LEGACY DUTY.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1811.

IT having been deemed expedient to form a new Establishment, under the Commissioners or Stamps, for the better Collection of the Duties on Legacies, and on Residues of personal Estate passing by Wills, and devolving upon Intestacies, Notice is hereby given, that the Office appropriated for that Purpose is the late Hawkers and Pedlars' Office, adjoining the Royal Academy, in Somerset-Place, which will be opened on the First Day of January next; and that the Duties arising under all Wills and Letters of Administration proved in and granted by any Ecclesiastical Court, upon and after the said First Day of January next, are to be assessed and paid at that Office; and that the Duties arising under all Wills and Letters of Administration proved and granted prior to that Day, are to be assessed and paid at the old Office as heretofore.

Printed Forms of Receipts for Legacies, and of Accounts of Residues of personal Estate, with Instructions thereon, may be had at each Office; and on making Application for the same, Executors and Administrators are desired to send their Names and Residence, and the Name of the Testator or Intestate.

They are also desired to observe, that in filling up the Receipts it will be indispensably necessary to specify the Time when the Testator or Intestate died, and the Court where the Will was proved, or Letters of Administration granted; and also to state the Degree of Relationship of the Legatee or next of Kin, according to the Words of the Act of Parliament, which are printed for the Guidance of Executors and Administrators on the Back of the Receipts.

The Duties are to be paid within Twenty-one Days after the Date of the Receipts for Legacies and Residues, and the Receipts are to be dated on the Day of signing the same. Executors and Administrators paying Legacies and Residues without taking proper Receipts, and paying the Duties within the Time prescribed, and Legatees and next of Kin receiving Legacies and Residues without giving proper Receipts for the same, and allowing a Deduction of the Duties, will be respectively liable to Penalties of Ten per Cent. on the Amount of such Legacies or Residues.

And as the Commissioners are regularly furnished by the Ecclesiastical Courts with Copies of all Wills, and an Account of all Letters of Administration, they will know on whom to call for Payment of the Duties; and they will enforce the Payment thereof by Suit in the Court of Exchequer, if not paid in due Time.

By Order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.
