

This service, so laudably performed by all employed, has fortunately been attended with no other accident than one marine wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) G. G. WALDEGRAVE.

To Charles Adam, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Invincible.

Crown-Office, March 28, 1812.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Shire of Perth.

James Drummond, Esq; in the room of Lord James Murray, who hath accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

March 28, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners appointed under and by virtue of an Act passed in this session of Parliament, for the Care, Management, and Protection of His Majesty's Real and Personal Estate, have established their Office for carrying on the business of their Commission, in Sheet-Street, Windsor, whither all persons whom it may concern will resort, between the hours of Eleven and Two every day, except on Sundays.

By order of the Commissioners,

John Bott, Secretary.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgement of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

TABLE (B).

"A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid".

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine,
Brandy,	Geneva,	and other Spirits,

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have since been completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the vaults situate under warehouse number 4, Pennington-Street, on the north side of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, geneva, and other spirits.

Whitehall, March 24, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous threatening letter, of which the following is a copy, has been received by Sir William Smith, Bart., one of the Commissioners acting in execution of the Acts relating to the Assessed Taxes and Property Duty, in the hundred of Doddingtree, in the county of Worcester, viz.

" Sir,

" This is calculated to convey to You some Idea of the dissatisfaction of numberless persons illegally surcharged in the Hundred of Doddingtree wherein You act as Commissioner This to give You previous Notice that if surcharges are Confirmed by You, and You act in Your self Intress'd Plan, as You in Particular have done, Your Premises if not yourself shall suffer, You and Your Commissioners have for many Years confirmed many Surcharges which are discharged in other Hundreds to oblige two Notorious bad Raskals, and the great saving of yourselves; This cannot be overlooked any longer without notice and some example made upon You which if You do not concur with shall be the Case.

" Sir William Smith Bart.

Cardistow, Worcestershire."
