Published by Authority.

From Saturday, March 21, to Tuesday, March 24, 1812.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 20th of March 1812,

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twenty-eighth of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twelve, the importation into any port or place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provisions, in the manner and under the conditions therein mentioned; and whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 14, it is enacted, that an Act, made in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," which was continued by an Act of the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of His present Majesty, and amended and further continued by several subsequent Acts until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, be, and the same is thereby further continued during the continuance of the war, and until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of twelve months, to commence from the twenty-fifth day of this instant March, the importation into any port or place of Great Britain, of any beans, called kidney or French beans, tares, lentiles, calavancies, and all other sorts of pulse; and also of bulls, cows, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and swine; and of beef, pork, mutton, veal, and lamb (except salted beef and pork); and of bacon, hams, tongues, butter, cheese, potatoes, rice, sago, sago powder, tapioca, vermicelli, millet seed, poultry, fowls, eggs, gams, and sour crout, in any British ship or vessel, or in any other ship or vessel belonging to persons of any kingdom or state in amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any manner whatever, without payment of any duty whatsoever; provided that a due entry shall be made of all such articles as aforesaid that shall be imported, with the proper officers of the Customs at the port where the same shall be imported, under the penalties and forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chaituped.

At the Court at Carlton House, the 4th day of March 1812,

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers commercial houses in London and other parts of the United Kingdom, connected in trade with Spain, have been accustomed to have partners in their said houses resident in Spain, and that it is become more necessary in the present state of that country, that such partners should continue to reside there for the protection of the interests of their said houses, and for facilitating the commercial intercourse between the two countries; And whereas it may happen that places wherein such persons may be resident may have fallen, or may fall, under the possession and usurpation of France, and that in consequence thereof doubts may arise upon the national character of the said persons, to the prejudice of them and of their partners and houses of trade in any part of the United Kingdom:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that all persons, natives of Spain, being partners in any house of trade in any part of the United Kingdom, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of their respective houses, shall be considered as stranger friends, and shall in no case be treated as alien enemies; and that persons, being British subjects, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of any house of trade in which they are partners in any part of the United Kingdom, shall be considered, and are hereby declared to be so resident as aforesaid under His Majesty's licence, and without prejudice to their character of British subjects, or to any of the rights or privileges belonging thereto;

Provided that the names of all persons claiming the benefit of this Order shall, within six months from the date hereof, or from the time of their going henceforth to reside in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, be given in, together with the names of their respective houses of trade in the United Kingdom, and the usual place of their abode in Spain, or in any island as aforesaid dependent thereon, to the Clerk of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council: And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be of no effect for the benefit or protection of any person that shall not duly comply with the said provision.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appear.

Whitehall, March 17, 1812.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Sunday morning the 23d February last, the workshops of Mr. Joseph First, of Marsh, and Mr. James Balderstone, of Crosland, woollen-cloth-dressers, in the neighbourhood of Huddersfield, in the county of York, were broken into by a large number of armed people (with their persons disguised) who destroyed the frames and sheers of the dressing machines therein, and committed other damage to the premises; likewise early on Thursday morning the 27th of February, similar outrages were committed upon the premises of William Hinchliff, of Ley Moor; also on Friday morning the 6th instant, the same violent depredations were committed upon the premises of Samuel Swallow, John Swallow, William Colton, and John Sykes, in the township of Linfils; likewise on Thursday the 12th instant, similar atrocities were committed on the premises of Clement Dyson, of Dungeon Wood; George Roberts, of Crosland; and John Garnar, of Hontley, in the neighbourhood of Huddersfield;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by Mr. John Pease, Treasurer of the Huddersfield Association.

Whitehall, March 24, 1812.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous threatening letter, of which the following is a copy, has been received by Sir William Smith, Bart., one of the Commissioners acting in execution of the Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes and Property Duty, in the hundred of Doddingtree, in the county of Worcester, viz.

" Sir,

" This is calculated to convey to You some Idea of the dissatisfaction of numberless persons illegally surcharged in the Hundred of Doddingtree when You act as Commissioner. This to give You previous Notice that if surcharges are confirmed by You, and You act in Your self Interest'd Plan, as You in Particular have done, Your Premises if not yourself shall suffer, You and Your Commissioners have for many Years confirmed many Surcharges which are discharged in other Hundreds to oblige two Notorious bad Raskals, and the great saving of yourselves; This cannot be overlooked any longer without notice and some example made upon You which if You do not concur with shall be the Case.

" Sir William Smith Bart.

Cardistow, Worcester-shire."

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in writing and sending the said letter, is hereby pleased, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Matthew Winter, Secretary.

Whitehall, March 24, 1812.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Friday the 20th March instant, the warehouse of Mr. William Radcliffe, Cotton-Manufacturer, adjoining to his dwelling-house in the Higher Billgate, Stockport, in the county of Chester, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, who broke the windows thereof and threw in five flambeaus or torches, composed of pitch, tar, oakum, and spirits of wine, and some waste cops of cotton-wool which had been dipped in similar spirits.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said premises on fire) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. William Radcliffe to any person making such discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, upon application to J. Lloyd, Solicitor, Stockport.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT OF PAY AND HALF-PAY FOR NAVY CHAPLAINS.

Admiralty-Office, March 9, 1812.

THE Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased, by His Order in Council of the 4th instant, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to direct, that the following regulations, in respect to the half-pay or pension to be allowed to Chaplains of His Majesty's Fleet, after long and meritorious service, as well as the pay and allowances during the period of such servitude, shall be established in future, viz.

First.—" That every ship in His Majesty's Navy, from a first to a fifth rate inclusive, shall be allowed a Chaplain on her establishment."

Secondly.—" That every Chaplain after eight years of actual sea service, (or if in a guard-ship, ten years,) during which period he shall not have been absent from his duty six weeks at any one time; except by special leave from the Board of Admiralty, and who shall produce certificates of good conduct and moral behaviour from the Captains he may have served under, shall be entitled to a pension in the nature of half-pay; but no Chaplain to be entitled to half-pay or pension if he shall accept any preferment with cure of souls during the term of his required service at sea."

Thirdly.—" That the amount of this pension or half-pay to each Chaplain shall be five shillings per day."

Fourthly.—" That if in the event of a peace, or from other circumstances not depending on himself, a Chaplain shall not have been able to complete the full servitude of eight years, a pension may be conferred by the Board of Admiralty, according to a scale to be determined on, proportionate to the term of service; in no case, however, to be granted for less than three years service at sea."

Fifthly.—" That on the expiration of the period of eight (or ten) years, as the case may be, every Chaplain shall give notice in writing, whether it is his intention to continue to serve or not; in the first case, every year's additional service shall entitle him, when placed on the pension list, to receive at the rate of sixpence a day in addition to the pension which his eight (or ten) years servitude may have entitled him to, until the aggregate rate amounts to ten shillings a day, being the greatest pension which any length of service can transfer; in the second case, where no further service is intended, the pension shall remain at five shillings a day as above-mentioned."

Sixthly.—"That length of service and meritorious conduct shall render Chaplains eligible to all the Chaplaincies of all Naval establishments whatever, the disposal of which shall, or may be, left to the consideration of the Board of Admiralty; and that no other Clergyman shall be eligible to any of those pieces of preferment, than a Navy Chaplain; and that the presentation to any of those pieces of preferment, whose emoluments may amount to four hundred pounds per annum, shall cause the half-pay of the respective Chaplains to cease, as is provided by law in the case of the divided Living of Simonbourn."

Seventhly.—"That the pay of a Chaplain, while in actual service, shall be according to the following rate, viz.

"One hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and the established compensation of 11l. 8s. a year for a servant, in each rate, and to have a cabin allotted for him, in the ward-room, or gun-room, where he is to mess with the Lieutenants and to be rated for victuals: and when the Chaplain shall be willing to act as Schoolmaster, he shall be entitled to the bounty of twenty pounds a year, granted by her late Majesty Queen Anne, by her Order in Council, of the 21st April 1702, provided he shall pass an examination before the Lieutenant-Governor, Professor, and Preceptor of the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, instead of at the Trinity House, as required by the above-mentioned Order in Council; and he shall be further entitled to five pounds per annum, to be paid to him by every young Midshipman and Volunteer of the first class, as a remuneration for his education, the same to be stopped out of the said young Gentlemen's pay."

Eighthly.—"That a Chaplain-General shall be appointed, with such emoluments as may be deemed proper by the Board of Admiralty, to whom all applications for appointments shall be made, or will be referred, and all regulations entrusted, relating to the establishment of Chaplains for the Royal Navy, in the same manner as is practised with regard to Army Chaplains."

Ninthly.—"That no warrant will be granted by the Board of Admiralty, to any candidate for an appointment, unless recommended by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London, through the Chaplain-General, as in every way properly qualified."

Tenthly.—"That Chaplains now serving in the Navy, who may upon due examination be deemed proper to be continued; shall be allowed the time they may have served, as part (not exceeding one half) of that required to entitle them to the pension or half-pay."

By command of their Lordships,
J. W. CROKER.

N. B. The Rev. Archdeacon John Owen, has been appointed Chaplain-General to the Fleet, to whom all letters are to be addressed, under cover to the Secretary of the Admiralty.
