Whitehall, December 17, 1811.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Dickenson, of Ulverston, in the County of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 14, 1811.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the Dwelling-House of Mr. Timothy Marr, 29, Ratcliffe Highway, in the Parish of Saint George, Middlesex, Man's-Mercer, was entered on Sunday Morning last, between the Hours of Twelve and Two o'Clock, by some Person or Persons unknown, and that the said Mr. Marr, Mrs. Celia Marr his Wife, Timothy their Infant Child, in the Cradle, and James Biggs, a Servant Lad, were all of them most inhumanly and barbarously murdered;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said atrocious Murders, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually perpetrated the said Murders) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

R. RYDER.

Whitehall, December 14, 1811.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the Night of the 15th November last, some evil disposed Person did maliciously and feloniously discharge a Gun at the Keeper of Edward Parkins, Esq; who was employed in watching a Wood called Parsons Green Wood, in the Parishes of Gravely and Weston, in the County of Herts;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired the said Gun) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Edward Parkins, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, December 3, 1811.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between Six and Seven o'Clock in the Evening of the 7th Instant, a Barley Rick, standing in Wheatly Field, in the County of Oxford, the Property of Mr. William Juggins, was discovered to be on Fire, which in a short Time was entirely consumed, and that there is every Reason to believe the same was maliciously and maliciously set on Fire by some evil disposed Person or Persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better Apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased, in the Name, and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Barley Rick) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William Juggins, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
