AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the sixth day of January last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said eighth day of August next,) presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and the Right Honourable the Lords-Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for ex-cuting the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the sixth day of January last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this Kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do at any time, for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or to any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed, or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel, during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments within the same season; And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, an act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, for permitting the importation into Great Britain of hides and other articles in foreign ships," it is enacted that an act, made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the fifth day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the importation of hides, calf-skins, horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), in foreign ships, on payment of the like duties as if imported in British or Irish ships;" which by an act, made in the forty-fifth year of His present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to goat-skins imported in foreign ships; and which was further continued by an act made in the forty-seventh year of his present Majesty, until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, should be and the same was thereby further continued until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace: And whereas by the said acts it is lawful for His Majesty, by his Order in Council from time to time, when and as often as it may be judged expedient, to permit any hides, pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins dressed or undressed, horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also goat-skins, to be imported in any foreign ship or vessel, and to be admitted to entry in any port or place in the United Kingdom, on payment of such and the like duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel; any thing contained in any act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's privy council, is thereupon pleased, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said above-recited act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months, from the eighth day of August next, the importation of hides, or pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins, dressed or undressed horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also of goat-skins, dressed or undressed, in any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded; and that on the arrival at any port of the United Kingdom of any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded, with any of the articles abovementioned, the said goods shall be admitted to entry on payment of the same duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Bishop and the Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, resident within the City and Deanery of Bristol.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and the Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, resident within the City and Deanery of Bristol, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest condolence on the dreadful act of assassination committed upon the person of the late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval.

Such a deed, at all times, and under all circumstances, most abhorrent from the feelings of Englishmen, cannot but call forth, upon the present occasion, a more than usual degree of regret and indignation.

A faithful and upright Minister, acknowledged by every description of His Majesty's subjects to have uniformly acted according to the dictates of a most pure and uncorrupted mind, is suddenly cut off by the arm of an assassin, within the walls of that house where he had long and laboriously dedicated his best services to his Sovereign and his country.

But, in addition to the grief and indignation which this atrocious act has universally excited, we cannot but be sensible to the loss which religion has sustained by the death of this virtuous Statesman, whose attention was steadily directed to its interests, and who extended its influence upon the minds and hearts of men, by that best lesson, the example of his own life.

We humbly entreat your Royal Highness to accept, together with our condolence upon this calamitous event, the assurance of our unfeigned loyalty to His Majesty, of our dutiful attachment to your Royal Highness, and of our determination to persevere in inculcating such principles as, under Divine Providence, may best promote the welfare of our fellow-subjects, and most effectually maintain and support our present happy constitution in church and state.

[Presented by the Lord Bishop of Bristol.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, sincerely participating in the universal sentiment of deep regret and abhorrence at the atrocious assassination of The Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, in the Commons House of Parliament, whilst in the execution of his public duty; a man pre-eminently distinguished no less for his public than his private virtues, humbly beg leave to offer our condolence to your Royal Highness on this truly afflictive and melancholy occasion.

In deploring an event which in the natural course of things would have excited feelings of universal concern, we cannot help drawing some degree of consolation from the reflection, that this has been the act of a solitary misguided individual, unconnected with any sanguinary system whatever.

We are anxious at the same time to avail ourselves of the opportunity of expressing our unfeigned loyalty and attachment to our revered Sovereign, and to your Royal Highness's person, together with our firm determination to support, unimpaired, our invaluable constitution, and to resist any hostility that may be offered to the government, religion, and laws of this happy country.

In testimony whereof we, the said Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants, have hereunto set our hands, and the said Mayor hath caused the common seal of the said Borough to be affixed thereto, this 29th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1812.

[Presented by Captain Agar, one of the Representatives for Sudbury, and also by Dr. Lauchlan Maclean, M. D. Senior Alderman.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Hertford.

May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Hertford, most humbly approach your Royal Highness, to testify our horror, and express our deep concern at the late unexampled and atrocious act of assassination committed on the person of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Lord of the Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer, within the walls of Parliament, and on his way to discharge the important duties of his station; whereby your Royal Highness and the country have been deprived of an able and faithful Minister, and society of one of its brightest ornaments.

We trust that such crimes, heretofore unknown to the manly and generous mind of a British people, may not again occur; but we cannot help most sincerely lamenting, that the character, of which we have been long so justly proud, should for a moment have been obscured by a ferocious and sanguinary spirit, so repugnant to the general feelings of our countrymen, and which has recently manifested itself upon this, as well as other occasions.

We offer our sincere condolence to your Royal Highness on this most melancholy event, and we humbly request your acceptance of our assurances of loyalty to our Sovereign, attachment to your Royal Highness, and of our best endeavours to maintain the tranquillity, and constitution of these realms.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the meeting, held at the Shire-House at Hertford, on Wednesday the 17th day of June 1812.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Carmarthen, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the warmest assurances of respect for, and attachments to your Royal Person and Government, and at the same time to express our most sincere regret and heartfelt indignation at the late most foul and atrocious murder, committed on the person of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, First Lord of His Majesty's Treasury, and Chancellor of the Exchequer, at the door of the House of Commons, at the moment he was about to enter upon the discharge of the duties of these high and important offices; yet, lamenting as we do most cordially, that one Englishman should be found capable of perpetrating an act so disgraceful to the character and so repugnant to the sentiments of a brave, generous, and enlightened people, we are consoled by the reflection that the deed, flagrant as it was, originated entirely in the ungoverned temper and vindictive spirit of a solitary individual, prompted thereto neither by motives of a political nature nor the intemperance of fanatic violence, and we therefore most sincerely trust, for the honour of our country, that never again will a similar instance afford to the annals of these Kingdoms matter of such direful record.—May the protection of an all-wise, beneficent, and over-ruling Providence, be long continued to your Royal Highness, and may your government, whether for and on behalf of your much respected Royal Father, or as the lawful Sovereign of these realms, be marked with prosperity to these Kingdoms and with comfort and satisfaction to yourself.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Sir,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall, request, at this momentous crisis, humbly to join the rest of His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects in expressing our abhorrence of the late atrocious act of assassination committed on the person of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, His Majesty's Prime Minister, within the walls of the House of Commons, whilst in the execution of the duties of his high office.

And we avail ourselves of this opportunity of once more repeating our sentiments of fidelity and attachment to His Majesty's Royal Person and government.

And may we be permitted to express our most earnest hopes that your Royal Highness's councils may be attended with union at home and prosperity in every relation of the Empire.

Signed, on the behalf of himself, the Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Falmouth,

Falmouth, 24th June 1812.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the county of Lanark, humbly approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of most zealous attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and family.

Participating in the feelings of the nation, we sincerely condole with your Royal Highness on the continuance of that great calamity with which it hath pleased the Almighty to afflict our most gracious Sovereign, and to declare our high esteem for those sentiments which have guided your Royal Highness in the discharge of the duties, and protection of the interests now committed to your care.

We reflect with horror on that atrocious act which so lately deprived your Royal Highness of a most faithful and able servant, no less eminent for his private virtues, than for his public talents; and feeling assured, that, the efforts of your Royal Highness, directed to meet the pressure of so great a misfortune, were influenced by a parental solicitude for the welfare of the nation, we feel it to be our duty to declare our reliance on the wisdom of your councils, and our firm resolution to support your government.

We observe with deep regret the disturbances which have arisen in some parts of the kingdom, but we trust that the loyalty and good sense of the people of the empire, aided by the energy of your Royal Highness's government, will soon check the misguided spirit which has led to practices so subversive of peace and good order, and of the best interests of the country.

We beg leave to express our gratitude for that state of honour and security in which the skill of His Majesty's commanders, so successfully directing the characteristic valour of his fleets and armies, has pre-eminently placed us; and we humbly thank your Royal Highness for encouraging our hope, that, by perseverance in a system of noble exertion for our allies, and by due administration of the resources of this great empire, your government may, under Divine Providence, be enabled to preserve, undiminished, against every effort of inveterate hostility, the splendour of our venerable and beloved Sovereign's crown, the dignity, reputation, and happiness of his people.

Signed, in our name and presence, at Hamilton, the 4th day of July 1812.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, in Council assembled, beg leave humbly to express to your Royal Highness our warm attachment to your person, and our earnest desire to support your Royal Highness's government.

Since it has pleased the Divine Providence to visit with an afflicting dispensation our venerable and beloved Sovereign, we have the satisfaction to think, that the want of his paternal guidance is well supplied by that prudence, moderation, and integrity, which so strongly characterise the measures of your Royal Highness.

May we be permitted to congratulate your Royal Highness on the numerous and brilliant victories of our armies in Portugal and Spain, achieved in the noble cause of independence, against the most treacherous and unprincipled usurpation; and the final success of which we confidently look for, in the vigour of your Royal Highness's councils, and in the unexampled gallantry of His Majesty's troops.

We feelingly condole with your Royal Highness on that melancholy catastrophe, which has deprived the country of the valuable services of the late Mr. Perceval, whose public merit, and private worth, had obtained for him the distinguished honour of your Royal Highness's esteem, and the perfect confidence of the nation. Under this misfortune, we cannot but join our tribute of applause to that which is universally given in honour of the noble and disinterested conduct of your Royal Highness, relative to the late important Ministerial discussions. We declare our determination to support your government, by every means in our power, as carried on by those able and experienced Ministers of your Royal Highness's choice. May they still be able, under the auspices of your Royal Highness, not only to rescue the country from every domestic and foreign danger, but to add to the power, the glory, and prosperity of these kingdoms.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Town Council, and the seal of the Burgh hereto appended, this 10th day of July 1812.

No. 16625.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Burgh of Carnarvon, humbly approach your Royal Highness, with a declaration of our heartfelt sympathy and condolence, on the murder of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, within the walls of the House of Commons; an event which has deprived your Royal Highness and the nation of a most zealous, active, and upright Minister.

The horrid crime of assassination has hitherto but seldom stained the pages of British history, and it is with the deepest sorrow and indignation that we now find it perpetrated, under circumstances of unexampled atrocity. Whether we regard the virtuous and eminent person who has fallen a victim to the act, the scene and the moment in which it was committed, or the diabolical motive assigned by the assassin, it is to be contemplated as most revolting to the feelings of Britons, and as an aggravated violation of established law.

Impressed with these sentiments, we beg leave most respectfully to assure your Royal Highness of our sincere and unalterable attachment to your royal house and person, our unfeigned veneration of our happy constitution in church and state, and of our determined resolution to support the crown and dignity of these realms.

Signed, for and on behalf of the meeting.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Alban, in the county of Hertford, in Common-Hall assembled, beg leave to approach the person of your Royal Highness, with unfeigned submission and respect.

Deploing the recent event which at this awful crisis has deprived the country of the faithful and zealous services of the Right Honourable Spencer Perceval, we are anxious, from considerations of feeling and duty, to express our deep concern, and to testify to the world our utter abhorrence of the atrocious and sanguinary crime by which it was effected;—a crime which threatens the very existence of society; which, whether perpetrated against public or private characters, and under whatever form of government it may prevail, is equally destructive of the confidence and security so essential to the intercourse and welfare of man.

In a contest so arduous as the present, we feel it our duty to assure your Royal Highness, of our continued and firm attachment to your person and government.—Relying on the divine favour, we confidently hope, that the difficulties and dangers by which we are now surrounded may be effectually overcome and averted—That by the wisdom and energy of our councils we may so triumph over our enemies, that when the blessings of peace shall turn, they may be long and securely enjoyed, and the liberties of our excellent constitution, and without any diminution of our national prosperity and glory.

Signed, by order of the meeting,

John Boys, Town Clerk.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of Peace of the county of Dumbarton.

May it please your Royal Highness.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of Peace of the county of Dumbarton, assembled at a general meeting, beg leave again to approach your Royal Highness with assurances of our unfeigned loyalty and warm attachment to your Royal Highness, deeply impressed as we are, with sentiments of duty and gratitude for your unwearied exertions upon a late most eventful occasion.

We are far from supposing, that the much-lamented loss of that most worthy and able Minister, who recently fell at the door of Parliament by the hands of an obscure assassin, was at all connected with the violence and hostility of party opposition; but surely too great a licence had been given to the malignancy and virulence of personal abuse, and too much encouragement to a loose and disorderly spirit among the ignorant and ill designing. On that, and other accounts, it would perhaps have been desirable that the wish of the House of Commons had taken effect by an amicable conciliation of differences; and by forming, if possible, a more united government, selected from the known abilities of different contending Statesmen; this your Royal Highness undertook to accomplish, but your endeavours were frustrated by causes well understood, and unnecessary here to be detailed.

What more could be done under such circumstances? If the pretensions of some, who had been looked to as fit, were too high—if moderation was not to be expected from that quarter—and if the conduct of others was imprudent, your Royal Highness had no choice left, but either to resign your own exalted situation, or once more have recourse to those whose high merits had already undergone a severe trial, and with whose conduct the great body of the people were satisfied.

Permit us most humbly to offer it as our clear opinion, that your Royal Highness has been actuated, through the whole of these unexampled occurrences by a genuine sense of public duty alone, uninfluenced by private favour, unawed by the turbulence of faction, and unaffected by the indecent and groundless obloquy of disappointed men. Persisting in this most laudable course, we can have no doubt that your Royal Highness may rely on the determined support of a brave and a faithful people.

We presume not to touch upon any of those important matters which are at present under the deliberation of Parliament—we have the fullest confidence in the wisdom of your Royal Highness, and your present Ministers, and of Parliament, that such measures will be followed out, as may, under all existing circumstances, be most conducive to the public welfare.

Signed, in presence and by appointment of the meeting, Hay Campbell, Preses.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS in virtue of powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His reign, cap. 103, which Act was, by two other Acts, viz. forty-third Geo. 3, cap. 12, and forty-fourth Geo. 3, cap. 4, further continued until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, to make certain regulations for the trade and commerce to and from the isle of Malta:

And whereas it is expedient that further regulations for the said trade and commerce should now be made;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to revoke the said Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven; so far as relates to the trade and commerce carried on between the ports of the United Kingdom and the said isle of Malta, and its dependencies:

Provided nevertheless, that the revocation of the said Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall not be taken to revive any former Order of Council relating to the trade and commerce of Malta, which had been revoked by the said Order.

And His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is further pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of August next, no goods or commodities whatsoever shall be exported from any port of the United Kingdom to the said isle of Malta, or its dependencies, in any other than British ships or vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, or in vessels condemned as lawful prize in the isle of Malta, and registered as the law directs, and navigated by one-fourth of British or Maltese subjects, or natives of the said isle or its dependencies; and in like manner that, from and after the first day of October next, no goods or commodities whatsoever shall be exported from the said isle of Malta, or its dependencies, to any port of the United Kingdom, in any other than British ships or vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, or in ships or vessels condemned as lawful prize in the isle of Malta, and registered as the law directs, and navigated by one-fourth of British or Maltese subjects, or natives of the said isle or its dependencies, or in any ship or vessel belonging to any person or persons whatsoever, and of whatsoever description, and however navigated, to which His Majesty may be graciously pleased to grant His royal licence or authority for that purpose.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

LONDON DOCKS.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain Goods " imported into Great Britain to be secured in " Warehouses without Payment of Duty," it is enacted, that it should be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandize enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (B), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown and the London Dock Company, in any warehouse or warehouses, erected or to be erected, situate within the premises of the London Dock Company, without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandize, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof; subject nevertheless to the rules, regulations, and restrictions therein contained; provided that no such goods, wares, or merchandize should be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses or other works belonging or to belong thereto, should be so far completed that in the judgement of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandize, and wherein the same might respectively be safely and securely lodged, and remain under the regulations and directions in the said act contained; and the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, were thereby authorized and empowered, in writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate should be published three times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers usually circulated in London: And whereas the table marked (B) above referred to, is in the words following; viz.

TABLE (B).

" A list of articles which (not being imported " by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or not being " imported from the West Indies,) may be secured " in the warehouses within the premises belonging " to the London Dock Company, without the duties " due on the importation thereof being first paid".

Rice,	Tobacco,	Wine,
Brandy,	Geneva,	and other Spirits,

And whereas certain vaults for wine and spirits, and warehouses for other articles of merchandize and other parts of the said works have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and are now in use: And whereas the vaults herein-after mentioned, part of the said works, have since been completed;

We, being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do certify, that in our judgement the vaults situate under the new tobacco warehouse at the east end of the dock, are so far completed as to be fit and ready, in every respect, for the reception of wine, brandy, geneva, and other spirits.

Given under our hands at the Treasury-Chambers, Whitehall, the 18th day of July 1812,

N. VANSITTART.
S. BARNE
B. PAGET.

Trinity-House, London, July 20, 1812.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having given directions for a vessel to be fitted as a floating light, to be moored off the Point of Bembridge Ledge, at the east end of the Isle of Wight, as a guide to enable His Majesty's cruisers and squadrons to pass into and out of St. Helen's-Road, by night or day;

Notice is hereby given, that the said floating light will be completed and moored at the station abovementioned, by the 29th day of September next, from and after which time lights will be exhibited therein every night, and continued constantly from sun-set to sun-rise, for the benefit of His Majesty's ships and of navigation in general.

And Masters and Pilots are to observe, that two distinct lights will be shewn from this vessel, in two lanterns, suspended from two separate masts, at forty-three feet distance asunder, and hung at different heights, the one lantern at twenty-five feet, the other at eighteen feet height above the vessel's deck, by which this floating light will be readily distinguishable from the Owers floating light and other lights in that vicinity.

Due notice will be given of the marks and bearings, as soon as the vessel is placed and the lights exhibited.

General Post-Office, July 10, 1811.

THE following additional Rates of Postage took place on and from this day, viz.

Rape Seed ....	6	14	6	Average price per boll on the last six weeks.
Oatmeal: .....	1	9	8
Oats .....	2	0	9	Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London-Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

Exeter, June 24, 1812.

BRICE's and BAKER's Fly Waggon, to and from Bath, Bristol, Exeter, and the intermediate places, continue to set out from the Bell Inn, Thomas-Street, and White Lion, Bristol, through Taunton, Wellington, and Cullompton, and arrive at their Warehouse, Castle-Street, Exeter, every day, and return on the same day through the above-mentioned places.

The said waggons meet Mr. John Ashmore's Gloucester, Worcester, Broomsgrove, and Birmingham waggons, by which goods are immediately forwarded to Manchester, and all parts of the north.

Goods for Wells, Frome, Shepton-Mallett, and the neighbourhood, are regularly forwarded from Taunton, by Martin, every Monday and Thursday.

Goods for Ilminster, Crewkerne, Hazelbury, Yeovil, Sherborne, Wiucanton, Bruton, Meare, Somerton, Langport, and Castle-Cary, are duly forwarded by their own waggons.

Goods and baggage for Plymouth, Falmouth, and all parts of Cornwall, are daily forwarded from Exeter, by Mr. Russell's waggons, to his Warehouse, Frankfort-Place, Plymouth, and Market-Place, Falmouth, and to Lyme, Sidmouth, Exmouth, Dawlish, Teignmouth, Dartmouth, and all other places in Devonshire, by the proper Carriers.

The Proprietors give public notice, that they will not hold themselves answerable or accountable for any article, unless the same shall be entered by the bookkeeper or landlord, or marked as received by one of them on the book or paper of the porter, or other person, who may deliver it.

Not more than 5l. will be paid for any article whatever of less weight than a quarter of a hundred, (28lb.) nor more than after the rate of 20l. per hundred weight for any package of a greater weight, unless it shall have been booked as of greater value, and paid, or agreed to be paid for, at the rate of 6d. for every ten pounds value, in addition to the common charge of carriage.

No laces, silks, ribbons, muslins, gauze, cambrics, lawns, maps, pictures, prints, umbrellas, chairs, or other furniture, will be paid for in any degree, if damaged in the carriage, unless packed in proper boxes or cases.

Glass, china, or other hazardous goods, will not be paid for if broken in carriage.

The owners of all goods not paying, or agreeing to pay the extra prices, will be considered as taking the extra risks on themselves.

All goods which shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried will be considered as general liens, and subject not only to the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also to the general balance due from the respective owners to the proprietors of the said carriages.

Goods suffered to remain in any of their warehouses more than 48 hours after their arrival will be at the sole risk of the respective owners thereof.

Carriages drawn at the end of the waggon will be charged according to weight; but the proprietors will not be answerable for any damage in consequence.

Dogs, horses, &c. lost, hurt, or killed, will not be accounted for.

JAMES BRICE, Taunton.
JOHN BRICE, Cullompton.
THO. BAKER, Exeter.

London and Bristol, and Kennet and Avon Canal Barges, throughout, without shifting, to and from Bull-Wharf, Upper Thames-Street, London, and the Kennet and Avon Canal Warehouse, Bath-Street, Bristol.

EUCLID SHAW and Co. respectively informs the public, that every possible attention shall be exerted to give satisfaction in the delivery of goods intrusted to their conveyance, by regularity and dispatch, for the following Counties, viz. Berkshire, Wiltshire, Somersetshire, Dorsetshire, Gloucestershire, Devonshire, Bath and Bristol, South Wales, and Ireland, on the conditions expressed as follows, and which is exposed to public view at every warehouse and wharf where they receive goods, and published in the Gazette, July 1812.

Euclid Shaw and Co. give public notice, that they hold themselves accountable for damage or loss on goods properly packed and directed, if proved to have happened whilst in their possession; but they will not hold themselves liable for any damage or loss arising from fire, nor for leakage of casks occasioned by unsound packages, nor for any loss or injury that the goods may sustain by any accident whatever that may happen to any of their barges on the canal or rivers, except it happens through negligence.

All goods which may be delivered for this conveyance will be subject to a general lien, not only for the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also for the general balance due from the respective owners to the proprietors of this conveyance.

Further particulars may be known by applying at either of the above warehouses; J. Flint, at their Office, Newbury; D. Phipp, Wharfinger, Devizes; or Euclid Shaw's Office, Bath.

N.B. It is particularly requested, that all goods intended for this conveyance may be directed by Shaw and Co's barges, and left at the above wharfs.

DESIRABLE SITUATIONS IN CHELTENHAM.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Edward Smith, on Thursday the 13th day of August 1812, between the hours of Five and Six in the Afternoon, at the George Inn, in Chelleaham, by order of the major part of the Commissioners named in a Commission of Bankrupt against Samuel Morris, of Cheltenham, Builder, subject to conditions to be then produced, the following messuages and premises, in lots as under;

Lot 1. A neat newly erected and substantial messuage, in an airy and desirable situation, at the corner of Orchard-Row, in Cheltenham, fit for the reception of a genteel family; comprising two parlours, a drawing-room, and five bed-chambers, with a kitchen, scullery, good cellars, and a pleasant garden, now in the occupation of the said Samuel Morris.

Lot 2. The shell of a house covered in, No. 5, in Montpelier-Parade, comprising an entrance-hall, breakfast, dining, and drawing-rooms, with a library on the first floor, four bed-chambers and a dressing-room on the second, and six bed-rooms on the third, with a good under-ground kitchen, scullery, butler's pantry, housekeeper's room, cellars, and other offices, and a garden behind the house.

Lot 3. The shell of another house covered in, being No. 4, in Montpelier-Parade, and containing the same rooms as No. 5, with a garden behind.

Each of the lots 2 and 3 contains a frontage of about 92 feet, is about 130 feet in depth, and may be completed at a moderate expence.

Lot 4. A plot of ground in Montpelier-Parade, opposite the two last lots, containing a front of about 140 feet, in depth on the south side about 100 feet, and on the north side about 88 feet.

The above premises are copyhold of inheritance, holden of the Manor of Cheltenham. Lot 1 is subject to an annual quit-rent of a halfpenny, and to the payment of three farthings, in lieu of an heriot; lots 2, 3, and 4 are subject to the like rent of 3d. and to the payment of 9d. in lieu of an heriot, which are intended to be equally apportioned between the purchasers of those lots.

Montpelier-Parade is one of the most desirable situations in Cheltenham or its vicinity, commands beautiful views of the adjacent country, and is within 300 yards of the Wells.

For particulars apply at the Office of Messrs. Whitcombe, Griffiths, and Phillpotts, Solicitors, in Gloucester, or to Messrs. Whitcombe and King, Serjeant's-Inn, Fleet-Street, London.
