Henry Frederick Griffiths, Gent. to be Lieutenant. Dated November 12, 1811.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed marked (A), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint Locks of the Crown and the Merchant, in any Warehouse or Warehouses situated at the Isle of Dogs, and belonging to the West India Dock Company, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions directed by the said Act; provided always, that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be so lodged or secured, unless and until such Warehouses and other Works belonging or to belong thereto shall be so far completed, that, in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every Respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain, under the Regulations and Directions of this Act: And it is further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the Provisions of the said Act should be extended to any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize not enumerated or described in either of the Tables annexed thereto, and should cause a List of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Act shall extend to such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in every Respect in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Tables respectively at the Time of passing the said Act:

We the undersigned Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the Powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us to be expedient that the Provisions of the Act should be extended to Roco or Annatto, legally imported or brought into the Port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such Roco or Annatto should be added to the List of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize enumerated and described in the Table annexed to the said recited Act marked (A); and that such Roco or Annatto should be lodged and secured at or in such Places as aforesaid under the Regulations and Directions of the said Act: And we do further declare, that from and after the Publication of this our Certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the Directions of the said Act, all and every the Provisions, Regulations, and Restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such Roco or Annatto, in every Respect in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the Table annexed to the said Act marked (A) at the Time of the passing the same Act.

Given under our Hands this 27th Day of November 1811.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act, for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignee or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize enumerated or described in the Table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint Locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company in any Warehouse or Warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, of the Duties of Customs or Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions therein contained; provided that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such Warehouses or other Works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the Judgement of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the Regulations and Directions in the said Act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouses, which Certificate should be published Three Times at least in the London Gazette, and in Two or more public Morning Newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the Table marked (B) above referred to, is in the Words following, viz.

TABLE B.

"A List of Articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the Warehouses within the Premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the Duties due on the Importation thereof being first paid"

Rice, Tobacco, Wine,
Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits,

And whereas certain Vaults for Wine and Spirits, and Warehouses for other Articles of Merchandize, and other Parts of the said Works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the Vaults hereinafter mentioned, Part of the said Works, have since been completed;

We, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our Judgement the Vaults, situate under Warehouse Number 1, Pennington-Street, on the North Side of the Dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the Reception of Wine, Brandy, Geneva, and other Spirits.

Whitehall, November 23, 1811.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about One o'Clock on the Morning of the 6th Instant, a Barn, belonging to William Mitford, Esq; at Pitt's-Hill, Petworth, in the County of Sussex; containing about Seventy Quarters of unthrashed Barley; the Property of Mr. John Colebrooke, was discovered to be on Fire, and in a short Time the same, together with a Rick of Hay adjoining, were entirely consumed, and that there is every Reason to believe the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-disposed Person or Persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Barn) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William Misford, and FIFTY POUNDS by the said John Colebrooke, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 25, 1811.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that several Fires have of late taken place in the Parish of Exning, in the County of Suffolk, and that among others, the Public-House called the Swan, was discovered to be on Fire about Twelve o'Clock on the Night of the 14th of July last, which in a short Time was entirely consumed; and whereas it hath been further represented, that between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Morning of the 18th of September last, the Premises of Mr. Collin, in the same Parish, were discovered to be on Fire in the Thatched Roof, by which Seven Dwelling-Houses, Stable, &c. were entirely destroyed, and that there is every Reason to believe the same were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil-disposed Person or Persons.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above-mentioned Felonies, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the aforesaid Premises,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Directors of the Phoenix Fire-Office, and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Inhabitants of the said Parish, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 30, 1811.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the Night of the 22d Day of November instant, the Crew of a Boat belonging to the Rattlesnake Lugger, in the Service of the Customs, were feloniously fired upon by some Persons unknown, from the Shore, at the North End of the Town of Deal, where several Shots passed through the Boat.

His Royal Highness, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, in order to the Discovery of and bringing to Justice the Persons guilty of the aforesaid Felony, is graciously pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Persons concerned therein (except those that actually fired), who will discover any one or more of his Accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to the Discovery and bringing to Justice, do hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who will discover any one or more of the Persons guilty of the said Felony, such Reward to be paid, on his or their Conviction, by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

Transport-Office, November 13, 1811.

THE Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, for taking Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, do hereby give Notice, that they will be ready at this Office, on Tuesday the 10th December 1811, to receive sealed Tenders, and treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for the Performance of certain
