

Admiralty-Office, November 19, 1811.

Pursuantly to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to those whom it may concern, that Information has been received at this Office, that the American Schooner named the Trojan, whereof Daniel Fitch was Master, bound from Baltimore to Bourdeaux with a Cargo of Sugar, Coffee, Deer-Skins, Cotton, Indigo, Gum, and Cochineal, having been detained by His Majesty's Ship the Armide, and sent into the Port of Plymouth, in proceeding to Hamoaze (with a Pilot on board,) from Catwater, was on the 7th of this Month, driven on Shore on the Rocks under the Citadel, where her Masts were cut away, and every Endeavour made to get her off without Success; that she afterwards fell into deep Water; that her Hull has, however, since been weighed and brought within Sutton-Pool, in the Port of Plymouth; but that it is apprehended that the greater Part, if not the whole of the Cargo is spoiled.
