From Tuesday, June 30, to Saturday, July 4, 1812.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased to declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, on the 21st day of April 1812, "That if at any time hereafter the Berlin and Milan Decrees shall, by some authentic act of the French Government, publicly promulgated, be absolutely and unconditionally repealed, then and from thenceforth the Order in Council of the 7th of January 1807, and the Order in Council of the 26th of April 1809, shall, without any further Order, be, and the same are hereby declared from thenceforth to be, wholly and absolutely revoked."

And whereas the Chargé des Affaires of the United States of America, Resident at this Court, did, on the 20th day of May last, transmit to Lord Viscount Castlereagh, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a Copy of a certain Instrument, then for the first time communicated to this Court, purporting to be a Decree passed by the Government of France, on the 28th day of April 1811, by which the Décrees of Berlin and Milan are declared to be definitively no longer in force, in regard to American vessels.

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, although he cannot consider the tenor of the said Instrument as satisfying the conditions set forth in the said Order of the 21st of April last, upon which the said Orders were to cease and determine; is nevertheless disposed on his part to take such measures as may tend to re-establish the intercourse between Neutral and Belligerent Nations, upon its accustomed principles—His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that the Order in Council bearing date the 7th day of January 1807, and the Order in Council bearing date the 26th day of April 1809, be revoked, so far as may regard American vessels, and their cargoes being American property, from the 1st day of August next.

But whereas by certain Acts of the Government of the United States of America, all British armed vessels are excluded from the harbours and waters of the said United States, the armed vessels of France being permitted to enter therein; and the commercial intercourse between Great Britain: and the said United States is interdicted, the commercial intercourse between France and the said United States having been restored, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased hereby further to declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that if the Government of the said United States shall not, as soon as may be, after this Order shall have been duly notified by His Majesty's Minister in America to the said Government, revoke, or cause to be revoked, the said Acts, this present Order shall in that case, after due notice signified by His Majesty's Minister in America to the said Government, be thenceforth null and of no effect.

It is further ordered and declared, that all American vessels, and their cargoes being American property, that shall have been captured subsequently to the 20th day of May last, for a breach of the aforesaid Orders in Council alone, and which shall not have been actually condemned before the date of this Order; and that all Ships and Cargoes, as aforesaid, that shall henceforth be captured under the said Orders, prior to the 1st day of August next, shall not be proceeded against to condemnation till further orders, but shall, in the event of this Order not becoming null and of no effect, in the case aforesaid, be forthwith liberated and restored, subject to such reasonable expenses on the part of the captors as shall have been justly incurred.

Provided that nothing in this Order contained, respecting the Revocation of the Orders herein mentioned, shall be taken to revive wholly or in part the Orders in Council of the 11th of November 1807, or any other Order not herein mentioned, or to deprive Parties of any legal remedy to which they may be entitled under the Order in Council of the 21st of April 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is hereby pleased further to declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that nothing in this present Order contained, shall be understood to preclude His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, if circumstances shall so require, from restoring, after reasonable notice, the Orders of the 7th of January 1807, and 26th of April 1809, or any part thereof, to their full effect, or from taking such other measures of retaliation against the Enemy, as may appear to His Royal Highness to be just and necessary.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them may respectively appertain.

James Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1812.

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the Countries belonging to the United States of America; and between His Majesty's said Subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies;" it is amongst other things enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by order or orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by warrant or warrants under his sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise in case of necessity the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported, except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions, as shall be specified in such order or orders, warrant or warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law.

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, and also pitch, tar, and turpentine; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, and also pitch, tar, and turpentine, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licences shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: And His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, pitch, tar, and turpentine, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, pitch, tar, and turpentine, and the number of live stock. And the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act enacted; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted.

Lord ~~Wade~~ Herbert's Office, June 29, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton House, on Tuesday the 7th of July next; at Two o'clock.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and sincere Address of the Magistrates, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, assembled by public Notice at Trim, on Monday, the 8th of June 1812, William B. Wade, Esq. High Sheriff, in the Chair.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, respectfully beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of steady attachment and zealous loyalty to our revered Monarch and his illustrious house, and with that warm affection to your august person, which is the inherent characteristic of our countrymen, and to express to your Royal Highness our sincere sorrow for, and detestation of, the barbarous assassination of the late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, within the walls of the House of Commons; and to condole with your Royal Highness upon the loss of a subject so highly endowed with every public and private virtue. Under such a grievous affliction, it is however a consolation to reflect that it has been the act of an insulated individual, totally unconnected with party or politics; and we humbly return your Royal Highness our sincere thanks for having, through your Parliament, so amply provided for his numerous family.

William B. Wade, High Sheriff.

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Cromarty, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness to express our sorrow at the prolonged indisposition of your Royal Father, our most gracious Sovereign; but while we have thus, in the course of Providence, to deplore the suspension of regal authority in the person of His Majesty; we have to rejoice, that, since your Royal Highness has assumed the government, every act thereof has marked that firmness of conduct, and that discrimination of character; which assure us that the safety and prosperity of the empire are your primary concern, and that in your hands our invaluable rights and privileges, civil and sacred, will continue to be maintained.

We feel impelled in a particular manner to offer our sincere and sympathetic condolence to your Royal Highness on the late horrible assassination committed within the precincts of Parliament, on that upright and truly estimable person the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, whose public and private virtues seemed to vie with each other; and whose loss to the nation as a statesman, in the present important crisis, must be severely felt. Assured that your Royal Highness will, during your temporary government, follow the manly and consistent example of your Royal Father, we earnestly pray that after, in the course of Providence, you assume the full exercise thereof, you may long reign over a free and happy people, and transmit unimpaired to your family our enviable constitution, both in church and state.

Signed in our name; and by our appointment, at Cromarty, this 10th day of June 1812 years, by Donald Mackenzie, Preses.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Deputy Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Lostwithiel, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Deputy Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Lostwithiel, in the County of Cornwall, assembled at the Guildhall, on Thursday, the 11th day of June 1812, having, in common with the whole kingdom, re-received the account of the assassination of the Right Hon. Spencer Perceval with the greatest astonishment and horror, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to express our detestation of the crime.

It is some consolation, though a melancholy one, that it is the act of an isolated individual, and that the real character of Englishmen remains pure as ever.

We observe with great pleasure your Royal Highness's very prompt attention in endeavouring to alleviate, in some measure, the severe affliction of Mrs. Perceval and her numerous family, by recommending to the two Houses of Parliament a liberal pecuniary grant.

While we condole with your Royal Highness on the loss of so much talent and virtue in the country, we trust we shall never be found wanting in our exertions in any dangerous crisis of the British empire.

Signed at the request of the meeting,
P. T. Pomery. Deputy Mayor.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 1, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received at Lord Bathurst's Office, addressed to the Earl of Liverpool by Major-General Ross, commanding at Carthage, dated May 22, 1812.

MY LORD, Carthage, May 22, 1812.

IHAVE the honour to transmit herewith, for your Lordship's information, the copy of my dispatch of this date, addressed to Major-General Cooke, giving an account of the capture of the city of Almeria by a small Spanish force, which I lately informed your Lordship had been embarked at this port, in British transports, under the orders of Captain Adam, of His Majesty's ship Invincible.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ANDREW ROSS, Major-General.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Ross to Major-General Cooke, dated Carthage, May 22, 1812.

MY letter No. 17, of the 16th instant, would advise you of the progress of a combined expedition to the westward of this, according to the information which I had received up to that date. The result has now justified the sanguine hopes that every one entertained of the success of operations, carried on under the direction of an officer of the zeal and ability possessed by Captain Adam, of His Majesty's ship Invincible. Nothing could be better-timed than the movements of General Freire, who, in consequence of the information I sent to General O'Donnell, made an attack upon the enemy and drove him from Baza on the 13th, the same day on which the force under the command of Captain Adam appeared off Almeria; that officer having judiciously taken time to send on shore, at some distance from the place, to ascertain the strength, position, and movements of the enemy, learned that they were in the place to the number of four or five hundred, including cavalry, and had not as yet made any detachments to assist in opposing General Freire, but early on the 14th instant it appears that the French General had sent three couriers to Almeria (no doubt ignorant of this expedition) to order the garrison to join him immediately, which it proceeded to do accordingly, and as it marched out Captain Adam landed the three hundred Spanish troops he had with him, under the command of Colonel Alveor, and took possession of the place.

The consequence of this has been that Captain Adam has been enabled to take or destroy a privateer and her two prizes; to blow up the castle of San Elmo, which is situated upon an almost inaccessible rock, and all the sea defences and batteries which protected the anchorage of this place, and formed a secure resort for the numerous privateers which have been long an annoyance to the British and Spanish trade on this coast.

Captain Adam has also embarked all the serviceable guns, carriages, and ordnance stores he found in the place, totally destroying the remainder, and was busily employed on these services, and in forwarding the embarkation of a quantity of sulphur and lead from the King's mines, at six leagues from that place, under the direction of a Spanish Intendente, who had joined him with one hundred cavalry from Nijar, when he wrote to me on the 18th instant, in answer to the express I sent to him by a gun-boat, to acquaint him of General Freire's retreat before a superior force of the enemy at Baza. General O'Donnell was with me here two days, when he received dispatches from General Freire and Colonel Alveor, informing him, that the inhabitants of Almeria had received the Spanish troops with the most enthusiastic demonstration of patriotism on their entering that place on the 14th instant, and as by the destruction of the fortifications, that port can no longer be useful to the enemy, either as a safe rendezvous for privateers, and their prizes, or as a point d'appui to the right flank of their advanced position from whence they have hitherto annoyed General O'Donnell's army, it is to be hoped that these loyal inhabitants will be relieved from any future visits of their tyrannical oppressors, when the Spanish troops are withdrawn.

Downing-Street, July 1, 1812.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been this day received at Lord Bathurst's Office, addressed to the Earl of Liverpool by Lieutenant-General Campbell, commanding at Gibraltar, dated June 8, 1812.

MY LORD, Gibraltar, June 8, 1812.

I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that a severe action took place on the 1st instant, between General Ballesteros's force and a division of the enemy, under the command of General Coursoux, in the vicinity of Bornos.

The General has not sent me a detailed account, but his letter is herewith enclosed. This affair has been attended with considerable loss on both sides, that of the Spaniards not less than one thousand in killed, wounded, and missing, including about eighty officers. General Ballesteros retired to his original ground in the vicinity of the field of battle, in which operation the enemy did not venture to interrupt him; his wounded have arrived at Algiziras; the enemy withdrew to his entrenchments.

I have the honour to be, &c.

COLIN CAMPBELL, Lieut.-Gen.

Head-Quarters, Camp before Hija Ruiz, June 2, 1812.

MOST EXCELLENT SIR,

I HASTEN to communicate to your Excellency the intelligence of the severe action which I fought yesterday, with the greater part of the troops under my command, in the plains of Bornos. This action is perhaps the most serious that has been fought since the beginning of our revolution; and an unexpected occurrence has alone deprived me of the glory of a complete victory. I am surrounded by wounded, none of whom, however, received their wounds with the bayonet or sword, although all arms were used. The loss of the French I believe to have been not less considerable, for they did not venture to throw a single party across the Guadalete to molest my retreat. I remain in my positions, determined to perish with my troops rather than abandon one wounded man: I am at a great loss how to provide for means of transporting them, as there are none in this part of the country.

God preserve your Excellency many years.

FRANCISCO VALLESTEROS.

To the Most Excellent Senor the Governor of Gibraltar.

Admiralty-Office, July 4, 1812.

ADMIRAL LORD KEITH has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Sir Home Popham, dated on board His Majesty's ship Venerable, off Lequitio, the 21st of last month, giving an account of an attack made upon the French troops in possession of that place by the Spanish Guerillas, aided by Sir Home, and the officers and men of His Majesty's ships under his orders.

The enemy had possession of a hill fort commanding the town, calculated to resist any body of infantry; and also two hundred men posted in a fortified convent within the town, the walls of which were impervious to any thing less than an eighteen pounder.

The convent might have been destroyed by the ships; but as the town would have materially suffered, and as the guns of the Venerable made no visible impression on the fort, it was determined to erect a battery on a hill opposite to the latter, which the enemy considered as quite inaccessible to cannon, and in that confidence rested his security.

A gun was accordingly landed in the forenoon of the 20th (chiefly by the exertions of Lieutenant Groves, of the Venerable), notwithstanding the sea was breaking with such violence against the rocks at the foot of the hill, that it was doubtful whether a boat could get near enough for that purpose. It was then hove up a short distance by a moveable capstan; but this was found so tedious, that men and bullocks were sent for to draw it; and it was at length dragged to the summit of the hill by thirty-six pair of bullocks, four hundred Guerillas, and one hundred seamen, headed by the Honourable Captain Bouverie. It was immediately mounted, and fired its first shot at four in the afternoon.

The gun was so admirably served, that at sunset a practicable breach was made in the wall of the fort, and the Guerillas volunteered to storm it. The first party was repulsed, but the second gained possession without any considerable loss: several of the enemy escaped on the opposite side, and got into the convent.

In the course of the evening the sea abated a little, and a landing upon the island of St. Nicholas was effected, though with some difficulty, by Lieutenant O'Reilly, of the Surveillante; marines were also landed from that ship, the Medusa, and Rhin, with a carronade from each ship; and Captain Malcolm took the command of the island during the night, whilst Captain Sir George Collier was in the Venerable's battery on the hill.

At dawn of the 21st, a twenty-four pounder was brought to the east side of the town, within two hundred yards of the convent, and another was in the act of being landed upon St. Nicholas to bombard it, when the French Commandant Gilbert, Chef de Battalion, beat a parley, and surrendered with the remainder of his party, consisting of two hundred and ninety men of the 119th regiment.

The enemy's loss had not been ascertained, but it was supposed to be considerable, as the Guerillas, who were better posted and fired with more celerity, had fifty-six men killed or wounded. Not a man was hurt in His Majesty's squadron either by the surf or the enemy.

There were two eighteen-pounders mounted on the fort, and three small guns in the barracks; the latter, with the muskets, were given to the Guerillas, who were also supplied with every description of military stores of which they stood in need. The guns in the fort were rendered useless, the fort destroyed, and the convent blown up.

Sir Home Popham commends in high terms the conduct of all the officers and men employed on this occasion; and expresses his sense of the assistance rendered by Sir Howard Douglas and General Carol, who had embarked in the Venerable, and volunteered their services wherever they could be employed.

Admiralty-Office, July 4, 1812.

VICE-ADMIRAL SIR EDWARD PELLEW has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. two letters, addressed to him by Captains Campbell and Thomas, of His Majesty's ships Leviathan and Undaunted; the former giving an account of an attack made on the 29th of April last by the boats of the Leviathan, under the directions of Lieutenant Dobbs, on a French privateer and several merchant vessels at Agay; four of the latter were brought out, and the privateer, a brig of fourteen guns and eighty men, was taken possession of; but having been hauled on shore she could not be got off, and being set on fire it was afterwards extinguished by the enemy: the vessel was carried without any loss on our part, but during the endeavours made to bring her off, two men were killed and four wounded by the enemy's fire from the shore.

The latter reporting an attack made on the same day on a French convoy near the mouth of the Rhone, by the boats of the Undaunted, Volontaire, and Blossom, under the directions of Lieutenant Eagar, of the first ship; of twenty-six vessels composing the convoy, seven were brought out, twelve burnt, and two left stranded on the beach: a national schooner of four eighteen-pounders and seventy-four men was amongst the vessels burnt. This service was performed without any loss, the boats being ably protected by Captain Stewart in the Blossom sloop.

Admiralty-Office, July 4, 1812.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Usher, of His Majesty's Ship Hyacinth, addressed to Commodore Penrose, at Gibraltar, and transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Hyacinth, off Almunecar, May 27, 1812.

SIR,

I HAD the honour to inform you, in my letter of the 20th instant, that the Termagant had destroyed the castle at Nersa, and that the Guerillas came down from the mountains and entered the town; I have now to acquaint you that I went on shore with Captain Hamilton, and waited upon the Guerilla leader, who informed me that the French had retreated to Almunecar, seven miles to the eastward, and that they had three hundred men there; and considering himself strong enough to attack them, he proposed marching upon it without loss of time. As I was desirous to render the Guerillas every assistance in my power, I promised him to anchor the ships in a position to place the enemy between our fire, which gave him great satisfaction, and his men great confidence. I accordingly bore up at four o'clock the following evening (20th instant) with His Majesty's ships as per margin*, and anchored at point-blank range before the castle, which we silenced in less than an hour. As the Guerillas were to have arrived at seven o'clock, and there was no appearance of them at eight, Captain Hamilton volunteered to return to Nersa in his gig, to learn if any thing had occurred to prevent their moving forward; and at four in the morning he returned, and informed me that a reinforcement which they expected had not arrived, and that they waited for them before they could advance. At seven o'clock the enemy again opened his fire, having during the night mounted a howitzer in a breach made in the covered way to the castle; but by ten o'clock he was again silenced, and driven with great loss into the town, where they fortified themselves in the church and houses. Desirous of sparing the unfortunate inhabitants whom the French had thus cruelly exposed, I ceased firing; and having destroyed a privateer which lay at anchor under the castle, I at two o'clock weighed and ran down to Nersa, for the purpose of concerting plans with the Guerillas. On my arrival I had the satisfaction to meet a division of Ballesteros's Guerillas, commanded by Colonel Febrien, an officer of the truest patriotism, who, partaking of all the zeal of his General, immediately put himself and troops at my disposal. The roads through the mountains being very tedious, and as no time was to be lost, I resolved to take the infantry, consisting of about two hundred, on board; and I ordered the cavalry to move forward through the mountains immediately, and take a position in the rear of the enemy, whilst the infantry, with all the small-arm men and marines, were to land on his flanks. I am sorry that the delay of a calm gave the enemy time to learn our combined movement, as he instantly fled with great precipitation, and joining a corps of two hundred at Motril, within four miles of Almunecar, he retreated upon Grenada.

As soon as I arrived at my anchorage, I sent

* Termagant, Basilisk.

Lieutenant Spilsbury and a Guerilla officer to hoist the respective flags on the castle; and immediately began to demolish the works, which are exceedingly strong, as it is built on a peninsula of high rock, scarped all round the sea face, and a wall twenty feet high. At the land side the rock is excavated nearly thirty feet deep and sixty wide, with a narrow drawbridge, which is the only entrance into the castle. I intend to fill up as much of the ditch as possible by springing mines under each bastion. I found in the castle two brass twenty-four-pounders, six iron eighteen-pounders, a six-pounder and howitzer, which were spiked by the enemy. He has left a number of deserters, principally Germans and Flemings, who inform me that they were the whole of the foreigners in this battalion of the 32d regiment; they likewise inform me that they have long looked for an opportunity to desert, as they were dragged from their families, and forced into the French service: one of them has been eight years from his country. The enemy's loss was very severe, but cannot be ascertained, as the wounded were carried off in waggons.

I feel greatly indebted to Captain Hamilton for the able assistance he rendered me, and the judicious position he anchored his ship in; likewise to Lieutenant French, of the Basilisk, who opened and supported a warm and well-directed fire upon the enemy, while the ships were heaving in their springs to bring their broadsides to bear.

I am happy to inform you that we have had no loss, except the Termagant one man wounded, and the Basilisk one slightly. The privateer was one of Barbastro's small vessels, armed with two guns, and thirty or forty men. I cannot conclude without informing you that the officers and men wounded so recently at Malaga came to their quarters. Lieutenant Spilsbury, whose wound is still open, and Mr. Bell the boatswain, who lost his arm, did not spare themselves.

I have the honour to be, &c.
