

Four hundred Acre Common, in the county of Northampton, and for forming the same into a parish, to be called Newborough; and for building and endowing a church for such parish.

An Act for forming into townships certain extra-parochial lands in Wildmore Fen, and in the West and East Fens, in the county of Lincoln.

An Act for embanking the Hundred Feet Washes in the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level.

An Act for enabling the Highgate Archway Company to raise a further sum of money to complete their works.

An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for erecting a bridge across the River Thames, near Vauxhall, and making roads thereto, in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey.

An Act for establishing a ferry over the River Thames, from Greenwich, in the county of Kent, to the Isle of Dogs, in the county of Middlesex; and for making and maintaining roads to communicate therewith.

An Act for widening and improving the street or road leading from Tower Hill to the street called Upper East Smithfield, in the parish of Saint Botolph without Aldgate, in the county of Middlesex.

An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of King George the First, two Acts of King George the Second, and an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the roads from Gloucester towards Hereford, and other roads therein mentioned, all in the county of Gloucester.

An Act for more effectually repairing the road from the Old Furnace to Newbridge, and Merthyr Tydvil, in the county of Glamorgan, and from Merthyr Tydvil to the bridge over the River Taff which divides the counties of Glamorgan and Brecon.

An Act for continuing the term and for altering and amending several Acts passed in the Third, Twenty-fourth, and Forty-third years of His present Majesty, for repairing, amending, and keeping in repair several roads within the county of Carmarthen.

An Act for making a new branch of road from the town of Carmarthen to Lougher, in the county of Glamorgan, and another branch of road from the Great Mountain to Llandilo, in the same county.

An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of two Acts passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirtieth and Thirty-second years of His present Majesty, and of an Act passed in the Forty-fifth year of His present Majesty, for repairing several roads in the counties of Carlow, Kilkenny, and Tipperary; and also for more effectually repairing and maintaining the road leading from the town of Clonmel through the county of Waterford to the cross roads of Knocklofty, in the county of Tipperary.

An Act for maintaining the road leading from the city of Cork to the town of Tralee, in the county of Kerry.

An Act for making a public carriage-road from the present turnpike road near the south end of Highbury-Place, Islington, to Haberdashers'-Walk, in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex.

An Act to continue the term and alter and enlarge the powers of two Acts of the Eleventh and Thirty-second years of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from the Market House in the town of Great Faringdon, in the county of Berks, to Burford, in the county of Oxford.

And Twenty-seven private Acts.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the States of the Island of Jersey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the States of His Majesty's Island of Jersey, beg leave to express our horror and detestation of the foul and barbarous deed which has deprived your Royal Highness of an able and faithful servant, and the nation of a most upright and enlightened statesman, the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval.

The perpetration of a sanguinary crime must, in all cases, raise, in every honest heart, feelings of abhorrence; but they are most powerfully and poignantly excited, when the victim of this atrocious act is conspicuously eminent for every public virtue.

Emulous of the example shewn us by our ancestors, of inviolable attachment to our princes, we rejoice in every prosperous, and lament every unfortunate event that befalls them; and we crave permission most sincerely to condole with your Royal Highness on the loss of a Minister so every way fitted to second and to carry into execution your beneficent purposes for the welfare and prosperity of the British empire.

We are duly sensible of the blessings we enjoy under the mild and auspicious government of your royal house; and that it may be continued to us from generation to generation, is the object of our most ardent wishes and prayers.

By order the States,

Francis Godfray, Greffier.

Jersey, May 23, 1812.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Chatham, and presented by Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address and Condolence of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the county of Inverness.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of Peace, of the county of Inverness, impressed with the strongest feelings of abhorrence at the foul murder of the Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Commissioner of His Majesty's Trea-