Richard Wellesley, Esq; of Grosvenor-Square, in the County of Middlesex, in the room of Sir Nathaniel Holland, Baronet, deceased.

Whitehall, November 20, 1811.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Pendock Neale, of Tollerton-Hall, in the county of Nottingham, Esq; great grandson of John Neale, of Mansfield Woodhouse, in the said county of Nottingham, Esq; deceased, by Anne his wife, daughter and co-heir of Philip Pendock, of Tollerton aforesaid, Esq; who was lineally descended from Richard Pendock, of Gutherington, in the county of Gloucester, Esq; and Maud his wife, the sole heir of Thomas Barry, of Tollerton, Esq; whose ancestors were for many generations seated at that place, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue male may, in consideration of his descent from the said ancient family of Barry, take and use the surname, and bear the armorial ensigns of Barry, of Tollerton, only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 27, 1811.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto George Charles Hoste, Esq; a Captain in the Corps of Royal Engineers, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the third class of the royal Sicilian Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, which His Sicilian Majesty had been pleased to confer upon the said Captain George Charles Hoste, in testimony of His royal approbation of the great courage and intrepidity displayed by him in the action fought by the Spartan frigate against a squadron of the enemy in the Bay of Naples on the 3d May 1810:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered, together with the relative documents, in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 10, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Christopher Tilson, Esq; a Major-General in the army, third son of John Tilson, late of Watlington-Park, in the county of Oxford, Esq; deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Chowne only, and bear the arms of Chowne quarterly with the arms of Tilson; out of grateful and affectionate respect to the memory, and in compliance with an injunction contained in the will of his cousin, Mary late Countess de Bruhl, widow and relict of His Excellency Hans Maurice Count de Bruhl, deceased, formerly Knight of the White Eagle, and Privy Councillor to His Most Serene Highness the Elector of Saxony, and his late Envoy Extraordinary to His Majesty; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 14, 1812.
