THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Town of South Shields and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the strongest assurances of attachment to your person, and of our resolution to support your government with zeal, constancy, and firmness.

While we sympathize most deeply with your Royal Highness on the lamented indisposition of our venerable and beloved Sovereign, we eagerly seize this opportunity to convey to your Royal Highness the ardent feelings of gratitude excited in our breasts by the numerous blessings which we have enjoyed, during the long and glorious reign of your royal father; and more especially under the unequivocal proofs so repeatedly afforded, under circumstances of peculiar difficulty, of his sacred regard of those fundamental principles of the constitution which seat your illustrious family on the throne of these realms.

At the same time, we most respectfully beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, our condolence and unfeigned regret at the murderous catastrophe which has deprived your Royal Highness of a faithful and loyal servant, and the country of an able and upright Minister, whose integrity and talents were universally admired; a catastrophe which has filled our hearts with the most poignant grief, and our breasts with the utmost horror and detestation at the atrocious crime, and its perpetrator.

We also beg leave to express our indignation at the attempts which have been too successfully made to indispose the people against the government, for events which have so evidently been beyond their controul, and lament the excesses committed by some of the populace; but trust that the firm and moderate manner which your Royal Highness in council has put the laws of the country in force, will speedily bring those misguided people to obedience, and a due sense of their duty.

Convinced that it is the intention of your Royal Highness to rule this nation with a moderate yet firm government, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that the strictest attention shall be paid by us to the laws of our country; and that we will exert ourselves on every occasion, in guarding the peace of this town and its vicinity.

Relying on the goodness of the Almighty to continue in prosperity the British nation, and guard with His divine power the British people from the evil machinations of their enemies, we ardently pray that your Royal Highness may long be preserved to the nation, in health, prosperity, and happiness.

[Transmitted by Mr. Wharton, and presented by Lord Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and affectionate Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Bailiffs, of the Borough of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, in Common Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Bailiffs, of Chepping Wycombe, humbly intreat permission to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our deepest sorrow and abhorrence at the violent and horrid murder of the late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Commissioner of His Majesty's Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer.

This shocking deed we are happy to learn is in no way connected with any system of a sanguinary nature, but the sole act of a wretched individual. We most sincerely lament the loss which the family of the deceased, and the nation at large have sustained by the death of so excellent and valuable a man.

We beg permission to assure your Royal Highness of our firm and unshaken attachment to your royal house and person; and our fixed determination to support the crown and dignity of these realms.

Signed by order of the Council,

Rt. Nash, Town Clerk.
