

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership carried on by the undersigned, Ann Burley and Thomas Richardson, (under the firm of Burley and Richardson, as Milliners, Dress Makers, and Tailors, at Sittingbourne, in the County of Kent) was this day dissolved by mutual consent; and that the same will be from henceforth carried on by me the said Ann Burley, who will pay and receive all legal demands due from and to the said Concern. Dated this 20th day of June 1812.

Ann Burley.
Thomas Richardson.

Brig SUCCESS, of London, Robert Waller, formerly and Robert Lachlan, late Master.

ALL persons having claims on the above-mentioned vessel, her master, or owners, are requested to send the particulars of the same, before the 1st of August next, to Joseph Lachlan, Ship-Broker, No. 22, Great Alley-Street, London.

Wanted a proper person to fill the place of Head Master of the Free Grammar-School at Witton, near Northwich, in the County of Chester. The statutes of the said School require that the Head Master shall be a good classical scholar, a graduate of one of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, and shall be 30 years of age. The present stipend is 100l. per annum, or thereabouts, and will increase on the expiration of the leases of part of the school lands.

Testimonials to be sent immediately to the Bailiff-Feoffees, at Northwich aforesaid.

JOHN HUNT, THOMAS BARKER, Bailiff-Feoffees.

Expedition Canal Conveyance to and from London, Liverpool, Manchester, &c. by DARCH, DICKINSON, M'NIEL, and Co. No. 87, London-Wall.

London, June 23, 1812.

Notice is hereby given, that the Proprietors of the above Concern will not be accountable for any goods put into returned wrappers, casks, packages, &c. &c. nor will they allow any claim for damages that shall not be made within three days after the delivery.

Goods addressed to order, or till called for, not taken away within 24 hours after their arrival, every accident or damage they may sustain during the remainder of their continuance will be at the risque of the owners; and all goods suffered to remain for the convenience of the owners, are entirely at their risque.

Packages containing aqua-fortis, spirits of vitriol, or other ardent spirits, are at the owner's risk, and must be particularised on the direction, or neglect of such precaution will subject the owner to the further risk of all goods that may be damaged by such spirits.

All looking or plate-glass, money, plate, watches, rings, jewells, writings, china, &c. &c. are entirely at the owner's risk, unless entered as such, and an insurance, (above the common carriage,) according to value paid for on delivery.

All goods which shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried, will be considered as general liens, and subject not only for the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also for the general balance due from the respective owners to the proprietors.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY authority obtained from His Excellency Robert Gordon, Esq. Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the colony Berbice and its dependencies, Vice-Admiral, and President in all Courts and Colleges within the same, &c. &c. &c. granted upon two petitions, the one presented by Douglas, Reid, and Co. inhabitants of this colony, versus plantation Bloomfield, and the other by J. F. and A. Douglas, of Glasgow, versus John Mac C. McDonald, both under date of 21st October 1811;

I, the undersigned First Marshal of the Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell, at public execution sale, in presence of two Counsellors' Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of March 1813 (the precise day hereafter to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony), the above-mentioned cotton estate called Bloomfield, the property of said John Mac C. McDonald, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging; all conformable to an inventory thereof, and now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the above-mentioned estate or cotton plantation called Bloomfield, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring his reason for such opposition in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this colony.—Berbice, 19th January 1812.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.
