Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 9, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Friday next the 15th instant, at two o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 9, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's, on Thursday next the 14th instant.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th of April 1812,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented, that there is no longer any necessity for continuing the quarantine, which was laid by Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ten, on all ships and vessels coming directly or circuitously from, or having touched at, the Havannah, or any other port in the Island of Cubas; it is therefore ordered, that the said Order in Council, of the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ten, be, and the same is hereby, revoked: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, May 12, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, was received on Sunday evening at the Earl of Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by General the Earl of Wellington, dated Alfayates, April 24, 1812.

Alfayates, April 24, 1812.

THE army continued its march towards this quarter since I last addressed you, and the enemy retired before them.

The last of the enemy crossed the Agueda yesterday morning, and they are in full retreat towards the Tormes.

The rains which had fallen between the 13th and 19th inst. had carried away the bridge which they had constructed on the Agueda, immediately above Ciudad Rodrigo; but they have repaired it within these last three days, and the leading divisions of the army crossed by the Puente d'el Villar and the fords of the Upper Agueda; the rear only by the bridge near Ciudad Rodrigo.

When Marshal Marmont marched his troops upon Sabugal, General Bacellar ordered that the Portuguese militia, under Brigadier-Generals Trant and Wilson, should be concentrated upon Guarda.

Marshal Marmont moved upon this militia with a considerable force of cavalry, infantry, and artillery, on the 14th instant; and Brigadier-General Trant, who commanded, conceiving the enemy to be too strong for him, determined to retire across the Mondego.

The militia had made great progress in their retreat; but a battalion, which was covering retreat, having been ordered to fire upon the enemy's cavalry, and the rain having prevented their pieces from going off, broke, and threw the retreating troops into disorder; and the enemy took about one hundred and fifty prisoners.

The troops were formed again, however, on the left of the Mondego, and retired upon Celorico; General Bacellar keeping the advanced posts under Brigadier-General Wilson at Lagiosa. On the following morning, the 15th, the enemy advanced in considerable force, and drove in Brigadier-General Wilson's out posts at Lagiosa.

The enemy retired from Lagiosa in the course of the night of the 15th, and from Guarda on the 16th, which town was occupied on the 17th by the troops under the command of Brigadier-General Wilson.

Your Lordship will be happy to learn, that the officers of the militia behaved remarkably well. It appears to me, that Brigadier-General Trant and Brigadier-General Wilson did every thing they ought to have done.

The partial success over the Portuguese militia on their retreat from Guarda, and the murder and plunder of the inhabitants of a few villages in Lower Beira, already suffering from the enemy's former depredations, are the only fruits of Marshal Marmont's expedition within the Portuguese frontier, to divert our attention from the siege of Badajoz.

While the troops belonging to the army of Portugal have been collected for this service, I learn from General Castanos that General Abadia had ordered the Spanish troops in the Asturias to move into Leon; where Brigadier Moreno had had some partial success against a French detachment at Otero de las Duenas. Don Julian Sanchez likewise, who has continued with his cavalry in Castile, has been very successful on the enemy's communications and against their convoys.

By accounts from the South I learn, that neither the Conde de Penne Villemur nor General Ballasteros entered Seville, while Marshal Soult was in Estremadura, in the commencement of this month.

The Conde de Penne Villemur is now on his return into Estremadura, with the troops of the 5th army.

General Drouet is at Fuente Ovejuna, in Cordova, with the troops under his command; and Marshal Soult at Seville, according to the last accounts of the 21st instant, which I have received from Lieutenant-General Sir Rowland Hill.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, May 12, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been received this morning at the Earl of Liverpool's Office, addressed to his Lordship by General the Earl of Wellington, dated Fuente Guinaldo, April 29, 1812.

Fuente Guinaldo, April 29, 1812.

THE enemy have continued their retreat since I addressed your Lordship on the 24th instant.

No movement has been made to the south. General Drouet was still, by the last accounts, at Fuente de Ovejuna, in Cordova.

The Conde de Penne Villemur has returned into Estremadura with the troops under his command.

Carlton-House, April 28, 1812.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, Common Council and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Royal Highness the Prince Regent at Carlton-House, with the following Address and Petition, which was read by John Silvester, Esq; the Recorder :

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness dutifully to represent our deep sense of the difficulties and dangers impending over the country, and anxiously to invite your beneficent attention to the complaints and grievances of your afflicted but faithful subjects.

Fourteen months have elapsed since your Royal Highness acceded to the regency of these kingdoms, at which time we felt it our duty to submit to you a statement of abuses which had taken root in the various departments of the government, the speedy correction and removal of which we deemed essential to the prosperity and safety of the empire; and we now again present ourselves before your Royal Highness to express our unfeigned sorrow, that, during this interval, no efficient measures have been adopted by your Ministers calculated to satisfy the wishes and wants of your people; but that, on the contrary, the same mal-practices, and the same false principles of government have been tenaciously pursued and enforced, thereby adding contumely to injury, and extinguishing the spring of public energy in a free nation. We have continued to witness the same system of profligacy in the expenditure of the public money,—the same system of governing by undue influence and corruption,—the same system of delusion in regard to the circulating medium and finances of the country,—the same system of arbitrary and grievous assessment and collection of the taxes, by which industry is thwarted, and liberty violated,—the same system of introducing into the heart of the country foreign troops,—the same system of persecuting the press, by which the value of free discussion on national topics is lost to prince and people,—and, finally, the same system of coercive restrictions on the freedom of commerce, by which many of our merchants and manufacturers have been involved in ruin, and flourishing districts reduced to beggary.

As faithful and loyal subjects, and as the representatives of the first city in your empire, we feel the deepest affliction in being thus compelled to reiterate this enumeration of the malpractices and mistaken principles of your Ministers; we should, however, compromise that sense of public duty, and that character of frankness which appertain to us as freemen and Britons were we to disguise the truth and forbear to express our conviction, that your confidential advisers have plunged this great and once flourishing empire into an abyss, from which we can be rescued only by radical reforms, and a total change in our domestic government and foreign policy.

In a crisis, therefore, which involves the destiny of the greatest empire of these or past times; of an empire which is blessed by Providence with unequalled natural advantages, and which possesses a people that in all ages have bravely secured their prosperity on the solid basis of public liberty, we feel that we should justly merit the reproaches of our country and posterity, if at such a crisis we were to refrain from laying before your Royal Highness a faithful representation of the public grievances, and expressing our painful apprehensions for the welfare and the very existence of the nation; we, therefore pray, that your Royal Highness will be graciously pleased to dismiss from your councils those Ministers who have proved themselves so undeserving of the confidence of your people, and call to the administration of the government men of public character and patriotic principles, whose enlarged and liberal policy is suited to the enlightened character of the nation, whose wisdom and energy would prove equal to the exigencies of the times, whose inclination would lead them to secure the affections of the people, and whose public spirit would stimulate them to effect these reforms in the Commons House of Parliament, and in the various branches of the state; which, at this perilous crisis, are absolutely necessary to the restoration of national prosperity, and not less essential to the honour and true interests of the crown, than to the security and true glory of the empire.

Signed by order of Court,

HENRY WOODTHORPE.

To which Address and Petition His Royal Highness was graciously pleased to return the following answer :

IT must always be My Inclination to listen with attention to the petitions of any part of His Majesty's subjects.

For the redress of any grievances of which they can reasonably complain, I have full confidence in the wisdom of parliament, the great council of the nation.

Being firmly of opinion that the total change in the domestic government and foreign policy of the country, which it is the declared object of your petition to accomplish, would only serve to increase the dangers against which we have to contend; I should be wanting to Myself, and to the great interests committed to My charge, if I did not steadily persevere in those endeavours which appear to me best calculated to support the just rights of the nation abroad, and to preserve inviolate the constitution at home.

These endeavours can only be attended with success when seconded by the zeal and loyalty of His Majesty's people, upon which I shall continue to place the strongest reliance.

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the Prince Regent's hand.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, in Court of D'Oyer Hundred assembled, the 24th Day of April 1812.

WHILE we deeply deplore the severe and protracted malady which has deprived the United Kingdom of the parental care of our revered sovereign, we take this occasion to express the heartfelt consolation we derive from having the rule of the empire devolve on a prince so eminently qualified to succeed such a good and gracious king.

When, amidst the wreck of surrounding nations, we contemplate the proud pre-eminence of Great Britain and Ireland, and reflect on the perfect exemption they enjoy from those ills with which the ruthless hand of desolation has visited the rest of Europe, we hesitate not to ascribe it, under the protecting and stretched out arm of the Almighty, to the mild sway of the house of Hanover, and to our glorious constitution, which, as it ever has been the pride of your illustrious line to uphold, we have a firm hope, that, under the auspices of your Royal Highness, it will still continue unimpaired.

We cannot omit this opportunity of congratulating your Royal Highness on the brilliant achievements of His Majesty's arms, during the short space of your administration; in the East, the enemy has been deprived of the last of his colonies by His Majesty's forces, led on by that gallant officer Sir Samuel Achmuty; in the Peninsula under the direction of our renowned countryman the Earl of Wellington, the enemy's projects have been baffled, his ablest generals discomfited, and his insolent boastings reduced to envious invective; nor do we think we mention a subject less grateful to your royal breast, when we notice the perfect tranquillity that pervades this part of the United Kingdom, a state which has been in a great degree promoted by the firm yet humane conduct of the Duke of Richmond.

Aware of the many privations we must suffer in the arduous and necessary contest we are engaged, we do not repine; but, on the contrary, are truly grateful for the many blessings and comforts we enjoy, and confidently anticipate a continuance of them under the guidance of your Royal Highness, who, disclaiming all prejudices and partialities, has declared that the public good should alone be the object of your government; and we cannot doubt but these your patriotic resolutions will meet with zealous support from every honest heart amongst a free and loyal people.

Done under the Corporate Seal of the City of Cork.

Thomas Dorman, Mayor.

[Presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the undersigned Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Traders, and others, inhabitants of the Borough of Liverpool, beg leave to approach your

No. 16602.

Royal Highness with the strongest assurances of attachment to your person, and of our unalterable resolution to support your government.

While we deeply lament the indisposition of a sovereign who has for so many years found the hearts of his people the firmest supporters of his throne, we cannot but congratulate ourselves and our fellow-subjects on seeing the government of the empire entrusted to a prince who acts upon the patriotic principles of his father, uninfluenced either by the clamours of faction or misrepresentation of party.

Most sincerely do we congratulate your Royal Highness on the numerous and splendid successes which have distinguished the short period of the Regency, and more particularly on the recent brilliant achievement which stands unrivalled in the military annals of this country, and which carries conviction to the neighbouring nations, that nothing is impracticable to free-born subjects of the British empire, animated by a spirit of loyalty to their King and attachment to their Country.

Whilst we lament the difficulties which owing to the peculiar circumstances of the war, have pressed upon all commercial and manufacturing districts, we deprecate the idea of attempting to dictate to the wisdom of parliament, feeling as we do the strongest confidence, that his Majesty's government, under the guidance of your Royal Highness, will conduct us through the arduous contest in which we are engaged to the blessings of peace, whenever peace can be obtained on terms at once honourable and permanent.

John Bourne, Mayor.

[Presented by Lieutenant-General Gascoyne, M. P. for Liverpool.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most profound respect, and to express our high sense of that unbiassed rectitude of mind and steady attention to the public good which, under circumstances of unprecedented delicacy and difficulty, have marked your Royal Highness's conduct.

While with unfeigned grief we lament the calamity which oppresses the declining age of our beloved Sovereign, that grief is softened by the consoling reflection, that from your Royal Highness those sufferings have received every alleviation which filial affection could suggest, or filial duty could supply.

And while we thus venture to add our feeble testimony to the general voice of the nation, in applauding those virtues which have so eminently distinguished your Royal Highness in the discharge of the painful duties to which you have been called as a prince and as a son, permit us also to offer the humble tribute of our admiration of that dignified perseverance with which your Royal Highness has sustained the arduous contest in which the nation is engaged—a contest not only for the safety and honour and independence of the united kingdom, but in which are involved the interests of the whole civilized world. That your Royal Highness's wisdom and firmness may, by the assistance of the Divine Protection, be enabled to bring this contest to a happy conclusion, and to transmit unimpaired to the remotest posterity the invaluable blessings of true religion and civil liberty, which we enjoy under the protection of our venerable constitution, must be the earnest hope and prayer of the entire nation entrusted to your Royal Highness's government, but of no part of it more fervently than of the body to which we belong, so peculiarly attached to that constitution from the objects of our foundation, and the constant pursuits of our lives.

For the favours conferred on the individual Members of our Society whom your Royal Highness's condescending goodness has relieved from a painful restraint, we beg leave, with all humility, to offer our most grateful acknowledgments: we feel it a distinction the most gratifying as it is the most honourable, that the conduct of the existing Members of our Body has been deemed not undeserving of your Royal Highness's gracious approbation; and we venture with all deference to express a confident hope, that unremitted attention to academic discipline, and a zealous performance of every collegiate duty, will evince, that the indulgence thus graciously vouchsafed by your Royal Highness, is favourable to the interests of learning, of virtue, and of religion in our University.

[Presented by the Provost.]

Humble Address to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Berwick, assembled at our annual meeting on the 30th April 1812, humbly approach your Royal Highness with expressions of the sincerest condolence on the unexpected continuance of the indisposition with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit our beloved Sovereign; an event most afflicting to your Royal Highness, and to a loyal and grateful people.

Whilst, in common with our fellow-subjects, we deplore this heavy calamity, we beg to express to your Royal Highness the heartfelt satisfaction we derive from observing that your Royal Highness is disposed to adhere to the same principles of government which actuated our revered Sovereign, by steadily supporting the constitution both in church and state, as established at the revolution. It is with additional satisfaction we observe that your Royal Highness will, in conjunction with the two Houses of Parliament, attend to the interest and security of the Protestant Church, on the preservation of which the preservation of our invaluable constitution so materially depends.

We observe with pleasure, that your Royal Highness is resolved to continue your assistance to our allies, in the arduous and glorious contest, in which they and we are engaged, in support of all that is dear to freedom.

We beg to congratulate your Royal Highness on the brilliant success of His Majesty's arms, under your auspices. And to assure your Royal Highness of our earnest zeal, in the support of your Royal Highness's government; and of our utmost endeavour to do whatever may be in our power, in aid of the patriotic conduct which your Royal Highness has constantly evinced, since you have administered the government on the behalf of His Majesty.

That your Royal Highness may long enjoy health, happiness, and the satisfaction arising from the thanks of a grateful people, is our most earnest prayer.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment,
Home, Preses.

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of the county of Edinburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply, of the county of Edinburgh, humbly approach your Royal Highness to express our sentiments of firm attachment to your person, and our entire confidence in the wisdom of those measures which your Royal Highness has adopted for the government of the empire.

Most heartily deploring the continuance of that unfortunate malady with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit our venerable and beloved Sovereign; participating with your Royal Highness in the affliction which that great calamity has universally excited; and cordially uniting with your Royal Highness in earnest wishes for His Majesty's restoration to the prayers of his people, we feel it to be our duty to offer our grateful acknowledgments to your Royal Highness, for the security and happiness enjoyed by the nation during the first year of your regency.

When we contemplate the circumstances of extreme delicacy under which your Royal Highness was called upon to exercise the powers of government, we cannot but admire the becoming dignity and moderation which has adorned your conduct, while at the same time you upheld the national honour, supported the cause of His Majesty's allies, and maintained with vigour the eventful contest in which the country is engaged. We further congratulate your Royal Highness on those recent achievements which, adding fresh laurels to what have been already gained, bear splendid testimony that at no period of our history has the skill of our generals, or the valour of our armies, acquired a higher degree of renown.

The measures adopted by your Royal Highness since you assumed the unrestricted reins of government, evince in the strongest manner that your Royal Highness is guided by the purest principles of the British constitution; and on our part we feel it to be our duty firmly to express our entire confidence in the wisdom of your councils, and our deter-ruined resolution to support your government to the utmost of our power. We remain His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects.

Signed in our name, and by our authority, at Edinburgh, the 30th day of April 1812 years.
Wm. Rae, Preses.

Admiralty-Office, May 12, 1812.

VICE-ADMIRAL SIR EDWARD PELLEW has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq; a letter from Captain Buck, of His Majesty's ship Franchise, giving an account of his having, on the 24th of February, driven on shore and burnt, in the bay of Cagliari, L'Aventurier French privateer, pierced for fourteen guns, but only three mounted, and manned with sixty men; out twenty-six days from Marseilles without making any capture.

Admiralty-Office, May 12, 1812.

REAR-ADMIRAL FOLEY has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq; a letter from Lieutenant Morris, commanding the Pioneer schooner, reporting the capture, on the 9th instant, by that vessel and the Decoy cutter, of the Infatigable French lugger privateer, of twenty-nine men; six hours out of Boulogne without making any capture. Her commander was killed, and nine men severely wounded, before she struck.

Whitehall, May 12, 1812.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Smith, of Preston, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Crown-Office, May 12, 1812.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Launceston.

Jonathan Raine, of Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, Esq; in the room of Richard Henry Alexander Bennet, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Whitehall, April 28, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about twelve o'clock in the evening of Wednesday the 15th instant, as George Whitehead, one of the Deputy Constables at Huddersfield, in the West Riding of the County of York, was going up stairs to bed, having a candle in his hand, a gun, or some other kind of fire arms, was fired off at him, the contents with which the same was loaded entered in at a window which lights the staircase, and passed near his body, and broke three squares of glass in the window; and the next morning was picked up in the said staircase, two lead pistol-balls, a piece of lead or solder, and a piece of bone, supposed to be the contents of such fire-arms.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired off the said fire-arms) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Committee at Huddersfield, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders, by Mr. John Pearce, Treasurer.

Whitehall, May 1, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; that on the night of Thursday the 23d of April last, about nine o'clock, as Isaac Raynor, of Linthwaite, in the West Riding of the county of York, was returning home from Milnsbridge in the said Riding, in an inclosure called Rycroft Edge, he saw three or more people near the road, and upon his going towards them, one of them presented a gun or other fire-arms, and discharged the contents thereof at him, that he heard something whistle past him, and upon getting home found that a ball or some such substance had passed through his hat;

His Royal Highness for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired off the said gun or fire-arms) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by Joseph Radcliffe, Esq; of Milnsbridge House.

Whitehall, May 1, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on Tuesday evening the 28th of April last, between the hours of six and seven o'clock, Mr. William Horsfall, of Marsden, near Huddersfield, in the county of York, cloth-merchant, was shot at, as he was returning from Huddersfield market, by some one or more of four villains, who were seen lurking behind a wall in the plantation of Joseph Radcliffe, Esq; on Crosland Moor, and four slugs entered his body; since which the said Mr. Horsfall has died of the wounds he received;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired at the said Mr. Horsfall) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by Mr. John Peace, of Huddersfield.

Whitehall, May 1, 1812.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that as Mr. William Tronham was knocking at his house-door, in St. Mary's Church-Yard, in the town of Nottingham, on Monday evening last, the 27th of April, about a quarter past ten o'clock, two men (whom he saw standing very near) stepped up to him; and one of them instantly, and without a word being uttered, shot him through the breast with a large horse pistol;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired off the said pistol) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

R. RYDER.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person who will give such information as shall

Marshal's Office;

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation:

By authority obtained from His Excellency Robert Gt., Governor-General in and over the Colony of Barbice and its Dependencies, Vice-Admiral and President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. granted upon a petition presented by Douglas, Reid, and Co. inhabitants of this colony, under date of 10th October 1811, versus Murdoch Dallas, proprietor of plantation Letterkenny, situated on the Correntine Coast of this colony:

I, the undersigned First Marshal of both the Honorable Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell at public execution sale, in presence of two Councillors' Commissioners, and their Secretary, in the month of December 1812 (the precise day hereafter to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony), the above-mentioned cotton-plantation called Letterkenny, the property of said M. Dallas, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory thereof, now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those whom it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the before-mentioned estate or cotton-plantation called Letterkenny, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring their reasons for such opposition in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this colony, and further dealt with according to style and custom in such cases.—Barbice, the 26th January 1812.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WILKES by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 6th day of May 1809, made in a Cause wherein William Taylor, Esq. and others are plaintiffs, and Edmund Waters and others are defendants, it was referred to John Saxon, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of the arrears due to the several debenture holders under a deed of the 19th day of June 1796.
