Published by Authority.

From Saturday, February 15, to Tuesday, February 18, 1812.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 24th of January 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intitled "An act for further continuing, until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, an act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, for permitting the importation into Great Britain of hides and other articles in foreign ships," it is enacted that an act, made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intitled "An act for permitting, until the fifth day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the importation of hides, calf-skins, horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), in foreign ships, on payment of the like duties as if imported in British or Irish ships;" which by an act, made in the forty-fifth year of His present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to goat-skins imported in foreign ships; and which was further continued by an act made in the forty-seventh year of his present Majesty, until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, should be and the same was thereby further continued until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace: And whereas by the said acts it is lawful for His Majesty, by his order in council from time to time, when and as often as it may be judged expedient, to permit any hides, pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins dressed or undressed, horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also goat-skins, to be imported in any foreign ship or vessel, and to be admitted to entry in any port or place in the United Kingdom, on payment of such and the like duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel; any thing contained in any act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's privy council, is thereupon pleased, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said above-recited act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months, from the eighth day of February next, the importation of hides, or pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins, dressed or undressed horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also of goat-skins, dressed or undressed, in any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded; and that on the arrival at any port of the United Kingdom of any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded, with any of the articles abovementioned, the said goods shall be admitted to entry on payment of the same duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

Exchequer Bill-Office, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, February 18, 1812.

THE House of Commons having, on the 17th instant, come to the following Resolution:

“ That every person interested in, or entitled unto any Exchequer Bill or Bills, dated between the 1st day of March 1811, and the 14th day of February 1812, who shall carry the same to the office of the Paymasters of Exchequer Bills, between the 22d and 29th days of February 1812, both inclusive, (unless a sum amounting to fourteen millions sterling principal money of the said bills shall be sooner subscribed) shall be paid the interest that shall become due thereon respectively to the 9th day of March 1812, inclusive, and shall have in exchange, for such bill or bills, a certificate or certificates to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, expressing the principal sum contained in such bill or bills, which certificate or certificates shall entitle such person or persons for every one hundred pounds principal money contained therein, to one hundred and eight pounds capital stock in annuities, after the rate of five pounds per centum per annum, to be added to and made one joint stock with the five pounds per centum annuities, created by acts made in the 24th, 25th, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 48th, 49th, 50, and 51st years of His present Majesty, for granting annuities to satisfy certain Navy, Victualling, Transport Bills, Ordnance Debentures, and Exchequer Bills, and the interest to commence from the 5th day of January 1812, which said annuities are to be redeemable at the same time and in like manner as the said annuities already established are now redeemable by Parliament, and to be charged upon, and made payable out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain:”

The Paymasters of Exchequer Bills do hereby give notice, that daily attendance will be given at their office, from ten o'clock in the morning to one o'clock in the afternoon, (Sunday excepted,) from Saturday the 22d until Saturday the 29th instant, both inclusive; for the purpose of receiving the Exchequer Bills, intended to be funded, pursuant to the above resolution; and the Bearers thereof are desired to place the several descriptions of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at the office) classing them in the order of the dates, and arranging numerically such as are of like date and value; and they are to express the amount of the principal sums contained therein, and the amount of interest that will be due thereon (which will be paid in money) computed from, but excluding the day on which they are respectively dated to the 9th day of March 1812; inclusive, when the interest will cease; and they are desired to state the amount of capital stock to be created, in respect of the principal sums intended to be funded, and to write their names (without abbreviation of their Christian names) and places of abode on their lists, and to indorse each bill with their usual signatures.

To avoid delay, the parties are recommended to apply at the office previously for memoranda, and to bring them ready filled up at the time of subscription; observing, that the aggregate amount of their several lists must be stated in one memorandum.

N. B. The days for payment of interest and for delivering certificates in exchange, will be advertised in the public papers as early as possible.
