

Lane, Shadwell, in the County of Middlesex, he observed a young Man, who was a Lodger at the Public House called the King's Arms, and kept by Mr. John Williamson, lowering himself down by Two Sheets from a Two-pair of Stairs Window, who told him that the Family were murdered, whereupon the Door was immediately broken open, and the Bodies of Mrs. Catherine Williamson and her Maid Servant, Bridget Harrington, were found murdered in the Tap-Room, and the said Mr. John Williamson was found in the Cellar in the same State;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said atrocious Murders, is hereby pleased, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually perpetrated the said Murders) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

R. RYDER.

Whitchall, December 20, 1811.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that late on Friday Night, the 13th, or early in the Morning of Saturday the 14th Day of December instant, the Print Buildings belonging to Messrs. Thomas Andrew and Sons, at Campstall-Bridge, near Marple, in the County of Chester, were broken into and plundered, and afterwards wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil disposed Person or Persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better Apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, is hereby pleased, in the Name, and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Buildings) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Thomas Andrew and Sons, and ONE HUNDRED POUNDS by the Directors of the Sun Fire-Office, Royal Exchange Insurance Company, and Phoenix Fire-Office, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

LEGACY DUTY.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1811.

IT having been deemed expedient to form a new Establishment, under the Commissioners of Stamps, for the better Collection of the Duties on Legacies, and on Residues of personal Estate passing by Wills, and devolving upon Intestacies; Notice is hereby given, that the Office appropriated for that Purpose is the late Hawkers and Pedlars' Office, adjoining the Royal Academy, in Somerset-Place, which will be opened on the First Day of January next; and that the Duties arising under all Wills and Letters of Administration proved in and granted by any Ecclesiastical Court, upon and after the said First Day of January next, are to be assessed and paid at that Office; and that the Duties arising under all Wills and Letters of Administration proved and granted prior to that Day, are to be assessed and paid at the old Office as heretofore.

Printed Forms of Receipts for Legacies, and of Accounts of Residues of personal Estate, with Instructions thereon, may be had at each Office; and on making Application for the same, Executors and Administrators are desired to send their Names and Residence, and the Name of the Testator or Intestate.

They are also desired to observe, that in filling up the Receipts it will be indispensably necessary to specify the Time when the Testator or Intestate died, and the Court where the Will was proved, or Letters of Administration granted; and also to state the Degree of Relationship of the Legatee or next of Kin, according to the Words of the Act of Parliament, which are printed for the Guidance of Executors and Administrators on the Back of the Receipts.

The Duties are to be paid within Twenty-one Days after the Date of the Receipts for Legacies and Residues, and the Receipts are to be dated on the Day of signing the same. Executors and Administrators paying Legacies and Residues without taking proper Receipts, and paying the Duties within the Time prescribed, and Legatees and next of Kin receiving Legacies and Residues without giving proper Receipts for the same, and allowing a Deduction of the Duties, will be respectively liable to Penalties of Ten per Cent. on the Amount of such Legacies or Residues.

And as the Commissioners will be furnished by the Ecclesiastical Courts with Copies of all Wills, and an Account of all Letters of Administration, they will know on whom to call for Payment of the
