From Saturday, June 6, to Tuesday, June 9, 1812.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 8, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Friday next the 12th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, assembled in Court of Doyer Hundred, the 26th day of May 1812.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Cork, assembled in Court of Doyer Hundred, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the assurance of our unfeigned respect for your Royal Highness's person and government, and to offer to you our sincere condolence on the melancholy event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a faithful, zealous, and enlightened servant, and the country of a virtuous and upright minister.

In the assassination of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, we contemplate with the deepest sorrow and the utmost indignation and horror, a crime to which the unoffending excellence of his public and private life could have given no incitement; but we derive some consolation in reflecting, that it was the atrocious act of a solitary and infatuated assassin, unconnected with party, unassisted by accomplices; and when the page of our history shall be sullied by the record of this deed, it will be told, that the tears of an indignant people had obliterated the disgrace from their country, and that its infamy extended not beyond the desperate individual, who, in an evil hour, deprived society of one of its brightest ornaments.

In the opportunity which this calamity has offered to us of addressing your Royal Highness, we presume to repeat those assurances of unshaken attachment to our venerable and beloved Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness, which we have so recently given to you; and in the sorrow of our hearts, and the solemnity of the occasion, we implore for our country, in this time of unexampled pressure, the protection of that Being who rules the destiny of nations, and we humbly supplicate that, in His gracious providence, he may shield your royal person, direct your councils, strengthen your government, and overcome your enemies.

Done under the common seal of the City of Cork, the 26th day of May, in the year 1812, Thos. Dorman, Mayor.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and unanimous Address and Condolence of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough and Foreign of Walsall, in the County of Stafford.

WE humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere and heartfelt condolence, and to express our horror and detestation on account of the atrocious and unparalleled assassination of the late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, within the walls of the Honourable House of Commons.

Deeply regretting the embarrassment thus occasioned in the public councils, we wish at the same time to express our satisfaction at the promptitude of your Royal Highness, in making provision for the widow and numerous family of your late much-lamented Minister, who feel a sacrifice to the conscientious discharge of his public duty.

And whilst we declare to your Royal Highness our indignation and regret at the horrid murder of a statesman, universally beloved on account of his private virtues, and respected for his abilities, public disinterestedness, and unceasing attention to his high and important duties, we beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness, that the most strict enquiry has fully proved, that the base assassin was totally unconnected with any of those deluded and disloyal persons, who are now fomenting civil discord in various parts of this kingdom.

With the most perfect reliance on the wisdom of your Royal Highness, in restoring energy and efficiency to the national councils, we pray that your Royal Highness may rule many years over a loyal and affectionate people.

[Transmitted by N. G. Clarke, Esq. Recorder of Walsall, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address and Condolence of the Magistrates, Clergymen, and Freeholders of the County of Monaghan, in that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE, the Magistrates, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monaghan, in that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, with the most unfeigned sorrow, humbly beg leave to address your Royal Highness upon the truly melancholy and untimely death of the late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury and Chancellor of the Exchequer; and to condole with your Royal Highness, and the nation at large, upon the loss of a man gifted with so many public and private virtues.

We feel that we should be wanting to ourselves, and unmindful of those great moral obligations which uphold society, did we not express in the most public manner our abhorrence of so foul and unparalleled a murder; nor can we contemplate the fatal event without horror and detestation.

We beg permission at this alarming period to assure your Royal Highness of our steady loyalty, and sincere attachment to your royalhouse and person, and our firm determination to support, by every means in our power, the laws and constitution of these realms.

Charles Evatt, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Vicar, Churchwardens, and Vestrymen of the Parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the City and Liberty of Westminster, and County of Middlesex, in Vestry assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the dutiful and loyal subjects of His Majesty, the Vicar, Churchwardens, and Vestrymen of the parish of Saint Martin in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex, in Vestry assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness the Prince Regent of this realm, with our most sincere condolence on the death of one of the first servants of His Majesty's government, the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Lord of His Majesty's Treasury and Chancellor of the Exchequer, who was lately murdered by the hand of a base assassin, at his entry into the Commons' House of Parliament; we cannot but feel and express our detestation and abhorrence of so monstrous a crime, by which His Majesty has lost so valuable a servant, and the nation so illustrious and beneficent a character.

In this happy country the crime of assassination is so little known, that every virtuous and honourable mind is struck with horror at the event; and the principal source of consolation under so unforeseen and unnatural a circumstance is derived from a conviction, that it was the act of one solitary individual, under the impression of mistaken anger and revenge, and not in concert or in combination with any other of His Majesty's subjects.

At the same time that we feel ourselves called upon to express our sincere condolence with your Royal Highness on this disastrous and distressing subject, we cannot omit the opportunity of offering to your Royal Highness the strongest assurances of our most perfect attachment to your Royal Highness's person, and to His Majesty's government, which, under an event we all of us deplore, is now so wisely deposited in your Royal Highness's hands.

At the unanimous desire of the Vestry,

(Signed) Anth. Hamilton, Chairman, &c.

[Transmitted by Anthony Hamilton, Esq. and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled, beg to offer to your Royal Highness our condolence on the loss of the late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, a loss great in itself, as we conceive, to this country, to your Royal Highness, and to the state; but, infinitely aggravated by the mode in which his death has been produced. We lament, as Englishmen, and as subjects of the British empire, feeling warmly for the national character, that so foul and so flagitious an assassination should have been committed even by a solitary individual; and we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that we shall be ready, on every occasion, to demonstrate our profound respect for your Royal Highness, our attachment to the constitution, and our readiness to make every just sacrifice, demanded by the exigencies of the times and of the state, while engaged in the prosecution of a war such as the present, against the inveterate enemy of Great Britain.

Given under the common seal of this Corporation, this 2d day of June 1812.

[Transmitted by Lord Sandwich, as Recorder, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE humbly presume to approach your Royal Highness, to express the heartfelt grief with which we deplore the death of your Royal Highness's faithful and confidential servant, the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, and the horror and indignation we feel at the atrocious act, which has deprived the country of a man of such exalted talents and virtues, aggravated (if such a crime admit of aggravation) by having been perpetrated when he was engaged in the discharge of his parliamentary duty.

Amidst the universal gloom which this melancholy event has spread through the country, we derive a ray of consolation from the proof afforded at his trial, that this horrid deed flowed from the malignant revenge of the assassin, in nowise connected with any persons disaffected towards your Royal Highness's person and government.

Permit us also, Royal Sir, to express our grateful sense of the prompt and ample provision which, in obedience to your Royal Highness's most gracious recommendation, Parliament has made for the disconsolate widow and children of a man so highly distinguished by his public and private virtues, and who, during an arduous administration, had many political opponents without a personal enemy.

Given under our common seal, the 26th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1812.

George Schonswar, Mayor.

[Transmitted by John Staniforth, Esq. M. P. for Kingston-upon-Hull, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with every sentiment of respect and faithful attachment, to express those feelings of horror and indignation with which we are penetrated at the recent unparalleled and most atrocious assassination of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer; and humbly to assure your Royal Highness of our warmest sympathy and sincere condolence on an event, by which you have been deprived of a minister of consummate worth and ability, and the country of a statesman, whose loss, in any circumstances, must have been severely felt, but in the present most important crisis, in every point of view, is to be deplored as a great national calamity. Yet, while we lament this melancholy and awful dispensation of Providence, we feel a degree of satisfaction in reflecting, that a deed so peculiarly abhorrent, appears to be the act of an individual assassin, and that the national character will not be sullied from the perpetration of a crime hitherto unexampled in this happy country, and every way foreign to the genuine disposition and honourable feeling of the British people.

Reposing the highest confidence in your Royal Highness, we look forward in the firm persuasion of your persevering in those measures which have distinguished your government with the most brilliant and important successes, and encircled the British name with additional lustre and glory; and we trust, that through the firm and determined exertions of your Royal Highness's government, in conjunction with the good sense of the country, the insidious and wicked attempts of desperate incendiaries, who, under pretence of grievances never known, and privations but partially felt, are continuing to spread the flames of anarchy and riot in several parts of the kingdom, the national tranquillity may speedily be restored; and that ultimately, through the blessing of Providence, your Royal Highness's endeavours for the re-establishment of peace, on solid and honourable principles, may be crowned with success, which, we are convinced, can only be attained by a vigorous prosecution of a just and necessary war in which the country is unhappily, though unavoidably, engaged.

Signed in our name, by our appointment, and in our presence, and the seal of the said Burgh hereunto affixed, this 18th day of May 1812 years.
D. Wilson, Provost.

[Transmitted by General Campbell M. P. for the Burghs of Dunfermline, &c. &c. and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness GEORGE PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Greenock.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council, in common Council assembled, beg leave to present ourselves to your Royal Highness with the most profound respect.

When on the 14th day of February 1811, we took the liberty to convey our sentiments of respect and attachment to your Royal Highness, on the important office of Regent being committed to you, and the grateful emotions, which thence arose in our minds, we had also the painful duty to perform of offering with all humility to your Royal Highness, our sincerest sympathy on the illness of our revered Sovereign; the continuance of which, under the divine dispensation, we, from our hearts deeply deplore; we now presume to come before your Royal Highness in the most genuine affliction, on the recent assassination of your First Minister: An event so much beyond the possible contemplation of British feeling, that we were alike paralyzed by the audaciousness of its enormity, and shocked at its fatal success.

It has justly excited an universal and lively abhorrence, most honourable to the nation, and we are sensible cannot have been more poignantly felt, than in the humane breast of your Royal Highness.

While we unaffectedly condole with your Royal Highness on so melancholy and painful an occasion, we would desire to mark with our highest value, and to cherish in the fondest remembrance, the virtues which so eminently distinguished the late Mr. Perceval, and which give so peculiar an interest to his premature and lamented end.

Permit us to express to your Royal Highness our unchanged veneration for our constitution and our laws, and to avow our undiminished regard for your illustrious family.

Signed by the Chief Magistrate, in our name, and by our appointment, and sealed with the Corporation seal this 26th day of May in the year of our Lord 1812. Hugh Crawford.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable N. Vansittart, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Reading, June 4, 1812.

Whereas John Grover, of Reading, in the County of Berks, Wagoner, and Henry Grover, late of the same place, Victualler, Copartners, did by Indenture, dated the 9th day of January 1811, assign their estate and effects, therein described, unto John Spencer Jackson, of Reading aforesaid, Brandy-Merchant; James Farrow, of Reading aforesaid, Butcher; and William Bartholomew, of Reading aforesaid, Mealmen; in trust for themselves and all other the Creditors of the said John Grover and Henry Grover, who should execute the said Indenture, and substantiate their respective debts by affidavit, in manner therein mentioned; and whereas the said Trustees having paid a dividend of 10s. in the pound to the respective Creditors of the said John Grover and Henry Grover, and being desirous of making a second and final Dividend of the said estate and effects, do hereby give notice, that all persons having any claims or demands on the estate and effects of the said John Grover and Henry Grover must deliver or send a particular thereof to Messrs. Blandy and Saunders, Solicitors, Reading, and prove the same, (if required by the Trustees), on or before the 10th day of July next, when the accounts of the said Trustees will be finally settled and adjusted, or they will be excluded all benefit under or by virtue of the trust of the said Indenture of Assignment; and all claims already sent in and not then proved will be disallowed.

By His Excellency Major-General
Fitzroy J. Grafton Maclean, Lieutenant-Governor, Commander in Chief in and over the Islands of Saint Thomas and Saint John's, and their Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c. &c. &c.

F. J. G. MACLEAN.

(L. S.)

BY virtue of the authority in me vested, and in conformity with an ordinance of 23d May, and an edict of the 12th August 1800, I do hereby make known that, in compliance with a petition delivered in, I have permitted and granted that Messrs. S. H. C. Stakemann, C. D. Eckard, and G. H. Peneke, as Executors to the will of the deceased J. J. Faudel, Esq. may summon, by proclama, sub pœna preclusi et perpetui silentii, all the known and unknown Creditors of the deceased J. J. Faudel, Esq. and of the firm Faudel and Stakemann, residing in European or American territories, to come forward with their demands, and to enter and prove their claims, in person, or by their Attornies, before the said Executors, previous to the expiration of the period hereinafter limited, that is to say, within one year and six weeks from the period when this proclama shall have been recorded in the Upper Courts of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and published three times consecutively in the London Gazette; and all such known or unknown Creditors as reside in any of the West India islands or colonies, shall come forward with their claims, in person or by their attornies, before the said Executors, within three months from the date of this proclama being recorded in the Superior and Inferior Courts of the islands of St. Croix, St. Thomas, and St. John, and notice thereof being published in the St. Croix and St. Thomas Gazettes three times consecutively; and the aforesaid Executors shall further be bound to cause this grant to be produced in the Royal and the Loan Commissions Book-keeper's Offices to the said islands, and procure a certificate of this being complied with; in failure of which, this proclama shall not be valid against any claims or prerogatives of His Majesty; and all persons concerned are to take notice thereof, and to conduct themselves accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal, Government House, Saint Thomas, the 8th of April 1812.

By His Excellency's command,
(Signed) C. G. FLEISCHER, Secretary to Government.

In conformity with the foregoing permission, and the notice therein stipulated, all and every one who suppose to have any claim against the estate of J. J. Faudel, deceased, or the late firm of Faudel and Stakemann, are summoned, sub pœna preclusi et perpetui silentii, to come forward with their demands, and prove the same before the undersigned Executors, in the course of the time above expressed.—The sessions in the said dealing will be held in the store No. 35 A, Queen-Street, every second and fourth Munday, between Ten and Twelve o'Clock, A. M. until this proclama, as far as it relates to the West India islands, will expire; after which period, they will be held every first Munday only at the subse- months, in the same place and at the same time.—St. Thomas, 15th April 1812.

(Signed) S. H. C. STAKEMANN, C. D. ECKARD,
G. H. PENEKE, Executors to the deceased J. J. Faudel.
