

gow, versus John Mac C. McDonald, both under date of 21st October 1811;

I, the undersigned First Marshal of the Courts of this colony, shall expose and sell, at public execution sale, in presence of two Counsellors' Commissaries and their Secretary, in the month of March 1813 (the precise day hereafter to be fixed and notified through the Gazette of this colony), the above-mentioned cotton estate called Bloomfield, the property of said John Mac C. McDonald, with all its cultivation, buildings, slaves, appurtenances, and dependencies thereto belonging, all conformable to an inventory formed thereof, and now lying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those it may concern.

Whoever should think to have any right, interest, or claim on the afore-mentioned estate or cotton plantation called Bloomfield, cum annexis, and wishes to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons address themselves to the Marshal's Office of this colony, declaring his reason for such opposition in due time and form; as I hereby give notice, that I will receive opposition from every one thereunto qualified, appoint them a day to have his or her claim heard before the Court, and further act therein according to style and law.

This first proclamation made known to the public by beat of drum from the Court-House of this colony.—Berbice, 19th January 1812.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

From the Marshal's Office.

Sale by Execution.—Second Proclamation.
