

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday, March 7, to Tuesday, March 10, 1812.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 4th day of March 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers commercial houses in London and other parts of the United Kingdom, connected in trade with Spain, have been accustomed to have partners in their said houses resident in Spain, and that it is become more necessary in the present state of that country, that such partners should continue to reside there for the protection of the interests of their said houses, and for facilitating the commercial intercourse between the two countries: And whereas it may happen that places wherein such persons may be resident may have fallen, or may fall, under the possession and usurpation of France, and that in consequence thereof doubts may arise upon the national character of the said persons, to the prejudice of them and of their partners and houses of trade in any part of the United Kingdom:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that all persons, natives of Spain, being partners in any house of trade in any part of the United Kingdom, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of their respective houses, shall be considered as stranger friends, and shall in no case be treated as alien enemies; and that persons, being British subjects, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of any house of trade in which they are partners in any part of the United Kingdom, shall be considered, and are hereby declared to be so resident as aforesaid under His Majesty's licence, and without prejudice to their character of British subjects, or to any of the rights or privileges belonging thereto;

Provided that the names of all persons claiming the benefit of this Order shall, within six months from the date hereof, or from the time of their going henceforth to reside in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, be given in, together with the names of their respective houses of trade in the United Kingdom, and the usual place of their abode in Spain, or in any island as aforesaid dependent thereon, to the Clerk of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council: And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be of no effect for the benefit or protection of any person that shall not duly comply with the said provision.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chatterton.

Admiralty-Office, March 10, 1812.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Fremantle to John Wilson Croker, Esq, dated on board His Majesty's Ship Milford, Palermo Bay, January 1, 1812.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inclose, for the information of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter transmitted to me by Captain Rowley, of His Majesty's ship Eagle, detailing the capture of the French frigate Pomone, and Persannus storeship, by His Majesty's ships Active, Alceste, and Unité, on the 29th of November 1811.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) T. F. FREMANTLE.

P. S. Captain Rowley, in his letter to me of the 19th ultimo, also mentions the loss of the French frigate Flora.—"She was going from Trieste to Venice; was caught with a strong borer, and stranded off Chiozza, when every soul on board perished, with the exception of five or six."

T. F. F.

His Majesty's Ship Alceste, off Lissa,

SIR,

December 4, 1811

THE enemy's squadron from Corfu, going to Trieste, were met with, on the 29th ult. by three of His Majesty's ships under my orders. The Persanne was chased and taken by the Unité, after a long run; the Pauline and Pomone chased by the Alceste and Active, and, after a most severe action of two hours and forty minutes, the Pomone was taken, totally dismantled, and Pauline escaped, owing to the Alceste having her maintop-mast shot away. The Alceste has twenty killed and wounded; the Active, about thirty-two; and I lament to say, Captain Gordon has lost a leg, and his first lieutenant an arm.

The details of the action I shall have the honour of transmitting by the first man of war going down.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) MURRAY MAXWELL, Captain.

Charles Rowley, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Eagle, Senior Officer at Corfu, &c. &c. &c.

Admiralty-Office, March 10, 1812.

COMMODORE PENROSE, at Gibraltar, has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq; a letter from Lieutenant Bartholomew, commanding His Majesty's gun-brig Richmond, giving an account of his having, on the 5th of last month, attacked, in a bay near Vera, on the coast of Grenada, a French privateer called L'Intrepide, of eighteen guns and one hundred and eighty men. On the Richmond opening her fire upon the privateer, her crew set fire to her, and took to their boats; the vessel was then taken possession of, her cable cut, and she was brought out more than a mile when she blew up, within ten minutes after she had been abandoned.
