

Whitehall, January 31, 1812.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the morning of Wednesday, the 22d inst. the body of Margaret Haxtable, a child of about nine years of age, belonging to the village of Dodbrooke, in the county of Devon, (who had been sent by its parents on the Monday preceding to a shoemaker's in that village,) was found murdered in a most inhuman manner, in a ditch within a field about half a mile from the said village;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murder, is hereby pleased, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by Mr. Thomas Wyse, Attorney at Law, in Kingsbridge, Devon.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure, in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, and merchandize, under the joint lock of the Crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and that no goods, wares, or merchandize, so enumerated or described in the said table marked (E), shall be permitted to be so lodged or secured unless and until it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, that the said warehouse or warehouses are complete, fit, and proper in every respect, for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same may be safely and securely deposited; and such goods, wares, and merchandize, so lodged and secured in such warehouses, shall in all other respects be subject and liable to the rules, regulations, and restrictions in the said Act contained: And whereas the table marked (E), above referred to, is in the words following, viz.

TABLE (E).

"A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in warehouses to be approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid".
