From Saturday, July 25, to Tuesday, July 28, 1812.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the sixth day of January last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this kingdom, or carrying coastwise, gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, will expire on the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the said eighth day of August next,) presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom, or carry coastwise, any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for exc-cuting the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the sixth day of January last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this Kingdom of any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, or other naval stores, will expire upon the eighth day of August next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do at any time, for the space of six months from the said eighth day of August next, presume to transport into any parts out of this kingdom any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, or do ship or lade any pig iron, bar iron, hemp, pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, anchors, cables, cordage, masts, yards, bowsprits, oars, oakum, sheet copper, sail-cloth or canvas, or other naval stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or to any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of naval stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel, during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards or garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's yards and garrisons, or to His Majesty's colonies and plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's forts and settlements on the coast of Africa, or to the island of Saint Helena, or to the British settlements or factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. bar iron, white and tarred rope, tallow or mill grease, tarpaulins for waggon covers, pitch, tar, and turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of fifty pounds sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments within the same season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, an act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, for permitting the importation into Great Britain of hides and other articles in foreign ships," it is enacted that an act, made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the fifth day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the importation of hides, cat-skins, horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), in foreign ships, on payment of the like duties as if imported in British or Irish ships;" which by an act, made in the forty-fifth year of His present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to goat-skins imported in foreign ships; and which was further continued by an act made in the forty-seventh year of his present Majesty, until the twenty-fifth day of March One thousand eight hundred and eight, should be and the same was thereby further continued until three months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace: And whereas by the said acts it is lawful for His Majesty, by his Order in Council from time to time, when and as often as it may be judged expedient, to permit any hides, pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins dressed or undressed, horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also goat-skins, to be imported in any foreign ship or vessel, and to be admitted to entry in any port or place in the United Kingdom, on payment of such and the like duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel; any thing contained in any act to the contrary notwithstanding: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's privy council, is thereupon pleased, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said above-recited act, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the space of six months, from the eighth day of August next, the importation of hides, or pieces of hides, dressed or undressed calf-skins, or pieces of calf-skins, dressed or undressed horns or pieces of horns, tallow, and wool (except cotton wool), and also of goat-skins, dressed or undressed, in any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded; and that on the arrival at any port of the United Kingdom of any foreign ship or vessel, from any port from which the British flag is excluded, with any of the articles abovementioned, the said goods shall be admitted to entry on payment of the same duties of customs and excise as are due and payable on the like goods when imported in any British or Irish-built ship or vessel:—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 17th of July 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHereas in virtue of powers vested in His Majesty by an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His reign, cap. 103, which Act was, by two other Acts, viz. forty-third Geo. 3, cap. 12, and forty-fourth Geo. 3, cap. 4, further continued until six months after the ratification of a definitive treaty of peace, His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council, bearing date the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, to make certain regulations for the trade and commerce to and from the isle of Malta:

And whereas it is expedient that further regulations for the said trade and commerce should now be made;

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to revoke the said Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, so far as relates to the trade and commerce carried on between the ports of the United Kingdom and the said isle of Malta, and its dependencies:

Provided nevertheless, that the revocation of the said Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, shall not be taken to revive any former Order of Council relating to the trade and commerce of Malta, which had been revoked by the said Order.

And His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is further pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of August next, no goods or commodities whatsoever shall be exported from any port of the United Kingdom to the said isle of Malta, or its dependencies, in any other than British ships or vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, or in vessels condemned as lawful prize in the isle of Malta, and registered as the law directs, and navigated by one-fourth of British or Maltese subjects, or natives of the said isle or its dependencies; and in like manner that, from and after the first day of October next, no goods or commodities whatsoever shall be exported from the said isle of Malta, or its dependencies, to any port of the United Kingdom, in any other than British ships or vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to law, or in ships or vessels condemned as lawful prize in the isle of Malta, and registered as the law directs, and navigated by one-fourth of British or Maltese subjects, or natives of the said isle or its dependencies, or in any ship or vessel belonging to any person or persons whatsoever, and of whatsoever description, and however navigated, to which His Majesty may be graciously pleased to grant His royal licence or authority for that purpose.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain. Chetwynd.

Foreign-Office, Downing-Street, July 17, 1812.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint the Right Honourable General Viscount Cathcart, Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, to be His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 27, 1812.

ADISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at Earl Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship, by General Earl of Wellington, dated Rueda, July 7, 1812.

THE army broke up from the encampment on the Guarena on the morning of the 1st inst. and the enemy having retired from Alaejos, encamped on the Trabancos, with the advanced-guard at La Nava del Rey. Having heard that the enemy had destroyed the bridge of Tordesillas, our advanced-guard crossed the Zapardiel, and moved upon Rueda, on the morning of the 2d, supported by the left of the army, while the right and centre moved towards Medina del Campo.

The enemy, however, had not destroyed the bridge over the Douro, as reported; and the main body of the army had retired upon Tordesillas, leaving the rear-guard at Rueda.

Lieutenant-General Sir Stapleton Cotton immediately attacked the rear-guard with Major-General Anson's and Major-General Victor Alten's brigades of cavalry, and drove them in upon the main body at Tordesillas. As the right and centre of the army were at a considerable distance, I could not bring up a sufficient body of troops in time to attack the enemy during their passage of the Douro, and they effected that operation without material loss; and took their position on that river, with their right on the heights opposite Pollos, their centre at Tordesillas, and their left at Simancas, on the Pisuerga.

I moved our left to Pollos on the 3d, and obtained possession of the ford over the Douro at that place. But as the ford was scarcely practicable for infantry, and the enemy's corps was strongly posted, with a considerable quantity of cannon, on the heights which command the plain on which the troops must have formed after crossing the ford, and as I could not establish the army on the right of the Douro till I should have adequate means of passing the river, I did not think it proper to push our troops further.

General Bonnet was at Aguilar del Campo in the end of last month.

Admiralty-Office, July 28, 1812.

ADAMIRAL LORD KEITH has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dispatches from Capt. Sir Home Popham, of His Majesty's Ship Venerable, giving an account of his further proceedings subsequent to those reported in his former letters, and inserted in the Gazette of the 14th instant.

On the 2d, the squadron under his orders being off Guetaria, an attack was intended to be made upon that place, and two companies of royal marines were landed under Major Williams, accompanied by General Carrol, for the purpose of reconnoitring; but some parties of the enemy being discovered crossing the hills, and the Guerillas, whose co-operation had been expected, being engaged with the enemy in a different quarter, the plan of attack was relinquished, and the marines re-embarked, but without loss.

The Guerillas had been employed in an action with a detachment of the enemy conducting eighty prisoners from Asturias. One hundred and thirty of the enemy are stated to have been killed, and fifty taken, who had been left wounded on the field of battle, and the Spanish prisoners were liberated.

On the 6th Sir Home Popham arrived off Castro, where a twenty-four-pounder and a company of marines had been landed by Sir George Collier from the Surveillante, to assist Colonel Longa in an attack on the place. Information was however received of the approach of two thousand five hundred French troops, whose arrival obliged Longa to retire, and the parties landed from the squadron were again re-embarked without loss. In the evening the enemy were seen marching into the town.

On the 7th the enemy were driven from the town by the fire of the squadron, and took post on the hills, and preparations were made for a landing and attack on the castle on the following morning, which accordingly took place on the 8th, when the Commandant of the castle surrendered with one hundred and fifty men, the remainder of the enemy's force having marched towards Larido. Twenty-six guns of different sizes were found in the town and castle of Castro; those in the former were withdrawn, and the latter was put into a state of defence and garrisoned by the marines and Spanish artillerymen of the Iris, Captain Christian.

On the 10th the squadron proceeded off Puerta Galletta, to co-operate in an attack upon it with the Spanish troops under Longa; and on the 11th much firing was kept up against the batteries; but the enemy being found to be stronger than the Spaniards had expected, the attack was abandoned. During the morning, Captain Bloye of the Lyra, landed with a party of marines, and knocked off the trunnions of the guns in the Bagona battery, and destroyed one mounted on a height.

On the 12th the Venerable anchored off Castro, which had been feebly attacked by the enemy the evening before; one of the imperial guards was wounded, and brought in a prisoner.

On the 15th, the enemy's moveable column having been drawn by a feint to Santona, from whence it could not reach Guetaria in less than four days, another attack was intended to be made upon the latter place, in concert with the Guerillas under Don Gaspar, and with the promised aid of one of the battalions under General Mina.

Early in the morning of the 18th, one twenty-four pounder under Lieutenant Groves, and a howitzer under Lieutenant Lawrence, of the marine artillery, were landed from the Venerable, and mounted on a hill to the westward of Guetaria, under the directions of Captain Malcolm, of the Rhin, while the Honourable Captain Bouverie landed with two guns (one short twenty-four pounder and one twelve pounder carronade) from the Medusa, and, after many difficulties in drawing them up, mounted them on the top of a hill to the eastward. The Venerable's guns began firing at noon, and continued till sun-set, when those of the enemy on that side were silenced; and the Medusa's were put in readiness to open on the following morning. During the night, however, intelligence was received of the approach of a body of French troops, which afterwards proved to be a division of between two and three thousand men, that had just arrived at Saint-Sebastians from France, and was immediately sent forward by forced marches to Guetaria.

The uncertainty with respect to the enemy's force, and the disposition of the Guerillas to oppose their advance, prevented the re-embarkation of the guns and men landed from the squadron, until the retreat of the Spaniards, after some skirmishing with the superior numbers of the French, in which the latter are stated to have suffered severely. Captain Bouverie then destroyed the two guns from the Medusa, and re-embarked with all his men, and every thing belonging to the guns. Captain Malcolm was detained longer, by a message brought to him by one of Don Gaspar's Aide-de-Camps, stating that the enemy had been beaten back, and urging him to remain in his battery; finding, however, that the enemy was advancing fast, he gave orders to re-embark, and brought off his party, with the exception of three midshipmen and twenty-nine men, who were taken prisoners, but fortunately without having one man killed or wounded.

Sir Home Popham had sent to propose an exchange of the men taken on this occasion for some of the French prisoners on board the squadron, and was in hopes of succeeding in this proposal.

The Spaniards lost a captain of artillery, and had a serjeant and ten men badly wounded. Those in want of surgical aid were received on board the Venerable.

The detachment expected from General Mina's army arrived the morning after the action, and joined Don Gaspar, having marched eighteen Spanish leagues in two days.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Thomas Warrant, commanding His Majesty's Schooner Sealark; addressed to Admiral Sir Robert Calder, Bart. and transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

No. 16626.

His Majesty's Schooner Sealark, July 23, 1812.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that on the 21st instant, when cruising off the Start, in the execution of your orders, at eight A. M. a signal was made from the signal station, of an enemy being in the S. E. quarter; after running for three hours in that direction, I discovered a large lugger under English colours, chasing and firing at two large merchant ships steering up Channel, which I believe were West Indiamen. On the lugger discovering the Sealark to be a cruiser, she altered her course to starboard, and made all possible sail; but finding the schooner gaining on her, she shortened sail, hoisted English colours, and cleared for action, and wore repeatedly to endeavour to get to windward of the schooner; but fearing she might escape if she had so done, I was determined to lay her on board, which I accomplished between her fore and main-chains, when an action commenced, which lasted one hour and thirty minutes, during which time a most severe fire was kept up with great guns and musketry, the enemy using hand grenades, &c.; when, perceiving that she had taken fire, I then directed Mr. James Beavor, the Acting Master, to board her, which he did in the most spirited manner, and carried her. She proves to be the Ville de Caen, Captain Cocket, of sixteen guns and seventy-five men, belonging to Saint Maloës; had sailed from the Isle of Bas the day before, had taken nothing, and is the same vessel which had beaten off the Sandwich lugger some time since. I am sorry, Sir, to acquaint you, that our loss has been very severe, having had seven men killed (amongst whom was my Clerk), and myself and twenty-one men wounded, several of them dangerously. The enemy's loss, as nearly as I can collect, has been fifteen killed, who, with the Captain, were found on deck when taken possession of; and sixteen wounded, most of them severely. I beg particularly to recommend to your notice the steady, brave, and good conduct of Mr. Beavor, the Acting Master, with the Pilot, and every other petty officer, seaman, and marine engaged in this arduous and unequal contest. I enclose a return of the killed and wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THOS. WARRAND, Lieut. and
Admiral Sir Robert Calder, &c. &c. &c.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having given directions for a vessel to be fitted as a floating light, to be moored off the Point of Bembridge Ledge, at the east end of the Isle of Wight, as a guide to enable His Majesty's cruisers and squadrons to pass into and out of St. Helen's-Road, by night or day;

Notice is hereby given, that the said floating light will be completed and moored at the station abovementioned, by the 29th day of September next, from and after which time lights will be exhibited therein every night, and continued constantly from sun-set to sun-rise, for the benefit of His Majesty's ships and of navigation in general. And Masters and Pilots are to observe, that two distinct lights will be shewn from this vessel, in two lanthorns, suspended from two separate masts, at forty-three feet distance asunder, and hung at different heights, the one lanthorn at twenty-five feet, the other at eighteen feet height above the vessel's deck, by which this floating light will be readily distinguishable from the others floating light and other lights in that vicinity.

Due notice will be given of the marks and bearings, as soon as the vessel is placed and the lights exhibited.

Navy-Office, June 1, 1812.

SUPERIOR CLASS OF SHIPWRIGHT APPRENTICES.

BY His Majesty's Order in Council, dated 20th September 1809, a plan of education was established at the Royal Naval College at Portsmouth, for a superior class of apprentices to shipwrights, and it being determined that four more students shall be admitted; the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy hereby give notice, that the examination of candidates will take place in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Portsmouth, on the 4th November next, at eight o'clock in the morning; and that such persons as may be desirous of becoming candidates for admission, are required to send notice of their intention to the Navy Board, or the Commissioner of the aforesaid Yard, on or before the 1st day of that month.

The candidates must be at least fifteen, and not more than seventeen years of age.

The plan of education may be obtained on application at the Navy-Office, or the Office of the Commissioner of any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards; where also information may be obtained as to the nature of the qualifications required of the candidates, the documents they are to produce on the day of examination, the salaries they will be allowed on being admitted students, and of the offices to which they will be eligible after they have served the term of apprenticeship.

BRICE's and BAKER's Fly Waggon, to and from Bath, Bristol, Exeter, and the intermediate places, continue to set out from the Bell Inn, Thomas-Street, and White Lion, Bristol, through Taunton, Wellington, and Cullompton, and arrive at their Warehouse, Castle-Street, Exeter, every day, and return on the same day through the above-mentioned places.

The said waggon meets Mr. John Ashmore's Gloucester, Worcester, Broomsgrove, and Birmingham waggon, by which goods are immediately forwarded to Manchester, and all parts of the north.

Goods for Wells, Frome, Shepton-Mallett, and the neighbourhood, are regularly forwarded from Taunton, by Martin, every Monday and Thursday.

Goods for Ilminster, Crewkerne, Hazelbury, Yeovil, Sherborne, Wincanton, Bruton, Meare, Somerton, Langport, and Castle-Cary, are duly forwarded by their own waggon.

Goods and baggage for Plymouth, Falmouth, and all parts of Cornwall, are daily forwarded from Exeter, by Mr. Russell's waggon, to his Warehouse, Frankfort-Place, Plymouth, and Market-Place, Falmouth, and to Lyme, Sidmouth, Exmouth, Dawlish, Teignmouth, Dartmouth, and all other places in Devonshire, by the proper Carriers.

The Proprietors give public notice, that they will not hold themselves answerable or accountable for any article, unless the same shall be entered by the bookkeeper or landlord, so marked as received by one of them on the book or paper of the porter, or other person, who may deliver it.

Not more than 5*l.* will be paid for any article whatever of less weight than a quarter of a hundred, (28*lb.*) nor more than after the rate of 20*l.* per hundred weight for any package of a greater weight, unless it shall have been booked as of greater value, and paid, or agreed to be paid for, at the rate of 6*l.* for every ten pounds value, in addition to the common charge of carriage.

No laces, silks, ribbons, muslins, gauze, cambrics, lawns, maps, pictures, prints, umbrellas, chairs, or other furniture, will be paid for in any degree, if damaged in the carriage, unless packed in proper boxes or cases.

Glass, china, or other hazardous goods, will not be paid for if broken in carriage.

The owners of all goods not paying, or agreeing to pay the extra prices, will be considered as taking the extra risks on themselves.

All goods which shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried will be considered as general liens, and subject not only to the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also to the general balance due from the respective owners to the proprietors of the said carriages.

Goods suffered to remain in any of their warehouses more than 48 hours after their arrival will be at the sole risk of the respective owners thereof.

Carriages drawn at the end of the waggon will be charged according to weight; but the proprietors will not be answerable for any damage in consequence.

Dogs, horses, &c. lost, hurt, or killed, will not be accounted for.

JAMES BRICE, Taunton.
JOHN BRICE, Cullompton.
THO. BAKER, Exeter.

London, July 23, 1812.
