Whitehall, February 22, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about half-past one o'clock of the morning of the 13th instant, a large-decked lugger, laden with contraband goods, having been discovered in the Downs, and chased by the boats of the Lively cutter, in the service of the Revenue of Excise, and having been boarded by one of the said boats, the crew of the lugger attacked the officer and cutter's men, and, after beating them severely, took a pistol from one of them, and fired it at him, wounded him in the head, and threw him overboard.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons who have been guilty of this outrageous conduct, is hereby pleased, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired at the cutter's man, as stated) who shall discover his or their accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
