AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 4th day of March 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that divers commercial houses in London and other parts of the United Kingdom, connected in trade with Spain, have been accustomed to have partners in their said houses resident in Spain, and that it is become more necessary in the present state of that country, that such partners should continue to reside there for the protection of the interests of their said houses, and for facilitating the commercial intercourse between the two countries: And whereas it may happen that places wherein such persons may be resident may have fallen, or may fall, under the possession and usurpation of France, and that in consequence thereof doubts may arise upon the national character of the said persons, to the prejudice of them and of their partners and houses of trade in any part of the United Kingdom:

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that all persons, natives of Spain, being partners in any house of trade in any part of the United Kingdom, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of their respective houses, shall be considered as stranger friends, and shall in no case be treated as alien enemies; and that persons, being British subjects, and resident in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, for the purpose of transacting the business of any house of trade in which they are partners in any part of the United Kingdom, shall be considered, and are hereby declared to be so resident as aforesaid under His Majesty's licence, and without prejudice to their character of British subjects, or to any of the rights or privileges belonging thereto;

Provided that the names of all persons claiming the benefit of this Order shall, within six months from the date hereof, or from the time of their going henceforth to reside in Spain, or in any island in Europe dependent thereon, be given in, together with the names of their respective houses of trade in the United Kingdom, and the usual place of their abode in Spain, or in any island as aforesaid dependent thereon, to the Clerk of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council: And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be of no effect for the benefit or protection of any person that shall not duly comply with the said provision.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 20th of March 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by sundry Acts of Parliament, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twenty-eighth of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to allow, and did thereby allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twelve, the importation into any port or place of Great Britain, of certain articles of provisions, in the manner and under the conditions therein mentioned; and whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 14, it is enacted, that an Act, made in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation

" of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," which was continued by an Act of the thirty-ninth and fortieth years of His present Majesty, and amended and further continued by several subsequent Acts until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, be, and the same is thereby further continued during the continuance of the war, and until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of twelve months, to commence from the twenty-fifth day of this instant March, the importation into any port or place of Great Britain, of any beans, called kidney or French beans, tares, lentiles, calavancies, and all other sorts of pulse; and also of bulls, cows, oxen, calves, sheep, lambs, and swine; and of beef, pork, mutton, veal, and lamb (except salted beef and pork); and of bacon, hams, tongues, butter, cheese, potatoes, rice, sago, sago powder, tapioca, vermicelli, millet-seed, poultry, fowls, eggs, game, and snipe, in any British ship or vessel, or in any other ship or vessel belonging to persons of any kingdom or state in amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any manner whatever, without payment of any duty whatsoever; provided that a due entry shall be made of all such articles as aforesaid that shall be imported, with the proper officers of the Customs at the port where the same shall be imported, under the penalties and forfeitures mentioned and referred to in the said above-recited Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Heretors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Caithness.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Heretors, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Caithness, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with all dutiful respect, to offer the humble tribute of our thanks at the close of a very interesting period of your administration.

At a season of unexampled difficulty, and under circumstances of peculiar embarrassment, we have seen your Royal Highness invested with the exclusive government of this great empire; and in the discharge of the complicated duties which arose out of that situation, we have witnessed a display of eminent qualities, which call forth at once our admiration and gratitude.

Lamenting as we do, in common with all His Majesty's subjects, that afflicting calamity which has clouded the declining years of our beloved Sovereign, we are consoled by the many proofs which your Royal Highness has given of tender solicitude for His Majesty, as well as of an anxious concern for the public welfare; and although it might be presumptuous to hope, that any approbation of ours can add to that inward satisfaction which must arise from the consciousness of having so well performed all the duties of a prince and of a son, we cannot forbear giving expression to those feelings of respect and gratitude with which they have inspired us.

Be pleased then to accept the humble tribute of our grateful thanks, which is no less due to your Royal Highness for the firmness and steadiness with which the public interests have been maintained during your administration, than for that exemplary delicacy and filial affection which would be an ornament to any station in life, and is capable of adding lustre even to the character of a prince.

The agitation of a great religious question has very much attracted our attention, and we beg leave humbly to declare to your Royal Highness, that it is our anxious wish to open to our brethren of every denomination the full enjoyment of every privilege which may be found consistent with the fundamental principles of the British constitution; we trust, however, in your Royal Highness's care, that whatever concessions may be made to any class of our fellow-subjects in these countries, it may never be forgot that our government is, by the constitution, a Protestant one, and that nothing should be done to endanger that fundamental part of it.

We further beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the signal success that has attended His Majesty's arms by sea and land; and trust, that by a steady perseverance in those measures, which have raised the name of Britain high among the nations, an effectual barrier will be opposed to the further progress of the French arms on the Continent, and an instructive example held forth to the other nations of Europe, calculated to rouse them from that state of political apathy and degradation into which they have unhappily fallen.

Signed in our presence, and by our appointment, at Thurso, the 13th day of March 1812 years,
by Ja. Traill, Preses.

[Presented by Mr. Sinclair, Member for the county of Caithness, accompanied by the Right Honourable Sir John Sinclair.]

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any artificer in wool, iron, steel, brass, or other metal, clock-maker, watch-maker, or any other artificer of Great Britain, to go into foreign countries out of the King's dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon indictment or information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first offence, and shall be imprisoned three months, and till the fine be paid. And if any person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the discretion of the Court, and imprisoned twelve months, and till the fine be paid.

If any of the King's subjects, being such artificers, shall go into any country out of His Majesty's dominions, to exercise or teach the said trades to foreigners; and if any of the King's subjects in any such foreign country, exercising any of the said trades, shall not return into this realm within six months after warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the country where such artificers shall be, or by any person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this realm; such persons shall be incapable of taking any legacy, or of being an executor or administrator, or of taking any lands, &c. within this kingdom, by descent, devise, or purchase, and shall forfeit all lands, goods, &c. within this kingdom, to His Majesty's use, and shall be deemed alien, and out of His Majesty's protection.

One moiety of the forfeitures shall be applied to the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to the use of the person who shall sue for the same.
