GOLD COIN.

Custom-House, London,
September 12, 1811.

WHEREAS great Quantities of the Gold Coin of this Realm have been clandestinely and illegally exported from various Parts of England; and whereas it is highly expedient to prevent such unlawful Practice, and to discover and punish the Offenders.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England do hereby give Notice, that in case any Person or Persons will give Information of any of such illicit Practices, so that any Seizures shall be made of any such Gold Coin in consequence thereof, the Person or Persons giving such Information shall, immediately after such Coin shall have been condemned, receive ONE THIRD PART of the Value of such Seizures, without any Deduction whatever.

This Reward the said Commissioners of the Customs will direct to be paid to such Person or Persons, or to whomsoever he or they shall appoint to receive the same;

and the greatest Care will be taken, as well in making the Seizure as in the Payment of the Reward; that the Name of every Person giving such Information shall be concealed. Such Information may be given either to the Secretary of the Customs in England or to any Officer of His Majesty's Navy or Customs, as may be most convenient to the Party.

By Order of the Commissioners,

G. Delavaud, pro Secretary.
