

accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said College, and THREE HUNDRED POUNDS by the University of Cambridge, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders.

Whitehall, April 28, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about twelve o'clock in the evening of Wednesday the 15th instant, as George Whitehead, one of the Deputy Constables at Huddersfield, in the West Riding of the County of York, was going up stairs to bed, having a candle in his hand, a gun, or some other kind of fire arms, was fired off at him, the contents with which the same was loaded entered in at a window which lights the staircase, and passed near his body, and broke three squares of glass in the window; and the next morning was picked up in the said staircase, two lead pistol-balls, a piece of lead or solder, and a piece of bone, supposed to be the contents of such fire-arms.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired off the said fire-arms) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Committee at Huddersfield, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by Mr. John Pearce, Treasurer.

Transport-Office, April 8, 1812.

THE Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, for taking Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, do hereby give notice, that they will be ready at this Office, on Tuesday the 12th of May 1812, to receive sealed tenders, and treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Victualling Prisoners of War in Health at Stapleton, near Bristol; and Prisoners of War in Health and Sickness at Valleyfield in North Britain, for six months certain from the 1st July 1812.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, personally attend. Each tender must be accompanied by a letter from two respectable persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of 2000*l.* for the due performance of the contract.

Farther particulars may be known by applying at this Office; or to Captain Malbon, Stapleton, and Captain Moriarty, Valleyfield.

Alex. M'Leay, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, April 20, 1812.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 8th day of May next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of Various articles, termed "Petty Emptionary,"

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable at the expiration of one year at the option of either party.

Separate tenders will be considered for any part or share of the articles specified in the list; patterns and samples of which may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and the list, and all further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be obtained at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Petty Emptionary Articles;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 8th day of May, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.
