

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday, February 8, to Tuesday, February 11, 1812.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th of February 1812,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

IT is this day ordered by their Lordships, that the reading the Form of Prayer to Almighty God, which was prepared by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, in pursuance of the Order of this Board, dated the 5th of November 1810, for the restoration of His Majesty's health, be discontinued; and that His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a new Form of Prayer, to be used in lieu thereof.

And it is hereby further ordered, that His Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of copies of the said Form of Prayer, that the same may be forthwith sent round, and read in the several churches throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland.

Duchy of Lancaster Office, Somerset-Place, February 8, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, hath this day been pleased to appoint Edward Greaves,
of Culcheth, Esq; to be High Sheriff of the county
palatine of Lancaster.

Whitehall, February 19, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Alexander Anderson, of Mounie, in the shire of Aberdeen,
and of Stamford Hill, in the county of Middlesex, Esq; eldest son and heir of James Anderson, late of Westham, in the county of Essex, L.L. D. deceased, by Margaret his wife, second daughter of George Seton, late of Mounie aforesaid, Advocate, both also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue, in compliance with an express condition contained in a deed of settlement executed by his said maternal grandfather George Seton, and bearing date the 11th day of August 1762, may assume and take the surname of Seton, and also bear the arms of Seton, of Mounie;
such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that this His royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms,

Crown-Office; February 11, 1812.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Derby.

Henry Frederick Compton Cavendish, Esq; in the room of William Cavendish, Esq; deceased.

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto
His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Wednesday, the 22d inst.
the body of Margaret Haxtable, a child of about nine years of age, belonging to the village of Dod-brooke, in the county of Devon, (who had been sent by its parents on the Monday preceding to a shoemaker's in that village,) was found murdered in a most inhuman manner, in a ditch within a field
about half a mile from the said village;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by Mr. Thomas Wyse, Attorney at Law, in Kingsbridge, Devon.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods
" imported into Great Britain to be secured in " Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure, in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, and merchandize; under the joint lock of the Crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duplicates of Customs due on the importation thereof;
and that no goods, wares, or merchandize, so enumerated or described in the said table marked (E), shall be permitted to be so lodged or secured unless and until it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, that the said warehouse or warehouses are complete, fit, and proper in every respect, for the reception

of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same may be safely and securely deposited; and such goods, wares, and merchandize, so lodged and secured in such warehouses, shall in all other respects be subject and liable to the rules, regulations, and restrictions in the said Act contained: And whereas the table marked (E), above referred to, is in the words following, viz.

TABLE (E).

"A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in warehouses to be approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid".

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 28th of February next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

J. W. CROKER.

Admiralty-Office, February 11, 1812.

THESE are to give notice, that a General Court of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office on Thursday the 27th instant, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in order to choose two Vice-Presidents and fifteen Assistants, for the year ensuing.

J. W. CROKER.

Stamp-Office, February 11, 1812!

WHEREAS, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of our present Lord the King, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries;" Dame Sarah Branscomb, of Holborn, in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the City of London, Lottery-Office-Keeper, did, on the 19th day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, receive a licence from the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper for the time being in England, to divide lottery tickets into shares, and to issue such chances as are by the said Act permitted to be issued, at her house or place situate at No. 250, Saint Margaret's-Hill, in the Borough of Southwark, which licence was to continue in force till after the expiration of the drawing of the last of the lotteries to be drawn under the authority of the said Act; and whereas it is by the said Act directed, that all and every persons and person to whom such licence or licences should be granted in Great Britain pursuant to the said Act, should, before the drawing begins, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London appointed and established by the said Commissioners for that purpose, 150 whole undrawn tickets in each of the lotteries to be established by the said Act, for every such licence granted to him, her, or them, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act, and that every such licence for which no deposit should be made, should be void and of no effect; and that every person acting under any such licence in any of the matters therein contained, after such default made, should be adjudged and considered in every respect as an unlicensed person; and that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon every such default, to cause to be published the names and places of abode, and the description of the offices, of such person or persons making such default as aforesaid, in the London Gazette, and to declare therein the time when such default was made, and that such forfeiture should take place from the time of such publication; and whereas the drawing of the first of the said lotteries in the said Act mentioned, being the next of the said lotteries after the granting of the said licence.

to the said Dame Sarah Branscomb, was on the 21st day of this instant January :

The said Commissioners do therefore hereby give notice and declare, that the said Dame Sarah Branscomb, of Holborn, in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn aforesaid, did not, before or on the said 21st day of this instant January, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London appointed and established by the said Commissioners for such deposit, 150 whole undrawn tickets in the said first lottery so drawn by virtue of the said Act, for and in respect of the licence so granted her as aforesaid for her said house or place at No. 250, Saint Margaret's-Hill aforesaid, and that she, the said Dame Sarah Branscomb, has thereby forfeited her said licence for her said house or place at No. 250, Saint Margaret's-Hill, in the said Borough of Southwark.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Stamp-Office, February 11, 1812.

WHereas, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of our present Lord the King, intituled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries," William Martin, of No. 8, Cornhill, in the City of London, Lottery-Office-Keeper, did, on the 12th day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, receive a licence from the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper for the time being in England, to divide lottery tickets into shares, and to issue such chances as are by the said Act permitted to be issued, at his house or place situate at No. 8, Cornhill aforesaid, which licence was to continue in force till after the expiration of the drawing of the last of the lotteries to be drawn under the authority of the said Act; and whereas it is by the said Act directed, that all and every persons and person to whom such licence or licences should be granted in Great Britain pursuant to the said Act, should, before the drawing begins, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London, appointed and established by the said Commissioners for that purpose, 150 whole undrawn tickets in each of the lotteries to be established by the said Act, for every such licence granted to him, her, or them, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act, and that every such licence for which no deposit should be made, should be void and of no effect; and that every person acting under any such licence in any of the matters therein contained, after such default made, should be adjudged and considered in every respect as an unlicensed person; and that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon every such default, to cause to be published the names and places of abode, and the description of the offices of such person or persons making such default as aforesaid, in the London Gazette, and to declare therein the time when such default was made, and that such forfeiture should take place from the time of such publication; and whereas the drawing of the first of the said lotteries in the said Act mentioned, being the next of the said lotteries after the granting of the said licence to the said William Martin, was on the 21st day of this instant January :

No. 16573.

B.

The said Commissioners do therefore hereby give notice and declare, that the said William Martin, of No. 8, Cornhill aforesaid, Lottery-Office-Keeper, did not, before or on the said 21st day of this instant January, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London, appointed and established by the said Commissioners for such deposit, 150 whole undrawn tickets in the said first lottery so drawn by virtue of the said Act, for and in respect of the licence so granted him as aforesaid, and that he, the said William Martin, has thereby forfeited his said licence.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, February 1, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act for letting to farm the Duties on Horses hired by the Mile or Stage to be used in travelling, and on Horses hired for a less Period of Time than Twenty-eight Days for drawing Carriages used in travelling Post or otherwise in Great Britain, and for facilitating the Recovery of the said Duties;" the Commissioners of Stamps, duly authorised by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, will again put up to be let to farm such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, c. 98.) as shall arise in the district under-mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Monday the 2d day of March next, between the hours of ten and twelve in the forenoon, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February instant inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void.

No.	DISTRICT.	Annual Rent at which it will be put up.
2.	Northumberland	} £ 10,000
	Cumberland
	Westmorland
	Durham

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, one-eighth part of the annual rent as a deposit; but if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 2d day of March next, that is to say, on or before the 27th day of February instant, signed with their names, and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.
