

Downing-Street, December 24, 1811.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, was Yesterday Morning received at Lord Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by General Viscount Wellington, dated Frenada, 4th December 1811.

ACCORDING to the Intention which I communicated to your Lordship, I withdrew our Advanced Guard across the Aguada on the 29th.

Don Carlos D'Espagne has informed me, that he attacked the Enemy on the 28th of November, on their Retreat from the Sierra de Francia, between Miranda and Endrinal, with a Detachment of Don Julian Sanchez's Infantry and a Detachment of the Regiment de la Princesa. On their Arrival at Endrinal they were attacked by Don Julian Sanchez with his Cavalry, and were obliged to form in a Square.

Don Carlos informs me that the Enemy suffered considerable Loss; and that his Troops got Possession of some of the Money, of which the Enemy had plundered the Inhabitants of the Sierra de Francia.

Don Carlos D'Espagne mentions particularly the Conduct of Lieutenant William Reid, of the Royal Engineers, who attended him upon this Expedition, having before been employed to perform a Service under his Directions.
