THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

WE the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, humbly beg Leave to approach Your Royal Highness with the respectful Assurance of our dutiful and affectionate Attachment.

Sensible of the Happiness we have invariably enjoyed under the mild and auspicious Government of our revered Monarch, it is with Sentiments of the liveliest Gratitude that we trace, in Your Royal Highness's Administration of your high Office in the State, a Continuance of the same paternal Solitude and unceasing Attention to the true Interests of the British Empire, which has ever characterised the Reign of our beloved and august Sovereign.

In presuming to lay before you, most gracious Prince, our sincerest Acknowledgments for Your Royal Highness's Exertions for the public Welfare, we feel it a Duty incumbent upon us to express our heartfelt Satisfaction at the Appointment which it has pleased Your Royal Highness to make of your Royal Brother, the Duke of York, to be Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces.

The valuable Services and rare Merits of His Royal Highness, need not the feeble Tribute of our Praise; they receive their best and fullest Interpretation in the brilliant Successes and unvarying Discipline of the British Army, the happy Result of the judicious and salutary System, devised and matured by the Judgment and Experience of His Royal Highness when in Power.

Gratefully and cordially participating in the general and universal Sentiment of Satisfaction which is felt by the faithful and loyal Subjects of His Majesty, upon witnessing the Resumption by His Royal Highness of his Military Administration, we view in it the Triumph of British Justice; we hail it as a wise and seasonable Exertion of the Royal Prerogative, and as an Earnest of Your Royal Highness's benignant Views, and Zeal for the Welfare and Prosperity of these happy Realms.

Given under our Common Seal this 29th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1811.

Whitehall, October 22, 1811.
