THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,
WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, in Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, on the present occasion, with the strongest assurances of our attachment to your Royal Person, and of our ardent zeal in support of your government.

While we deeply lament, along with your Royal Highness and our fellow-subjects, the continuance of His Majesty's indisposition, and the disappointment of the hopes entertained of his early recovery, we cannot but admire the delicate propriety of your conduct, in relation to your august father; and we are most grateful to Almighty God, that the exercise of the royal authority is, in the meantime, vested in a Prince, who has no other object in view but the general welfare and happiness of his people, and whose leading principle of action is an unbiassed regard to the common interests of the whole empire.

We humbly offer to your Royal Highness our congratulations, on the signal successes which have attended His Majesty's arms, during the short period of your regency; not only in assisting the nations of the Peninsula in their noble struggle for independence, but also in accomplishing the extinction of the colonial power of France in the Eastern Hemisphere.

While we reflect with pride, that your Royal Highness has preserved the national faith inviolate towards His Majesty's allies, we entreat permission to testify our unqualified approbation of the resolution of your Royal Highness steadily to persevere in the arduous contest; and, in looking forward to the issue of that contest, we anticipate, from the vigour of your councils, the consummate skill of your generals, and the gallantry of your troops, a glorious result.

We humbly desire also to express our firm persuasion, that the wisdom and energy of your Royal Highness, in the government of these realms, will command the confidence and support of a grateful people; and will enable you, under the blessing of Divine Providence, not only to maintain unimpaired, but to advance, the honour and prosperity of the British empire.

Signed and sealed, with the common seal of the said City of Glasgow, by me, Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate of the said City, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council thereof, at Glasgow, the 24th day of February 1812. John Hamilton.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost of Glasgow.]

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, March 7, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at the Earl of Liverpool's Office, addressed to His Lordship by General the Earl of Wellington, dated Frenada, February 19, 1812.

SINCE I addressed your Lordship on the 12th instant, I have received intelligence that the First and Fourth Divisions of the Army of Portugal, and part of General Montbrun's Cavalry, as well as the Sixth Division, are on the Tagus, in the neighbourhood of Talavera de la Reyna and Toledo. It is certain that General Bonet evacuated the Asturias at the time I received the reports that he had done so in January; and I understand that he suffered considerably in this operation, as well from the effects of the weather as from the operations of a detachment of the army of Galicia, and of General Porlier's troops.

No movement of importance has been made by any of the troops composing the army of Portugal since I addressed your Lordship on the 12th instant.

The Guerilla parties continue to increase, and their operations become every day more important: Saomil has lately intercepted the communications of the Army of Portugal in Upper Castille, near Medina del Campo, and he took about one hundred prisoners near that town; and the party of Cuesta attacked a body of French infantry which crossed the Tietar, and obliged them to retire with considerable loss.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) WELLINGTON.

Admiralty-Office, March 7, 1812.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Richardson, of His Majesty's Ship Semiramis, addressed to Vice-Admiral Thornbrough, at Cork, and a Duplicate enclosed to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Semiramis, at Sea, February 29, 1812.

SIR,

AT daylight this morning I fell in with an enemy's cruizer, and, after a chase of six hours, captured the Grand Jean Bart privateer, of St. Maloes, commanded by Monsieur Benj. Dupont, mounting fourteen guns, one hundred and six men, two hundred and twenty tons. She is a fine brig, quite new, copper-bottomed; on her second cruise; was chased several times by our frigates, whom she out-sailed; and, confident of her superiority in sailing, allowed me to approach so near, that cutting away his anchors, and heaving overboard his boats, &c. could not save him.

I have the honour to be, &c.

CHARLES RICHARDSON, Captain.

The tickets in the A class only to be put into the wheel as usual, and each ticket drawn to decide its corresponding number in the B class, viz. No. 1 to decide 6001, No. 2 to decide 6002, and so on in numerical progression.

The six first prizes in the scheme are to be put into the wheel in pairs, viz. the 20,000l. and 15,000l. on one paper, the 10,000l. and 5000l. on another paper, and the 4000l. and 3000l. on a third paper.

The class to which the highest prize on each paper shall belong when drawn, is to be determined by the number of the first drawn blank, in the manner following: there being 6000 tickets in the wheel (numbered from 1 to 6000), if the first drawn blank should be No. 3000 or under, then the A class shall receive the highest, and the B class the lowest prize on each paper; but if on the contrary, the number of the first drawn blank should be any number above 3000, then the highest prize shall belong to the B, and the lowest to the A class. All the other prizes in the scheme to be determined in the usual manner.
