

we thought our selves also oblig'd to render to your Majesty this Testimony of our submission and Gratitude, for your late Gracious Declaration, wherein your Majesty is pleas'd to signify your Majesties Resolution to have frequent Parliaments; and both in and out of Parliaments, to use your Majesties utmost endeavours to extirpate Popery, and to redress Grievances according to the Laws of the Kingdom; and at this time we judge it not only decent but necessary to come in with others our fellow Subjects, in an united voice of Obedience and Thankfulness for your Majesties constant care in preserving the Government, the Liberty and Property of your Majesties Subjects, from being imposed upon by Arbitrary Powers, the established Religion, and the Peace of your Majesties Dominions; and for your Majesties Royal Favour to these Countreys, in passing the late Act against the Importation of Irish Cattle. From the sense of all these Enjoyments, as we bless God for your Majesty, so we resolve with our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, to stand by your Majesty to the utmost extremity, and according to the Conscience of that Duty, which by the Laws of God, and the Laws of the Land we owe to your Majesty, as our Gracious King and Sovereign, we do intirely acquiesce under your Majesties Government, and pray for your Majesties long and happy Reign over us.

To the Kings most Sacred Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Your Majesties antient and Loyal Town or Burrough of Wallingford.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, out of a deep and true Resentment of your Majesties most constant and unwearied Care and Resolutions to suppress Popery, and maintain the true Protestant Orthodox Religion, as now established by Law in the Church of England, to extirpate all Arbitrary Rule and Proceedings, and to govern your subjects according to the known Laws of this your Majesties Realm, as is at large expressed by your Majesties most Gracious speech to your last Parliament holden at Oxford, and in your Majesties most Gracious Declaration since; Do therefore in all Humility, return your most Sacred Majesty our most humble and unfeigned Thanks; and that though we have been more Supine to make these our acknowledgments, than some others of your Majesties Subjects; Yet do we most humbly beseech your Majesty, to be assured that none shall be more forward than we to give those Testimonies (we are able) of our Loyalty and Fidelity towards your Majesties Gracious Person and Government, and in the preservation of your Majesties Crown and Dignity, with all the Rights and Prerogatives thereunto belonging, and the Succession in the true Line. And (as in Duty bound) we (as our Predecessors) shall not only be ready to stand by your Majesty and lawful Successors with our Lives and Fortunes; but shall ever continue to pray to the Great God of Heaven (who hath hitherto miraculously preserved your Majesty from the Plots and Machinations of unreasonable Men) to continue your Majesties preservation in Peace and long Reign here, and to Crown your Majesty with Eternal Bliss and Immortality hereafter; and in testimony hereof we have unanimously agreed to put the Common-Seal of the Burrough aforesaid, Tour Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects. &c.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants, Freeholders, and Freemen of the Corporation of Cutlers, in Hallamshire in the County of York.

WE Tour Majesties most Obedient Subjects the Master, Wardens, Searchers, Assistants,

Freeholders and Freemen of your antient Corporation of Cutlers in Hallamshire in your Majesties County of York, do with all possible Humility implore your Majesties Gracious Acceptance of these our most humble and unfeigned Thanks for Tour Majesties Graciously Declaring your continued affection to Parliaments, and your Royal Resolution to endeavour the extirpation of Popery, and to continue to make the Laws the Rule of your Government. And we do hereby presume to assure your Majesty, that as we are highly sensible of Gods immediate Hand and Protection over your Sacred Person; so we are no less Thankful for it, and the soft and happy Effects we have received by this Providence, under your Majesties Serene Government, ever since your so miraculous Restauration; and we most humbly beseech your Majesty to believe, that (as well from Conscience and Duty, as the Reasons aforesaid) we will be always ready to assist and defend your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, your Heirs and lawful Successors against all Opposers whatsoever. Signed by 510.

Plymouth, Sept. 23. This day arrived here His Majesties Ship the Tyger, Commanded by the Lord Berkeley, with several Merchant Ships bound for the Sireighis, the Wind at N. N. W.

Portsmouth, Sept. 25. On Thursday in the Afternoon sailed from hence His Majesties Ship the Dover, and the next day the Assurance for Bilbao.

Chester, Sept. 23. At the Assizes held here the 19th Instant, for the County Palatine of Chester, the Grand Jury, being all persons of the best quality in the County, agreed on, and Signed an humble Address to be presented to His Majesty.

Newmarket, Sept. 26. Their Majesties are gone to Cambridge, where they will be Entertained at Dinner by the University. The particulars you may expect in our next.

Whitehall, Sept. 27. This day Mr. George Witheridge was by Warrant from the Council Board committed prisoner to the Gatehouse for High Treason.

And Benjamin Claypool, who was taken into custody by one of His Majesties Messengers, was ordered to give in sufficient Security for his appearance the next Term, when he will be prosecuted for Writing and Dispersing false and seditious News-Letters; in some of which very false and scandalous Reflections have lately been made upon several private persons of known Integrity and Affection to the Government.

Advertisement.

WHEREAS there were several Goods stole from Mr. Richard C a e, His Majesties Feather-maker (who dwells in the Pal-Mall) on Monday the 26th Instant at night viz. one Silver Tankard, which contains about a Quart, a Silver Pepper-box, five Silver Spoons (one of them having a knob at the end thereof) two Silver Trencher Salts, one Point of Vines Quoife, a Scarfe laced with a broad Lace, three plain long scarfes, a black-Crape Petticoat, a black Mohair Petticoat, a sad colour Sarcenet Petticoat, a sad colour Hair Cambrellet Cloak, almost new, a light colour Hair Cambrellet Coat with Gold Buttons, faced with a bag Silk at the Sleeves, of the same colour, a sad colour Campaigne Hair-Cambrellet Coat, a black Silk Paraddine Coat, lined with the same Silk, a large Amber Necklace, a Holland Sheer, several All-a-mode Hoods, and other things; all which are suspected to be conveyed away by a Servant Maid, who had been but three or four days in the House, and went away on the Monday night aforesaid, about ten a clock; she was called by the name of Mary Harrison, but hath counterfeited her right name, and upon enquiry of her, tis verily believed her true name is either Susan or Pwley or Ann Stanton; if it is of a middle or low Stature, about 30 years of age, or somewhat less, full black eyes, thin faced, of a pale Complexion, and said she had been lately sick; her usual Habit is a sad colour plain Manroue Gown Plaited; Whoever can stop the said Person, or the Goods they are desired to give notice thereof, to the said Mr. C a e, or to Captain Richardson the Keeper of Newgate, and they shall have 40s. reward; and if any of the said Goods be stoll, the persons that have bought them shall have the Monies repaid which they gave for them, upon discovering, and return of the Goods they have bought, and also the reward aforesaid.