

to the said Dame Sarah Branscomb, was on the 21st day of this instant January :

The said Commissioners do therefore hereby give notice and declare, that the said Dame Sarah Branscomb, of Holborn, in the Parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn aforesaid, did not, before or on the said 21st day of this instant January, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London appointed and established by the said Commissioners for such deposit, 150 whole undrawn tickets in the said first lottery so drawn by virtue of the said Act, for and in respect of the licence so granted her as aforesaid for her said house or place at No. 250, Saint Margaret's-Hill aforesaid, and that she, the said Dame Sarah Branscomb, has thereby forfeited her said licence for her said house or place at No. 250, Saint Margaret's-Hill, in the said Borough of Southwark.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Stamp-Office, February 11, 1812.

WHereas, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of our present Lord the King, intituled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Lotteries," William Martin, of No. 8, Cornhill, in the City of London, Lottery-Office-Keeper, did, on the 12th day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, receive a licence from the Commissioners for managing the Duties upon Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper for the time being in England, to divide lottery tickets into shares, and to issue such chances as are by the said Act permitted to be issued, at his house or place situate at No. 8, Cornhill aforesaid, which licence was to continue in force till after the expiration of the drawing of the last of the lotteries to be drawn under the authority of the said Act; and whereas it is by the said Act directed, that all and every persons and person to whom such licence or licences should be granted in Great Britain pursuant to the said Act, should, before the drawing begins, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London, appointed and established by the said Commissioners for that purpose, 150 whole undrawn tickets in each of the lotteries to be established by the said Act, for every such licence granted to him, her, or them, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act, and that every such licence for which no deposit should be made, should be void and of no effect; and that every person acting under any such licence in any of the matters therein contained, after such default made, should be adjudged and considered in every respect as an unlicensed person; and that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon every such default, to cause to be published the names and places of abode, and the description of the offices of such person or persons making such default as aforesaid, in the London Gazette, and to declare therein the time when such default was made, and that such forfeiture should take place from the time of such publication; and whereas the drawing of the first of the said lotteries in the said Act mentioned, being the next of the said lotteries after the granting of the said licence to the said William Martin, was on the 21st day of this instant January :

No. 16573.

B

The said Commissioners do therefore hereby give notice and declare, that the said William Martin, of No. 8, Cornhill aforesaid, Lottery-Office-Keeper, did not, before or on the said 21st day of this instant January, deposit at the office or place at or in the head office of the said Commissioners in London, appointed and established by the said Commissioners for such deposit, 150 whole undrawn tickets in the said first lottery so drawn by virtue of the said Act, for and in respect of the licence so granted him as aforesaid, and that he, the said William Martin, has thereby forfeited his said licence.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Commissary in Chief's-Office, Great George-Street, February 6, 1812.

Notice is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County and Island :

Cornwall (including Isle of Wight, Scilly),

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of March next, and to continue for one month only; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Tuesday the 25th day of February instant (but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day), and if sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Proposals must be made separately for the county and island; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up, by two persons of known property engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be stationed or supplied in the county, the expences of the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, to be refunded to him by the Commissary in Chief.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon
