AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 23d of June 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the Countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said Subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies;" it is amongst other things enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by order or orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by warrant or warrants under his sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise in case of necessity the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported, except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions, as shall be specified in such order or orders, warrant or warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law.

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, and also pitch, tar, and turpentine; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, and also pitch, tar, and turpentine, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licences shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: And His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, and live stock, pitch, tar, and turpentine, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, pease, Indian corn, pitch, tar, and turpentine, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, to whom such licence was granted.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Simmonds, commanding His Majesty's Gun-Vessel Attack, addressed to Rear-Admiral Foley, and transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Gun-Brig Attack, Dover-Roads, July 5, 1812.

SIR,

IT is with much satisfaction I have the honour to inform you, that in executing your orders, to cruise in His Majesty's brig under my command, for the protection of trade and the annoyance of the enemy, at six P.M. yesterday evening, Calais Cliff bearing S. by E. four miles, I observed a transport galliot, a sloop, and a privateer, coming out of Calais Harbour, and endeavouring to run along shore: perceiving this to be their intention, and knowing that the shewing a disposition to make an immediate attack would cause them all to put back, or run their vessels on shore, I made sail to windward, in the hope of decoying them so far from their own shore as to be able to cut them off. Judging this to be the proper opportunity for such an attempt, I immediately made all sail in shore, and at half past eight, manned and sent the gig away, with six men, under the direction of Mr. Couney, the Second Master, still keeping His Majesty's brig towards the enemy. At twelve, there being light airs, and within half gun-shot of the enemy's shore, the Second Master discovered the galliot in tow of the privateer.

Mr. Couney, undaunted by such an unequal force, and under the galling fire of their musketry, immediately boarded the transport, while on the other side she was boarded by the privateer's men; but on the Second Master's having killed one of their men in boarding, they thought it prudent to desist and sheer off, leaving the boat's crew in possession of their prize. She proves to be the transport galliot No. 637, of two hundred and fifty-six tons burthen, manned with sixteen men, and armed with muskets; the privateer was armed with a six-pounder, swivels, cohorns, and musketry, and a complement of thirty men, commanded by Lieutenant de Vaisseau Gröthe.

It is with great pleasure I have to state, that it has pleased God to spare the lives of the little crew of His Majesty's brig engaged in this contest, who have escaped, to a man, unhurt.

The gallantry displayed by Mr. Couney and the men employed with him, merits any approbation that can be bestowed on them, for, independent of the fire of the enemy's musketry, the vessel was exposed to the batteries, which kept up a fire of round and grape upon them. From His Majesty's brig being becalmed from the time the boat shoved off, I was unable to close with them; my anxiety was great for the fate of the people, but from my knowledge of Mr. Couney's conduct, since he has been with me, I had great confidence in him.

I cannot conclude without mentioning the steady conduct of my officers and men throughout the whole of the affair; and had we been so fortunate as to have had a breeze, we, no doubt, should have captured the whole.

I have the honour to be, &c.

R. W. SIMMONDS, Lieut. and Commander,
Rear-Admiral Foley, Commander in Chief,
&c. &c. &c. Downs.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgement of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely deposited, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

" A list of articles which (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being imported from the West Indies,) may be secured in the warehouses within the premises belonging to the London Dock Company, without the duties due on the importation thereof being first paid".

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine,
Brandy,	Geneva,	and other Spirits,

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have since been completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the vaults situate under warehouse number 2, Pennington-Street, on the north side of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, Geneva, and other spirits.

The Pensioners from the Militia, at 5d. per day, with the Private Gentlemen who receive annuities from the late 1st and 2d Troops of Horse Guards, with those Pensioners from the several regiments who have been admitted on account of blindness, whether at 1s. per day or upwards, when the Hospital Surgeons will attend, for the purpose of examining all such men, and report to the next Board upon any of them who may appear to be recovered or improved in their sight, the payment of whose pension is then to be suspended till the further order of the Board.

And that all Out-Pensioners belonging to the said Hospital who live at a greater distance than twenty-five miles from London, and those in Scotland and Ireland, are hereby required and commanded, after the 25th of December next, and after every succeeding 25th of June and 25th of December, until further orders, to apply to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the neighbourhood where they reside, and make the following affidavit, which the said Magistrate for the county, city, borough, or riding, before whom the Pensioner appears, will sign and date, viz.

"I, _____, came before me, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of _____, and made oath that he was admitted an Out-Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital on the _____ day of _____ 17 (or 18), from the _____ Regiment of _____, commanded by _____; was then aged about _____ years, served in the _____ army _____ years, was discharged for _____, and that he is no otherwise provided for by the public but as a Pensioner of the said Hospital, at _____ per day (except his pay as a _____ in the _____ Regiment of Militia), and now lives in the parish of _____, in the county of _____.

"Sworn before me _____, this _____ day of _____ 18 _____."

And such of them as were admitted on account of blindness are ordered to transmit, with their half-yearly affidavits, a certificate as to the state of their sight, signed by an Army Surgeon, or other medical person resident in their neighbourhood; but in such distant parts, where a medical certificate is impracticable, a certificate from the Minister of the parish to that fact, and to ascertain the continuance of their blindness, will be admitted.

The affidavit drawn according to the above form, sworn before, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus:—"To the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces, London;" marking on the cover, "Chelsea Pensioner's Affidavit."—And counter-parts or duplicates of the said affidavits are to be reserved by the Out-Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such persons as shall be directed to pay them, together with their instructions and certificates of admission, in order that their claim to the Out-Pensions may be fully verified, and their persons clearly identified.

And to the end that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same persons who have passed their examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from any of the Regiments, or Independent Companies of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalions, are not to mention in their affidavits such Regiment, or Company of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalion in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army from which they were first discharged and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

The Pensioners are particularly to take notice, that the half-yearly payments after Christmas are regulated, as to the place of payment, by the musters at Chelsea; or the affidavits sent as above, after the Midsummer preceding; and that the Midsummer payment is in like manner regulated by the musters or affidavits after the Christmas preceding.

It is also ordered and directed, that no person who shall change the place of his abode given in at his muster, or specified in his affidavit as aforesaid, and who may apply for his pension (excepting to the Officers of Excise nearest such place of abode,) shall receive the same, unless it appears, by the certificate of respectable persons, that such removal was through unavoidable necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent; and that if any Pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double payment of the pension, either at Chelsea or at different places, he shall be struck off the lists; for the better prevention of which frauds, each Pensioner is required to produce his instruction papers at the time of payment.

Lastly, it is notified that none will be entered upon the pay-lists of the said Hospital, or be entitled to receive any benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these orders and directions; particularly in sending their half-yearly affidavits to the Paymaster-General, as above-directed, and to no other office, which several of the Pensioners have of late either neglected to do, or sent them irregularly to other Departments.
