AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 4th day of March 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers commercial houses in London and other parts of the United Kingdom, connected in trade with Spain, have been accustomed to have partners in their said houses resident in Spain, and that it is become more necessary in the present state of that country, that such partners should continue to reside there for the protection of the interests of their said houses, and for facilitating the commercial intercourse between the two countries: And whereas it may happen that places wherein such persons may be resident may have fallen, or may fall, under the possession and usurpation of France, and that in consequence thereof doubts may arise upon the national character of the said persons, to the prejudice of them and of their partners and houses of trade in any part of the United Kingdom:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that all persons, natives of Spain, being partners in any house of trade in any part of the United Kingdom, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of their respective houses, shall be considered as stranger friends, and shall in no case be treated as alien enemies; and that persons, being British subjects, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of any house of trade in which they are partners in any part of the United Kingdom, shall be considered, and are hereby declared to be so resident as aforesaid under His Majesty's licence, and without prejudice to their character of British subjects, or to any of the rights or privileges belonging thereto;

Provided that the names of all persons claiming the benefit of this Order shall, within six months from the date hereof, or from the time of their going henceforth to reside in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, be given in, together with the names of their respective houses of trade in the United Kingdom, and the place of their abode in Spain, or in any island in aforesaid dependent thereon, to the Clerk of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council: And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be of no effect for the benefit or protection of any person that shall not duly comply with the said provision.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Sunday morning the 23d February last, the workshops of Mr. Joseph Hirst, of Marsh, and Mr. James Balderstone, of Crosland, woollen-cloth-dressers, in the neighbourhood of Huddersfield, in the county of York, were broken into by a large number of armed people (with their persons disguised) who destroyed the frames and sheers of the dressing machines therein, and committed other damage to the premises; likewise early on Thursday morning the 27th of February, similar outrages were committed upon the premises of William Hinchliff, of Ley Moor; also on Friday morning the 6th instant, the same violent depredations were committed upon the premises of Samuel Swallow, John Swallow, William Colton, and John Sykes, in the township of Linfils; likewise on Thursday the 12th instant, similar atrocities were committed on the premises of Clement Dyson, of Dungeon Wood; George Roberts, of Crosland; and John Garnar, of Houlley, in the neighbourhood of Huddersfield;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by Mr. John Pease, Treasurer of the Huddersfield Association.

War-Office, March 1812.

THE ANNUAL ARMY LIST for 1812, with an Index, is in course of publication, and may be had of T. Egerton, Military Library, Whitehall.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable House of Commons, of the 24th day of February 1812, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for an Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriar's Bridge; also for an act for building a new prison for debtors in and for the City of London and for the county of Middlesex, for discontinuing the confinement of debtors in the present prisons in London, called the Compters and Ludgate; and for converting Giltspur-Street Comptor and Ludgate into a house of correction for the said City; and also for an Act for enabling the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London to improve and grant building leases of the ground in Moorfields; also to sell all the ground comprised in such leases, when improved, and to employ the produce thereof towards increasing the Orphans' Fund.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.
