enemy.

Lieutenant Taylor of the Marines, and Mr. Brickwood Purser, being the only Officers on board, were of the greatest Use, the former commanding the Main-Deck, the latter the Quarter-Deck Guns.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
